Mrs. Mutch and daughter Lila, Mt. Mellick, left last week on an extended trip to Western Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Coady and family, Vernon River, spent a pleasant visit with friends in Millview. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Ives, Montague, spent Sunday the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jenkins, Millview. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McEachern, Mt. Albion, paid a visit to Millview on Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jenkins. Miss Eva Stewart, Marshfield, was a recent visitor to Millview. Miss Stewart is very soon to participate in an important event.

On Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jenkins and family, Miss Olive Smith, Messrs. George and Calvin Smith, Millview, motored to Pownal. Miss Marquerite Wood, Lake Verde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Wood, left on return to Mt. Sinal Hospital, New York, last week, where she is in training. Little Cecelia Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy, of Millview, had the misfortune of falling and breaking her arm. She is doing as well as can be expected.

The people of Millview and vicinity welcome Mrs. Webster and daughter, Daisy, who have taken up their summer home at the residence of Mrs. Harriet Bourke, Millview.

The sympathy of the whole community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Walsh and family, Ellitovale, in the loss of their two daughters and one son, who were drowned on Monday last.

Congratulations are due Misses Catherine Sheidow, Lila Jenkins and Eileen Hynes, Millview, who successfully passed the leaving school exams. Much credit is also due the teacher, Miss Florence McLeod.

Service was held in the Cherry Valley church on Sunday evening. There was a large attendance. Mr. Grant, pastor, preached a very impressive sermon. Mrs. W. J. Mitch and Mr. Islett Richards sang a duet, and Mr. Lewis a solo. The service was greatly enjoyed by all present.

What might have resulted in a serious accident, one of our young gentlemen while on motoring the other day, turned the car upside down. With the aid of some of the nearby neighbors they placed it on the four wheels again, and the young gent went off quite happy that he had escaped injury. There passed peacefully away in Vernon on June 23, Patrick Murphy, at the age of 81 years. Deceased had been in ill health for some time but was able to be about. Previous to his demise he was visited by his pastor, Rev. P. D. McCulgan, who administered the last rites of the Catholic Church, of which he was a devoted member. He was remarkable in his community and beyond it for his jovial and cheerful disposition, which made his home a mecca to his friends, who wished to indulge in alite conversation and the discussion of practical things. He leaves to mourn their loss a widow and large family. His funeral took place on Sunday to St. Joachim's church, Vernon River.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at Pownal on Saturday, June 23, 1928, when Miss Lillian Robertson of Flat River, was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Percv Acorn, of Millview. Rev. F. H. Littlejohns, pastor of the United Church, officiated. The bride was becomingly attired in blue with accessories to match. The bridal party motored to Charlottetown. On Monday evening a large number of wedding guests arrived to render unto the bride and groom wishes for future happiness. The happy couple will reside in Millview, where the groom is a prosperous farmer. Their friends join in wishing them many years of wedded bliss.

WATERCRESS SALAD. Watercress is delicious if served with Roquefort cheese dressing. Make a regular French dressing and, just before serving add enough cheese to taste.

Peters Road And Vicinity

Oh, boy! such weather! The whole face of nature is transformed by the copious showers and the glorious sunshine!

Work in connection with the Peter's Road cemetery, laying off plots and paths and fencing is to be attended to this week.

Mr. Cameron Reid, representing the Massey-Harris Company, with Mr. Sutherland, manager, passed through Peter's Road today.

Miss Henrietta Veniot (Dolly) of Pictou, N.S., is visiting relatives and friends at Peter's Road, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McLean.

The many well-known streams in this vicinity, so attractive to pupils of Isaac Walton, afford good sport to the man who loves a rod to dangle.

The lobster fishing of this season reported very good, is now over, and as the traps were being landed, many of our citizens made good catches of cod.

Mr. and Mrs. William Butler, who have for some time been located in Kilmuir, are, we are informed, returning to Peter's Road. This is Mr. Butler's native home, and their many friends will welcome their arrival there.

We are informed that the fine home lately owned by Mr. John A. Stewart, formerly of Peter's Road, and now in the United States, has been purchased by Mr. John A. McSwin, Peter's Road.

Mr. George A. McDonald, the man who liberates pure cold water from his hidden recesses, and fits the necessary apparatus for its use, is always prompt and efficient on this important work.

Miss Lucy Johnston, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. E. J. McFadyen and family, of Boston, Mass., are visitors to their native province, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Johnston, Peter's Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bears, of Providence, are visiting relatives and friends at Murray River, Brooklyne and Peter's Road. Mr. Bears, formerly of Peter's Road, now holds a good position in the United States.

