AYRSHIRE BREEDERS IN ANNUAL MEETING

The meeting of the Ayrshire Breeders' Association was held yesterday afternoon with the president, Mr. Earl Innes in the chair.

Mr. W. R. Shaw reported the results of his trip to Newfoundland, where he had overcome a false impression which had arisen there regarding Island cattle.

A vote of appreciation was extended to Mr. Shaw for the work done. The thanks of the Association was also extended to the Department of Agriculture for permitting Mr. Shaw to make the trip to Newfoundland.

Five Calf Club boys, who had been invited to attend the meeting were made honorary members of the club for one year.

Mr. W. G. R. Threlk, of the Dominion Department, suggested that it would be possible to make Prince Edward Island an "abortion-free" area at small cost.

The following officers were appointed for the ensuing year: President, Senator Sinclair. Vice-President, William Younker. Secretary-treasurer, Bert R. Brown. Auditor, Major McRae.

Directors, Prince County, Keith Boswell; Queen's County, Willard Prowse; King's County, Gavin Reid.

POULTRY SHOW BEST EVER HELD HERE

Five Hundred Birds Now On Exhibit In Nash Show Rooms.

The Poultry Show held in Nash Motor Show rooms, Queen Street, is one of the largest in the annals of the history of the Poultry Association.

Over five hundred birds form this complement and many new species of fowl have been added that makes this year unique for display of different colored fowl.

Rhode Island reds and Minorcas are out in force and one of the largest and best displays of barred rocks that has ever been shown, most of them being from the country, are the best representation of what our Island stock is like.

The turkeys, ducks and geese are varied in their different classes and discounting their noise, they show the different kinds of these fowl that are the most useful.

The public should take every advantage to see this representation, of the different breeds of fowl that are on Prince Edward Island and it should be of particular interest to the school children.
