THE seventh reunion and ball of the Prince Edward Island Club was held in Boston last Friday night. M. F. Murray, Dr. Wm. Johnson, Richard E. Johnson, James Duffy, John E. Cameron, Hugh McKeechran, John R. McDonald, Edgar W. Doyle, Chas. C. Clark, E. C. Grant, Jas. F. McCormick and others were in charge of the arrangements. President D. A. McDonald of the Maritime Provincial Club, and Miss Isabella McKenzie, president of the ladies' auxiliary of the club, were special guests.

THE funeral of the late George McMillan took place Saturday from his late home in New Haven to Clyde River Cemetery and was, notwithstanding the stormy day, one of the largest ever seen on the Island, hundreds from town and country following the remains to their last resting place. The service at the Clyde River Presbyterian Church conducted by the pastor J. G. McIvor, assisted by R. v. T. Fullerton, G. P. Raymond, A. F. Browne and W. B. Thomas, was a most solemn one and many were moved to tears.

MR. ALLISON RECEIVES DONATION: The other $5000 which had to be subscribed before Mr. Allison could obtain the $3000 offered by Ex-Governor McLellan (N. Thursday last $100 of a required amount was subscribed by a Halifax gentleman $10,000 in all is therefore to hand. The Halifax donor has stipulated however that he will make his payment when $12,000 in all has been promised. Mr. Allison hopes by the beginning of next term to offer advantages in Manual Training—Guardian C.

THERE is one lucky P. E. Islander on earth and he is now on his way to his home across the straits. If he finds it necessary to go over on the ice he will not get nearly as cold a touch as he would have experienced here but for the interference of the police. He has worked up in Maine for some years and has on deposit in this city $700. R. A. B. St. John Saturday he drew the money and started in to have some fun. In time he reached Sheffield Street, where it would appear he succeeded in getting rid of $20. The police having been informed of the man's financial standing, took him in charge and sent him away on last night's train with a ticket for the Island.—St. John Sun.

STANHOPE NOTES.—It is pleasing to say that sickness has given Stanhops no visit as yet. May it remain so.—The chief topic of conversation in this vicinity at present is the basket social and entertainment which will be held in Stanhope Hall on Monday night 16th. Preparations have already begun for the lobster fishing season when the muscle of the young men of Stanhope will be engaged in that industry. Our veteran lobster man John McCabe has not as yet given forth his plans for this season's fishing although it is currently reported that he will try his luck Good fellow, John. Miss Rachel Hudson has returned home after visiting friends in "Frisson" while there she was the guest of John A. McKinnon. Be on the look out for the wild geese sports. You need not come to Covehead unless you have a good gun as we hear there is one in the neighborhood that will take them all. Our tree agent is doing a rushing business. Our boat builder has again laid the keel of a new lobster boat for the firm of G. D. Longworth & Co.

DERBY O. L., No. 1169, celebrated its 38th anniversary by holding a grand supper on Friday evening, February 13th. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance was not as large as it might have been, but altogether between members with their wives and lady friends, there were upwards of fifty persons present. The first part of the evening was spent in amusements of various kinds, and about 10.30 the company sat down to a dainty and tempting repast, one that would appease the appetites of the most difficult to please. After supper the following toast list was ably responded to in short extempore speeches:

- The King—God Save the King,
- Empire—James McLean,
- Dominion of Canada—G. W. McPhee,
- Our Island Home—Neil C. McRae,
- Orange Association—J. A. McDougall,
- This Derby of Ours—Murdock McLeod and Donald McDougall, sr.
- Ladies—John R. McFadyen.

In addition to the above the following gave some pithy remarks: Hugh Grant, Neil McFadyen and Donald McDougall, jr. The remainder of the evening was spent in pretty much the same way as the first part, and at an early hour the company dispersed by singing Auld Lang Syne.

THE concert at Pownal which was postponed from last Thursday takes place on Tuesday evening. Some first class city talent will take part. The time should be a most enjoyable one, just about the right distance. Make your arrangements to be there.

THE annual meeting of the Women's Local Council was held in the Y. M. C. A. Saturday afternoon. After the preliminary business the President read an address dealing with the past work of the Council, the unfinished work and new work which might be taken up. The reports of the two Secretaries and Treasurer were read, together with brief written reports from the majority of the twelve affiliated societies. Sub-committees on Domestic Science, School Play-grounds, Pernicious Literature, and other matters are yet to be appointed. A resolution was adopted asking the National Council to take steps toward having a book prepared on women's work in Canada for the St. Louis Exhibition on similar lines to the book prepared for the Exhibition at Paris. A discussion was held upon the choice between one to two sessions in the school day, and resulted in a majority vote for the single session. Several of the members subscribed for The Messenger, the new official organ of the National Council. The election of officers resulted as follows:
