ANOTHER SINN FEIN PLOT HAS BEEN FRUSTRATED

An Attempt to Set Fire to a 2,500,000 Gallon Tank of Oil Discovered by Police. One Man Arrested.

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, Jan. 17.—What is believed to be another Sinn Fein plot to destroy property in London was uncovered in the Court this morning when Patrick Kenny, an Irishman, charged with being concerned with others, not yet arrested in attempting the murder of two policemen and trying to set fire to barrels of oil on the premises of the Vacuum Oil Co. 2,500,000 gallons of oil are stored there. At one o'clock this morning three policemen discovered 15 men lurking near the Vacuum Company's premises, some of them apparently having just come from the yards. The police charged the group and a fierce fight followed in which it alleged several shots were fired by the civilians. Kenny was arrested and the others escaped. The police state they discovered later on that an elaborate preparation had been made within the Vacuum Oil Co. Yards for firing the oil. Kenny declined to talk of the charges against him. The Court remanded for a week.

DUBLIN, Jan. 17.—The period of comparative quiet which began in Dublin at Christmastide proved short-lived. During the past week there was a continuous succession of tragedies in which the Crown forces and persons identified with the Sinn Fein movement appeared to have suffered more or less equally.

ON VERGE OF EXCHANGES THAT MAY MAKE WORLD HISTORY

Extraordinary Importance Attached to Return to England of Sir Auckland Geddes, Ambassador to the U. S.

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, Jan. 17.—Extraordinary importance was attached today to the return home of Sir Auckland Geddes, Ambassador to the United States. "We may be on the verge of diplomatic exchanges that will go to make world history," the Pall Mall Gazette declared. The afternoon newspapers agreed that Sir Auckland had been called home to report fully on the changes in the situation to be brought about by a new administration. "Senator Hard ing will bring to the White House a set of ideas varying considerably from those which held sway for eight years," the Gazette declared, "and within six or eight weeks it will be necessary to think in altogether new terms of many things." The government naturally desires the best information on continental conditions that may arise in the course of the British debt and the matter of disarmament.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT TO OPEN FEBRUARY 10

(Special to The Guardian) OTTAWA, Jan. 17.—The government after having decided upon February 10th for the opening of Parliament has changed the date to the 14th. The first decision was reached at Friday's Cabinet Council though some of the ministers favored the 17th. A compromise has been decided upon and a special report fully on the changes in the situation to be brought about by a new administration. "Senator Harding will bring to the White House a set of ideas varying considerably from those which held sway for eight years," the Gazette declared, "and within six or eight weeks it will be necessary to think in altogether new terms of many things." The government naturally desires the best information on continental conditions that may arise in the course of the British debt and the matter of disarmament.

STARVING IN THE DIAMOND FIELDS Rai Baroli Riot

LONDON, Jan. 16.—Despatches from Johannesburg say the industrial conditions are very grave. A glut of imports has, it is said, caused widespread unemployment. The Rand mining is depressed, and many families are starving in the diamond fields.

GIVES UP FAST DANVILLE, Ills., Jan. 16—Mrs. Ernest S. Harrington, who claimed to have been fasting for forty-eight days to influence her husband to join a church, ended her hunger strike Saturday, upon being advised by the Rev. G. S. Payne of Toronto to take food.

COULDN'T MAKE HUBBY JOIN THE CHURCH BY HER HUNGER STRIKE

DANVILLE, Ills., Jan. 17.—Mrs. Ernest S. Harrington, who claimed to have been fasting for forty-eight days to influence her husband to join a church, ended her hunger strike Saturday, upon being advised by Rev. G. S. Payne of Eldorado to take food. Ernest S. Harrington, the woman's husband, says his wife has "seen the error of her own ways and is willing to resume her daily routine of life." He says he has not joined the church and will not do so "until he gets ready."

NOTED VIOLINIST AND AUTHOR OF POPULAR SONGS FOUND IN WANT

His fortune wiped out by fire, Carl Raymond, 87 years old, famed as a violinist and author of several popular songs was found in a pitiable condition in his basement room in Chicago. He had been without food for several days. Raymond, a veteran of the Mexican and Civil wars, wrote the once popular "his Just One Girl" and "Only in the Way." He was first violinist in several well known orchestras.

