FAREWELL SERVICE

On Monday evening the members and friends of the Vernon River and Cherry Valley churches met in the Parsonage at Vernon in order to bid farewell to their Pastor and in the course of the evening Mr. W. A. Jenkins read the following address:—

Vernon

July 2 1923

Dear Pastor, Mrs Brodie and Olive.

It is with feelings of deep regret that we assemble on this occasion to bid you farewell. During the past three years you have endeared yourselves to all of your congregation by your kind and fitting words and actions we well miss you but we realize our loss will be others gain we are pleased however that you are to labor in a not too distant field and we well ever be interested to hear of your successes in the future. Co-operation has even been your watchword and the result of combined efforts has been manifest on every hand. Your service also in our neighboring congregation has been much appreciated and we trust the good work in the interest of union of which you were the promoter will bear fruit in the master vineyard. We feel we would be missing an opportunity if we did not in some humble manner acknowledge your many kindness to us and it is for this reason that we have gathered here this evening, we would ask you to accept this parting gift as a token of our love and appreciation for you and family, we wish you God's richest blessings in your new field of labour and now once again we bid you farewell. Signed on behalf of the congregation.

Miss L. Young gracefully presented the gift. The Pastor fittingly replied to the thoughtfullness of the friends. Others taking part being Mrs. Alex Irving, Mrs T. Jenkins, D. B. C. Keeping, Mr. Milton Turner, Mr. W. Mutch. The absence of Mr. J. C. Irving was keenly felt the noble gentleman having met an accident during the day. The ladies served delicious ice-cream and cake after which "Auld Lang Syne was sung which brought a pleasant evening to conclusion. The Rev. gentleman has been appointed to take charge of Souris.

UIGG HIGH SCHOOL

The closing exercises of the Uigg High School took place in the School Hall Friday evening, June 29th. The programme was a credit to the teachers and every boy and girl big and small did their part without a hitch or a mistake from beginning to end which deserves great credit is due the teacher Miss Hugh and Miss Whitaway. The programme consisted of music, readings, recitations, solos, duetts, choruses and drills. The most important part of the programme was the presenting to the pupils of diplomas and certificates by the Principal, Miss Hugh. Miss Florence McLeod gave a reading which brought forth much laughter and encore. Miss Beth McPherson sang a solo in her usual sweet voice which was very much appreciated, which was manifest by the hearty encore she received. Mr. Walter Ross gave a short and flattering address speaking in the highest terms of our retiring teachers. He said another thing in his address which was considered to the point, that our children might as well be orphans as the few number of parents present was in evidence at this time which go to show the little interest parents take in their children also in school work.

Mr. R. A. MacLeod also gave a short address speaking in highest terms of our retiring teachers, comparing them to the grand teachers of long ago viz D. C. MacLeod, D. J. MacLeod, D. C. Ross and John McKinnon who taught in the Uigg High School when there was never less than from 12 to 15 receive teachers licence every year which could not be said of today, but he did not lay the fault to the teachers.

A special prize was given to the boy and who stood the highest in General Proficiency for the last 3 months of the school year which was won by Master Willard MacLeod and Miss Kathleen MacLeod. Every scholar big and small received a present from their teacher which was very much appreciated by all. The presents from the scholars and others to the teachers were numerous and costly which was evidenced by the fact that two little boys from Uigg were kind enough to offer their services to help carry the presents they received to their boarding place otherwise they would have to make several trips. The boys say they were well paid as they got all the candy they could eat and promised the teachers that they would go back again as long as the candy would last. It pays to be kind to the little boys and girls and some times to the grown ups. Miss Hugh on behalf of herself and her assistant, thanked one and all for the kindness shown them during their stay at Uigg. A well rendered and very appreciated programme was then brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.—R. A.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION AND ADDRESS.

The semi-annual examination of Elliotvale school took place on Tuesday, 26th. Upwards of fifty pupils were in attendance; also the trustees and other visitors. The pupils were carefully and creditably examined by their painstaking teacher, Mr. J. T. Valley, in their various branches—reading, writing, grammar, history, geography, arithmetic and Christian Doctrine,—and showed by their correct and ever-ready answers that they had been carefully taught. Complimentary remarks were made by those present, and each expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the examination, and the work done by Mr. Valley during the past six months. The visitors and pupils were then kindly treated by the teacher to a generous supply of chocolate and other candy. Then the following address was read by Miss Elizabeth Gill, and a well-filled purse presented to the teacher by Miss Bertha Gill. Address:—

To Mr. Valley, teacher.

It is with feelings of genuine regret that we learn of your intended departure from our midst. Only a short time ago you came among us to be our guide and teacher, and you have endeared yourself to all. As our beloved and respected teacher you have faithfully and efficiently discharged your duties, although, we know, often times we have tried your temper and forebearance, but by your kind and gentle disposition your excellent qualities as teacher, you have overlooked our little faults, and placed us in a position to know the real value of an education. In this, our last afternoon with you as teacher, we feel that we cannot let you go from us without showing you our appreciation of your work among us, and so, in bidding you farewell we ask you to accept this purse as a token of our goodwill towards you, and to prove the respect in which you are held. In parting with you, a most worthy son of Vernon River Parish, the district is meeting with a distinct loss, as you have proven yourself to be of exceptional ability, and have endeared yourself to every child in the school. Rest assured, dear teacher, in whatever sphere of life your lot may be cast you will always be remembered by us.

Signed on behalf of the Pupils of Elliotvale School.