As we look over the hay fields, we see a large area of white. This is the daisy menace. Then as we scan the wastes we see large areas of yellow. Together they form the "white peril" and the "yellow peril." Will King Fertilizer, in his cultivation campaign subdue those enemies of agriculture?

The artists of the whitewash brigade have not yet opened out in their beautifying and preserving contests.

The yearly examination and closing exercises of Cambridge and Alma schools were held on June 29th. A large number of visitors were present. The results were most creditable to teachers, Mr. C. J. McLean and Mr. Peter Dunn, respectively.

In Mr. McLean's school at Cambridge, two pupils, Carl Finley, and Laura Irving, passed the public school leaving examinations, and were awarded certificates on the occasion, making an average of 85 1-3 and 89 1-3 per cent respectively.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE

In view of the loss sustained by our sister, Mrs. Thomas McCarvill, in the death of her beloved husband, we, on behalf of St. Malchi's Branch of the Catholic Women's League, Kinkora, do tender our sincere sympathy to her and her family in their hour of sorrow and bereavement.

Signed, Mrs. Joseph Callaghan, Mrs. John Keefe, Mrs. Phillip A. Monaghan.

Mt. Stewart Notes

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. McLeod and Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Martin, motored to Valleyfield Sunday last.

Her many friends will regret to learn that it was found necessary to have Mrs. Lawson Douglas removed to the P. E. Island Hospital, and a speedy recovery to health is hoped for.

Recent arrivals at the Hotel Savoy were: Phillip Rossiter, Charlottetown; Walter Currie, Charlottetown; M. Seymour, Charlottetown; Lorne Noonan, Charlottetown; D. B. McAssey, Hd. of Hillsboro; D. B. McDonald, Charlottetown; G. Proffit, Charlottetown; J. Kenney, Charlottetown; P. St. John, Soudry; J. Howatt, C.N.R.; Ronald McDonald, C.N.R. telegraph lineman; Clayton Shaw, Fisheries Inspector, Charlottetown; Surveyors Gilbert Houston and Gordon White; J. Cheverie, St. Peter's; Messrs. Horton and Jordan, auto-mechanics, A. Horne & Co., Charlottetown; J. Kenney, the Gorton Pew Co., New York City; George Bellfontaine, Singer Sewing Machine Co.; Reg. Jenkins and Mr. A. Moore, Dominion Life Assurance Co., Charlottetown; M. Notting, agent for Chrysler cars.

Dominion Day was well celebrated here. In fact, it was a big day. (Even the moon got full to celebrate.) We'll admit it was wet in the forenoon, but that was only the weather man sprinkling the roads to keep the dust down. The tea party was held in one of Mr. R. C. Clark's pasture fields adjacent to the railway, (proceeds for a soldiers' monument, to be erected in the People's Cemetery in the near future), and was a pronounced success. Visitors came from every angle and point of the compass, even from the mainland, and no one was sorry they came, for the games and amusements provided proved interesting to ladies and gentlemen alike. In fact, in some of the games the ladies were the winners. There were the refreshments! There were 150 quarts of ice-cream made, and it all disappeared, but not mysteriously, no, indeed! Then the tea tables which were second to none. Several remarked they were the best tables ever seen at a tea party. Over five hundred dollars were the receipts on the field. So judge for yourself! Then, commencing at 8:30, the Hunter River Dramatic Club staged their play, "The Road to the City." (Another pronounced success,) and good order prevailed throughout the entire four acts. But you would keep good order yourselves if you saw the way it was played. Even the "Duke" played his part bally well don't cha know. Between the acts one and two, violin selections were played by Messrs. Lem and Roland Jay, accompanied on the organ by Miss Edith Jay, and if the audience didn't keep time with their slippers, they did with their hands (for you know what it means to sit still and listen to that trio play.) Then a couple of solos by Mr. Will Connolly, encored! A reading by Dr. Green. (It didn't quite take the hall, for the hall is standing yet.) But it took everybody's attention. The curtain dropped with all joining in singing the National Anthem. Following is the program: Cast of characters, Robert Darnell, a country physician, Dr. R. H. Barrett; the city, J. W. Patterson; Jud Judkins, a young farmer, Gordon Clark; John James, Richard's invalid father, A. B. Culliffe; Duke, a man of mystery, Dr. Geo. Green; Jet Sanderson, at the crossroads, Mrs. Howard Court, Telo Lee, her cousin, Dorothy Culliffe; Lilly Marton, a girl from the city, Amy Barrett.