PRACTICED ON CAT BEFORE SHOOTING HIS WIFE

MUSKEGON, Mich., Jan. 15.—After several practice shots at the family cat, Irving Morton, early today forced his wife to become his target and spent 30 minutes in firing twelve shots into her body. Then he turned the rifle on himself and fired once, dying instantly. Despite the twelve bullet wounds Mrs. Morton has a chance of recovery physicians said. According to statements made to the police by the wounded woman, Morton was intoxicated.

R., will probably receive a 15 per cent increase in wages in a short time, according to the announcement made by R. O. Jarman, Secretary of the local union of International Brotherhood of steam shovel and dredgemen at a meeting at the Union Labor Temple today.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT AT LITTLE POND, KING'S CO.

Mr. Burton Dingwell, Well-Known Farmer of That Place, Killed by Discharge of Gun in Hands of Young Son.

One of the saddest tragic accidents that was ever recorded in this Province occurred Sunday afternoon at Little Pond, King's County, when Mr. Burton Dingwell, a well-known and highly regarded farmer of that place met death by the discharging of a gun in the hands of his fifteen-year-old son. The latter was handling a breech-loading gun not knowing it to be pantry window and as he pulled the trigger, his father, who happened to be coming towards the house, received a charge of shot full in the face. He was only thirty feet away at the time and was so terribly injured that he died half an hour later.

Embargo Called Off Cardinal Gibbons Is Recovering

SYDNEY, Jan. 17.—The embargo declared some weeks ago by the Brotherhood of Railroad Employees against the shipment of steel products from the plants of the steel companies of Cape Breton has been called off. It is understood this action followed a conference at Montreal between representatives of the Brotherhood and the C. N. R. The embargo was imposed because the companies would not recognize the McAdoo wage schedules.

Fugitive Hun Officers Wish to Hit Berlin

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 17.—Many German officers, in Copenhagen now, are refugees from their own country, having led armed forces across the German Lithuanian frontier to fight against the Bolsheviks. They are now in a state of mind to march on Berlin as soon as the moment is considered favorable for a military revolt against the German republic.

Arrests in Montreal Murder Case Made

(Special to The Guardian) MONTREAL, Jan. 17.—"I guess I turned yellow, I ran away." This is the excuse of John F. Coffey, 12 A. Sussex Street, Montreal, eye witness to the shooting of William A. Holland by Major Robert M. Griffith on Friday in Holland's office. Coffey was discovered by the local detectives on the very slight evidence of a witness at the inquest that two men had been seen running on Sacrement Street after the murder. One of the men had been identified as Major Griffith, after some questioning the detectives got a clue of the second man which they quickly followed up.

Steel Embargo Reported Lifted

(Special to The Guardian.) MONTREAL, Jan. 17.—According to information gleaned by your reporter the embargo is raised for the time being. Raids on mails dropped from 43 the previous week to 29; raids for arms from 15 to 3. Seventy-six arrests were made in connection with the outrages and for political offenses. Courtmartials and 107 internment orders were issued. The total number of persons now interned is 1,368.

LEADER OF SYDNEY STRIKE SUMMONED TO CHICAGO

Rumor Has it That Some Steps Taken by Strikers Were Not Authorized by Headquarters and Explanations Will be Looked For.

(Special to The Guardian.) SYDNEY, Jan. 17.—Vice President Murdock who has been directing the strike of railwaymen in the Steel Plant has been summoned to Chicago. The purpose of the hurried visit has not been officially disclosed but it is understood that officials at headquarters want more definite information on the strike situation at Sydney and Sydney Mines. It is rumored in local Steel Circles that a good deal of what has been going on here in connection with the strike, more particularly the embargo has been unauthorized by headquarters and that Murdock may have a lot of explaining to do when he gets to Chicago. Again, it is understood the C. N. R. authorities have made representation to the Brotherhood headquarters regarding the embargo indicating that in the event of the embargo being seriously enforced the C. N. R. employees involved will be dismissed and are asking the Brotherhood authorities what they intend to do in such an eventuality. It is anticipated that the answer of Brotherhood will either be the calling off of the embargo or the ordering of a strike on the C. N. R.
