CLEANSES YOUR HAIR MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL THICK, GLOSSY, WAVY

Try this! All dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers or rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthen them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will spend a few cents for a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

MOST HEROIC ACT OF MODERN TIMES

MEXICO CITY, March 17—In replying to the address of the newly appointed Belgian minister to Mexico, President Carranza, who has been suspected of German leanings, said yesterday:

"I am pleased to express upon this solemn occasion that Belgium has realized the most heroic act of modern times of her own glory, and as an example to weak nations. Nations that will not shed their blood in defence of their autonomy and institutions have no right to figure in the concert of free nations. These do not measure their sacrifices to preserve their rights, even though they are conquered, can await with tranquility the day of their liberty, because they deserve to live for it and were born to enjoy it. Belgium should be proud of her conduct and satisfied with her sacrifices."

FAMOUS COMPOSER DEAD.

PARIS, Saturday, March 16—Count Eugene d'Harcourt, composer and orchestra conductor, died suddenly Friday at Locarno, Switzerland.

The Count belonged to a military and diplomatic family, of which the Duke d' Harcourt was the head, but he devoted his life to music. One of his last undertakings was to conduct a series of concerts in the United States with the object of making French music better known there.

Salts in Hot Water Clears Pimply Skin

Says we must make kidneys clean the blood, and pimples disappear.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood, and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances, the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and cleaning the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

Address and Presentation To Rev. Jas. McDougall

On the evening of March the 8th, 1918, a number of the neighbors, friends and members of the congregation under the ministry of the Rev. Jas. MacDougall, gathered at "The Manse," Cape Traverse, where they spent a very profitable and pleasant time in company with the minister and his household. In due time the assembly was called to order and Mr. W. W. Lord in behalf of those present explained why they were there, and after a few well chosen and complimentary remarks presented the minister with a special donation of $50.50 collected by Mrs. John Clark of Cape Traverse. In addition to this the following donations were received from the other sections of the congregation: $38.20 presented by Mrs. P. N. Pate and Miss Helen Howatt, from Coleman and O'Leary; $15.00 presented by Mr. Hector MacNevin from DeSable; $49.00 presented by Miss Lena Murley, Miss Vina MacPhail and Mr. Dugald Stewart, from Argyle Shore, and $23.00 presented by Miss Flora C. Campbell and Miss Margaret J. MacKinnon, from Canoe Cove. There were also brought many other necessaries such as oats, flour, fruit, canned goods, meats, etc., etc. Rev. Mr. MacDougall thanked the people for their thoughtfulness and kindness to him and his family. He reminded those present that in all their gatherings they should not lose sight of the fact that they are living in a most serious time. They should be impressed with the condition of the world at the present time and not forget that the nation is engaged in the most extensive and deepest conflict the world has ever witnessed. They should abstain from all that is frivolous in word and deed and spend their time, not in sadness, but with a solemn realization of their responsibility in this great struggle.

Supper was served under the careful supervision of the ladies of Cape Traverse from the abundant supplies they had brought, and all was carried out with due respect to the advice of the Food Controller. The time was then spent in conversations befitting the occasion, in singing and in a general exchange of ideas and opinions on the present situation, both social and religious.

Among many expressions of good will received by the minister the following was handed him, signed by the committee in charge:

To the Rev. Jas. MacDougall, Minister of the Church of Scotland.

Dear Friend and Beloved Minister—

We, your parishioners and friends from the several sections of your large congregation, extending from Coleman to Canoe Cove, wish to express to your our sincere appreciation of your services and our high esteem of you as a minister. You have now labored among us for upwards of twenty-three years, and during that time you have always proved yourself to be a faithful servant of your Lord. While you have always encouraged and sympathized with every movement for the upbuilding of humanity and the advancement of God's kingdom, you have fearlessly denounced all that is wrong both in doctrine and example. The high moral standard you have always upheld and the lofty ideals you have placed before us have called us to strive to live a holier life, and your continually directing us to Jesus Christ has taught us how to attain unto perfection. While you have put on the whole armor of God in contending for the faith once delivered unto the saints, your charity towards all branches of the Christian church has endeared you to all right-thinking people and especially to the members of your own congregation. We wish to congratulate you on your appointment to the responsible and honorable position of a member of the Prohibition Commission, and we feel confident you will continue to fill that important position with the same fearlessness and firmness that has characterized you in your church work. The special work you have carried on in connection with the Sabbath School has produced gratifying results, and the reward of you patient endurance and faithful ministration is seen in the beginning of a wonderful awakening amongst the young people of the parish. The opposition you have received from different quarters is a further proof of your faithfulness and is another evidence of your close fellowship with your Master. We beg of you to accept this small token of our appreciation as a memorial of our affection and regard. We sincerely hope and pray that you may be long spared to labor amongst us and to feed the flock of God.