Hunter River And Vicinity

Miss Reta Pickering, Arlington, Mass., arrived on Saturday night to spend the summer with friends here.

Mrs. George D. McLeod, who spent the winter with her son, Senator J. C. McLeod, Littleton, N. H., returned recently to spend a few weeks at her home here.

Mrs. Rodgerson, Charlottetown, was a visitor here on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Ruby MacDougall, Charlottetown, visited her home over the week-end.

Rev. A. E. Chapman, Mrs. Chapman and Miss Chapman arrived the latter part of the week from New Brunswick, and took up residence in the United Church, and he and family are being warmly welcomed to his new field of labor.

The annual school closing exercises were held on Friday afternoon with several parents and interested friends in attendance. Besides the several classes heard to advantage, a duet and recitations were included in the program while the unveiling of the Confederation plaque was of considerable interest. Rev. Jas. F. Kaye, Hampton, was present and in a most pleasing manner addressed the children, urging them to make the best possible use of their time while in school or college, so that they would be better fitted to take their places as worthy Canadian citizens. He also made the presentations and nicely addressed the five pupils who received the public school certificates, and those in each grade receiving prizes. After the distribution of prizes, Allan Wedlock on behalf of the pupils read their teacher, Mr. A. S. Woolner, an address and Howard Houston presented him with a gold piece as a mark of the pupils' appreciation. The Women's Institute served ice-cream, while an abundance of cake was provided by some of the ladies present, and a pleasant afternoon brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem. The following is the prize list: Public school certificates: Sutherland McLeod, Irene McDonald, Eulalie McLeod, Irene Wedlock, Olive Silliphant. Prizes, first in Grade IX, Howard Houston; first in Grade VIII, Sutherland McLeod; Progress in Grade VIII, Dorothy Dingwall. First in their respective grades in the junior classes: Florence Noy, Howard Wedlock, Stanley Watts and Lloyd McMillan. The following is the address read to Mr. Woolner: Dear Teacher, Another year has rolled around and brought our school closing. While rejoicing over the prospect of freedom from school studies for a few weeks, we would not forget the fact that we are saying "Good-Bye" to you today, and our feelings are not easily expressed. During the past year, your splendid abilities have been used for our advancement with untiring zeal and patience. While we confess that many times we have been remiss in our duties, we acknowledge that your corrections, though firm, were ever kindly and all for our own good. We appreciate the fact that you were able to mingle among us in sports as a worthy and enthusiastic leader. Our most earnest wish today is that you will decide to return and that we may have the pleasure of seeing you in your accustomed place when school re-opens. Please accept this little gift, not given because of the dictates of custom, but as a genuine expression of our pleasant relationship with you and our sincere regard toward you. Assuring you of our best wishes, and deepest interest in your welfare at all times, we are, yours very sincerely, Hunter River Pupils.

Mrs. Sanderson, Jet's widowed mother, Mrs. M. Culliffe. Ninety-nine dollars were the door receipts, bringing the total to over $600. Mr. Geo. Clark presided.

VICTORIA NOTES.

I'm sorry to say it's the last week of June. It is passing away for me too soon. If I could stretch the month of June 'till I could make it a life-long honeymoon.

Mr. Stewart Diko is spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Will D. Sherren.

Mrs. Nina Butler spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Boulter.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dawson and three children are visiting in Victoria and Crapaud.

The Victoria United Church was filled to capacity on June 24, it being a Masonic service, also Mr. Sears' farewell sermon. Collection for the Protestant Orphanage.

The United States is the largest consumer of coal among the nations.

MALPEQUE

Mrs. Douglas Gordon, Summerside, was a visitor to Malpeque on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Melville Donald, Mrs. Donald, Mrs. Stanley Donald and Mrs. Nelson Ramsay, left on Friday on a motor trip to Moncton, N. B.

The members of St. James Choir Charlottetown gave a good programme of music including solos, duets and choruses, also readings and a monologue. There was a large attendance and about forty dollars was realized.

There was a good attendance at the play presented by the young people of Victoria in Malpeque Hall, Thursday, June 21st. A sale of candy was enjoyed. Considering the number of plays held recently by outside districts, the interest taken in them is well maintained.

