AN ENTERTAINING ADDRESS.—Dr. Ross visited West Kent School yesterday afternoon and gave the pupils of Grades 9 and 10 a most interesting address principally on the famous tower of London, showing clearly to the pupils by drawing its location, courtyards, walls, moat, etc. The address was replete with historical incidents and was much appreciated by the students. IN CUPID'S COURT.—A very pretty home wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, Oct. 18, when Miss Ethel Edna one of Chiltons most popular young ladies and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Pearson became the happy bride of Mr. Harris Eldon Wright, Middleton. As the clock chimed the hour of seven and the wedding march was sweetly rendered by Mrs. (Rev.) Ayers the bride leaning on her father's arm entered the artistically adorned parlour and took her place beside the groom standing under a beautiful arch, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. Ayers, Bedoue. The bride looked charming, attired in a gown of marquisette trimmed with white satin with conventional veil and orange blossoms with white satin with conventional veil and orange blossoms, carrying an exquisite bouquet of white astors and trailing ferns. Finally the large assemblage guests repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous supper awaited them set off in the very best style. Mrs. Wright received many costly and beautiful gifts which testified to the esteem in which the young couple were held in both communities and by friends far and near. At an early hour a large party of charivaris greeted the bridal pair and played their part in a manner appreciative by violin selections and good old favorite songs until the hours began to fade away when the guests departed for their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Wright every success, and many long years of happiness. The joyous couple left soon after for their future home, Middleton.
