VISITED VALLEY - Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. McLean, Charlottetown were in Truro Monday on their way home from seeing the apple blossom festival over a week-end. Mr. McLean is a federal government seed potato inspector.

ARRIVED IN ENGLAND- Mrs. A. E. Power, 128 King Street, has just received a cable stating that her husband, L.A.C. A. E. Power, who is wireless operator with the R.C.A.F., has arrived in England. Mr. Power was paymaster for the P.E.I. Light Horse, and held the rank of Major.

ILLEGAL PRESCRIPTIONS - Following up the Mounted Police check on illegal liquor prescriptions another check was laid last week against a person for presenting a prescription unauthorized by law. The accused appeared before a Magistrate and was fined $100.00 and costs or three months in the County Jail.

POLICE COURT - A driver charged with "operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated with liquor" was sentenced to seven days in jail yesterday morning. A drunk was fined $5 and costs or ten days in jail, and another was taken to Falconwood Hospital with reservation that he would appear later.

FUNERAL SERVICES-The funeral of Mr. William Sherry was held from his late residence, 11 Dorchester Street to St. Dunstan's Basilica yesterday morning, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. P. McManis, D.D., who also conducted service at the grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. Pius Murnaghan, John Coyle, Jerry Trainor, Frank Butler, Ralph Fleming and Lou Doyle. The large number of Mass cards and floral tributes received bore testimony to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

REV. J. M. Murchison is visiting the Island for the Bible Society. He spoke last Sunday in Souris at 11 a.m., Bay Fortune at 3 and Kingsboro at 7:30. This week he is conducting meetings as follows:-Dundas on the 10th; Antigonish on the 11th; Lower Montague on the 12th; Sturgeon on the 13th. Service each night at 8 p.m. There is a heavy responsibility upon this great Society because in addition to supplying the Scriptures for missions of all the churches-it is placing a New Testament in hands of every member of all defence forces. Flighting their troth under a blossom bedecked arch, Miss Alice Muriel Dickson of New Glasgow, P. E. Island, and Mr. Eldon Stenford King of Kingston Ontario, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dickson, on Thursday evening, June 5th. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Robert Shaw, was witnessed by about one hundred guests.

To the strains of the Wedding March, played by Mrs. Hamilton Horne the wondrous bride, attired in Queen's blue, and carrying a bouquet of Carnations, entered the living room on the arm of her father. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Williams, Charlottetown, wore a dress of dusty rose and carried a bouquet of Snapdragons. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Theo. J. King of Wheatley River. The double ring service was used. The bride's mother was attired in a dress of clover rose. The groom's mother wore figured silk. Dinner was served following the ceremony. The numerous and varied wedding presents and shower gifts bore testimony to the popularity of the bride couple. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold locket. On Saturday last Mr. and Mrs. King left by car for Kingston, Ontario, where they will make their home. For travelling the bride wore a jacket dress and coat of British Navy with rose hat and accessories. Mr. King is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. King of Wheatley River. He has held positions in the Bank of Nova Scotia in Charlottetown, St. John's, N. B. and Kingston, Ont.