"One Minute of Twelve", a comedy in three acts presented by Sherbrooke Dramatic Club was given in Malpeque Hall on Tuesday evening. It was a good play and was well patronized. There was a sale of candy. Between the acts there were several numbers which were as follows: Duet, Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacDonald. Solo, Mr. Norman MacDonald. Step Dancing, Jack Pervost. Solo, Mr. Harris. Solo, Mrs. George Pickering. Step Dancing, Jack Pervost. Instrumental Music. Sale of Candy. Solo, Robert Goodwin.

Misses Christie and Sadie Dawson, of Albany, were visitors to Victoria Sunday evening.

Mr. Joe Miller returned to his home from Harbour Bush, N.S., last evening. All welcome our friend Joe back.

The young people of Victoria regret to hear of the sudden illness of Miss Marion Waddell. Young and old hope to hear of a speedy recovery.

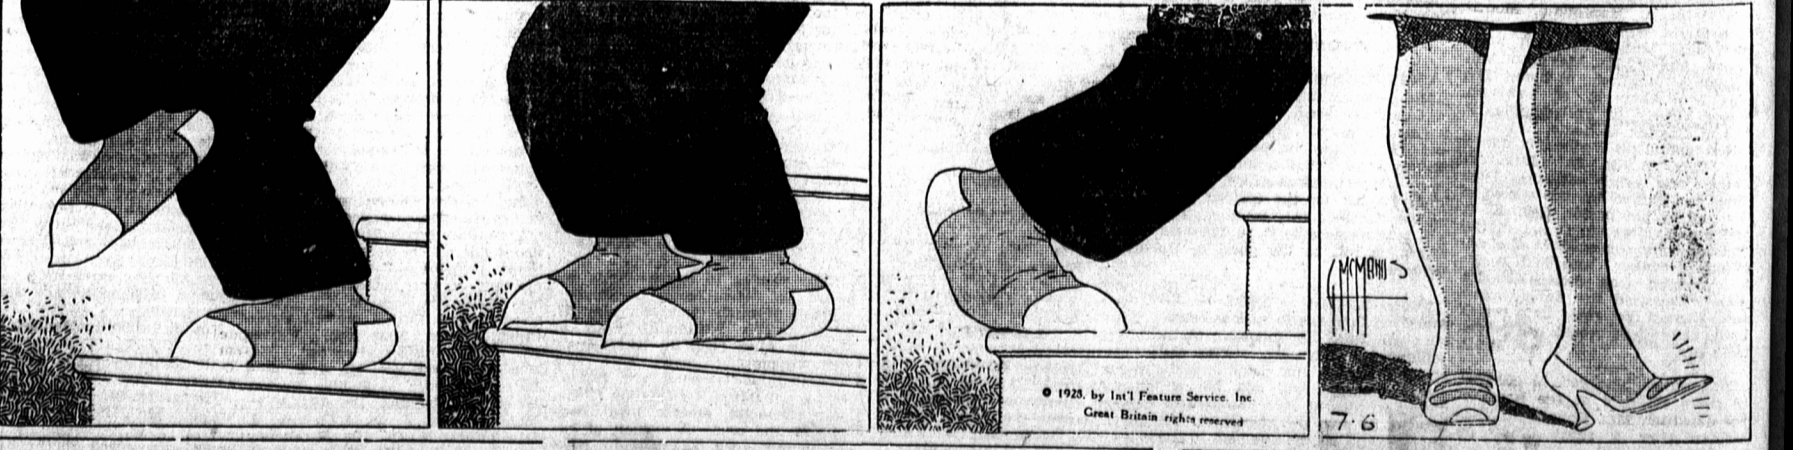

Mr. Evan Wright and sister, Miss Minnie, of Victoria, left in their car for Nova Scotia last week, where they will visit their sister and brother.

Miss Giles spoke on temperance and W. C. T. U. work in the United Church, Victoria, on June 20th. Her talk was both interesting and helpful. We wish her success in her work.

The funeral of Mr. Wallace Toombs was largely attended yesterday. Mr. Toombs left his homeland only a few days ago for Halifax Hospital. His many friends and neighbors were shocked when the telegram came saying he had passed away.

The young people of Victoria had a very pleasant outing on June 20. Eight cars met at Victoria Hall at 1 o'clock p.m., all filled with smiling faces. They motored to the North Shore, then climbing sand banks, swimming, playing games, etc., till supper time. Supper was served in picnic style, and after all had done their best for the inner man, all started for their homes, wishing that something of the same sort will take place again before long.
