One of September's pretty weddings took place in the United Church at Pownal, which was tastefully decorated with beautiful cut flowers for the occasion. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charmingly attired in a floor length gown of white moire tulle and carried a bouquet of red roses. She was attended by her twin sister, Mrs. Wm. C. MacInVicar of Aylesford, N.S., as matron of honor, who also was gowned in matching dress of azure-blue moire tulle with shoulder length veil and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was supported by his friend Blair MacRae. The ushers were Douglas Gorrwell, brother of the bride and Stewart McKay, a friend of the groom. During the signing of the register "I'll Walk Beside You" was played and the bride and groom, Daniel MacKinnon accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Edward Wood of Pownal.

The active pallbearers were all Army officials gathered yesterday afternoon in the little village of Mermald to attend the funeral services for the late Major A. S. Robertson. Only a comparatively small number of the estimated 1,000 persons present could gain entrance to the Presbyterian church where the services were conducted by the Rev. G. Carlyle Webster, assisted by the Rev. Canon E. J. Malone, rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, Charlottetown. The honorary pall-bearers were the Hon. A. W. Matheson, Minister of Public Health and Welfare and Acting Premier, W. R. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Agriculture; Daniel Farquharson; W. L. MacEachern; W. H. Trainor and Walter MacKenzie, M. L. A.
