Westclox

A pride mark

YOU can choose alarm clocks or low priced watches just as skillfully as an expert. There is just one thing to look for, the trade mark Westclox on the dial. It was put there by experts in clock making. It was put there by the skilled workers in Peterboro that you might know it was their work. When a man puts his mark on a piece of work so all the world can know it is his, you may rest assured that he is proud of it. And when an expert puts his mark on a job he is proud of, you may be sure it is good. We, in Peterboro, set some pretty high standards for ourselves. People who have tried Westclox usually insist on Westclox ever after.