To Mrs. P. N. Pate, Miss Helen Howatt, Mrs. John Clark, Mr. Hector MacNevin, Mr. Dugald Stewart, Miss Lena Murley, Miss Vina MacPhail, Miss Flora C. Campbell, Miss Margaret MacKinnon.

My Dear Friends and Beloved People.—I beg leave to take this method of thanking you especially and the parishioners and friends generally for your kind visitation, your flattering address and your liberal donation. As years pass by I realize more and more my unworthiness of such acts of kindness and expressions of affection. To have the sympathy and approval of such an intelligent and God-fearing people greatly strengthens me in my work, and accounts to a great extent under the blessing of God for any success I may have had during the years I have labored with you. In dealing with the many sins and evils of the present time, I have always sought the guidance of the Holy Spirit and the direction of God's word ever bearing in mind that "open rebuke is better than secret love." In all my labor "I am determinted not to know anything among you save Jesus Christ and Him crucified." In this time of conflict we should endeavor to seek for the essential upon which all Christians can agree and banish from our midst everything that tends to separate us from Jesus Christ and from one another. You may rest assured that in whatever sphere I may be called upon to labor in my Master's service I will always endeavor to retain His approval and prove myself worthy of the confidence reposed in me by the powers that be. Little if any credit is due to me in connection with the Sabbath Schools, for they are in charge of efficient teachers and are encouraged by zealous parents. Any opposition we may meet with in our work should stimulate us to greater efforts in overcoming everything that is opposed to Christ and His church. I accept with much gratitude your kind donation, and your many encouraging words and deeds spoken and performed to me and mine. You have always liberally rewarded me for my labor amongst you, and God is rewarding us all with great and precious spiritual blessings, and the marvellous manifestations of the Holy Spirit among us is but a foretaste of what is yet in store for those who are faithful and endure unto the end. Wishing you all a continuance of God's blessings and asking your prayers in my behalf.

I am,
Your humble servant in Christ,
JAS. MacDOUGALL.

THEY HAVE TO CENSOR THE U. S. CASUALTY LISTS

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Names of the next of kin and emergency addresses of soldiers whose names appear on the casualty lists of the American forces in France will be withheld in the future, as the result of a War Department order published today.

The announcement explained that the step had been urgently recommended by General Pershing and the purpose of the order was to keep valuable information from the enemy, such as disclosing the identity of units on the firing line.

Department officials disclaimed any intention of suppressing reports of heavy casualties abroad and said that lists of the dead and wounded without addresses will be sent to the Committtee on Public Information for distribution as usual.

THE GREAT NEED FOR RICH RED BLOOD

To be perfectly healthy the human body requires a constant supply of new rich blood. Nearly all the ills from which people suffer arise from one cause—poverty of the blood. If the blood is rich and strong it absorbs nourishment from the food which passes into the stomach and distributes that nourishment to the brain, nerves, muscles and every part of the body. When the blood is weak and poor in quality it cannot do its natural work of feeding brain and body—hence weakness and disease.

Headaches and backaches, loss of appetite, poor indigestion, nervous irritability, pimples, and unsightly blotches on the skin all indicate that the blood has become impure, that it is not doing its appointed work, and that your condition if not remedied will grow worse and worse. To bring about a perfectly healthy condition no medicine can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Their one mission is to make new, rich red blood, which reaches every part of the body bringing with it new health and increasing vitality. Thousands testify to the truth of this statement, many of whom may be found in your own neighborhood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had from any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ANNOUNCEMENT

As I have bought out the interest of Mr. Alexander Horne in the firm known as Miller Bros., it is my intention to continue the business under the same name. I take this opportunity of thanking the public for their past patronage and solicit a continuation of same.

On account of the war, the cost of musical instruments has advanced so that it would be impossible for us to offer them at a reasonable price under our present system of long credit. After this date it is our intention to establish a ONE PRICE SYSTEM. All goods will be marked in plain figures at the LOWEST CASH PRICE possible. The customer who pays cash had a right to get the best value possible for his money. The customer who buys on time has a right to pay for the accommodation. A ONE PRICE SYSTEM can only be established by charging bank interest from date of sale. By curtailing every possible expense, and doing business at a closer margin of profit, we hope under a ONE PRICE SYSTEM to be able to sell as cheaply as any dealer in the same line of goods in Canada.
