S. Consul Pierce. Another display causing favourable comment was a group of 30 small cards bearing the names of members of Empire Lodge. These cards were attached to the wall in a group and each surmounted with two crossed silk flags.

The entertainment opened with an address by Consul Pierce, Chancellor Commander of the Lodge followed with Solos, by Messrs. Leslie Hughes, and Sam Campbell; a tribute to the boys in Khaki by S. A. McDonald; Reading by Mr. D. Edgar Shaw, Piano Solo, Prof. Hinton; Club Singing, Wallace Scantlebury; Quartette by Messrs. Bruce Carruthers, E. Dingwell, C. Large and Leslie Hughes; So lo by Roy B. Mr. Thos. White, Chairman of the Managing Committee is entitled to much credit for the excellent manner in which he carried out all the arrangements.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid in the blood, which affects the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive process. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and improves the digestion. Don't suffer. Get Hood's today.

A telegram was also ordered to be sent to the Montreal Board of Trade, urging them to use their best efforts to have this service continued for this year at least, owing to the congestion on the railway. Another link, which connected the past with the present, is broken and another landmark in the Kilburn Section has been removed in the person of the late Mrs. Nell MacDonald, who passed peacefully to her rest at the old homestead, Kilburn on February twenty-eighth inst. at the advanced age of seventy-nine years. Widow Nell (the name by which she was best known in the surrounding settlements) was a woman of startling worth, a true Christian and a warm-hearted friend, always ready to assist wherever help was needed. She was a consistent member of the Valleyfield Congregation for many years, taking great interest in the services and always made it a rule to attend church when possible. Although totally blind for over twenty years she bore this affliction with great patience and reconciliation. Her husband the late Neil MacDonald predeceased her over forty years ago, which bereavement left her sole charge of a family of seven young children, whom by her honest labour and good management she succeeded in bringing up and fitting for life's duties. She emigrated with her parents from Kilburn, Scotland, in the year 1846, settling with them in Green Marsh, now Bellevue, Prince Edward Island and afterwards moved to Double Hill, Lot 62. She leaves to mourn besides, a large circle of friends, two brothers and one sister, three sons and four daughters, twenty-nine grand children and one great grand child. Her children are John N. on the old homestead, Kilburn; Bella, wife of Alex J. MacLeod, Valleyfield; Christie, widow of the late Wm. Munro, Boston, Mass.; Katie, wife of John J. Bruce, Milltown Cross; Sarah, wife of John L. MacKinnon, Lewis; Allan in Heatherdale and Rita, Hughie S. of the 7th Battalion, 1st Canadian Contingent, France. Her remains were interred in the Valleyfield Cemetery beside those of her late husband on Friday, March second. The very large concourse of people who attended the funeral showed the respect in which she was held by all who knew her. The services at the house and grave were conducted by her pastor Rev. John M. MacLeod assisted by Rev. M. D. MacLeod of Caledonia.
