TOO MUCH FOOD.

Every time you eat too fast, cram too much food into the stomach, you offend a law of nature and will probably suffer headaches, nausea, billiousness, and all the horrid distresses which are so caused. Now if you will assist nature a little in an agreeable manner with such a pleasant and efficacious treatment as Hutch you need not suffer all these troubles. Hutch will give you instant relief from these little complaints and if you give it a thorough trial you will find that it will cure you permanently of the causes which produce them. Hutch is a doctor for ten cents. 25c. and 50. all drug stores. For sale by all druggists.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

SECOND QUARTER.

WORDS AND WORKS OF JESUS AS RECORDED IN THE GOSPELS.

LESSON XI.—JUNE 10.

PETER'S GREAT CONFESSION.

Matt. 16. 13-28. [Memorize verses 24, 25.

GOLDEN TEXT.

Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.—Matt. 16. 16.

Time.—Summer, A. D. 28.
Place.—Vicinity of Caesarea Philippi.

INTRODUCTION.

Simon Peter before his call to be an apostle of our Lord was by occupation a fisherman, and with Andrew, his brother, the partner of James and John, the sons of Zebedee. The first meeting of Peter with Jesus is recorded in John I, 30-42; his formal call to be an apostle in Matt. 4. 18; Mark 1. 16. A born leader he soon became the spokesman and in many respects the head of the apostolic group. Among the principal events of the life of Peter after his call to be an apostle which are mentioned in the gospel narratives are: His walking on the sea (Matt. 14, 25-33); his confession of Christ (Matt. 16. 13-19); his cautioning Jesus (Matt. 16, 21-23); on the mount of transfiguration (Matt. 17. 1-10); at the last supper (Matt. 26); at Gethsemane (Matt. 26); his denial (Matt. 26): at the sepulchre (John 20. 1-8); his restoration (John 21) Early tradition reports that Peter was put to death by Emperor Nero about the same time that the apostle Paul met a similiar fate, Peter being crucified while Paul was beheaded.

EXPLANATION.

13. "Coasts (that is the vicinity) of Caesarea Philippi"—Near the foot of Mount Hermon, called Caesarea Philippi by Herod Philip to distinguish it from the Caesarea on the Mediterranean, the capital of Herod the Great.

14. "Some say that thou art John the Baptist; some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets"—The return of one or more of the great Hebrew prophets was universally expected at this time.

15. "Whom say ye"—A definite and personal question. Their outspoken testimony would strengthen their faith in him.

16. "Simon Peter (comp. Introduction) answered"—Speaking for all and voicing the conviction of all.

17. "Bar-jona"—Son of Jonah, which is the Hebrew equivalent of "John."

18. "Thou art Peter"—Literally, "Petros" (mas.), a stone. A strong metaphor, the meaning of which doubtless was, Thou art genuine, true-hearted, and of firm faith. "Upon this rock"—Literally, "Petra" (fem.), a cliff, a rock. Upon Faith in me and in my divinity such as thou hast manifested, "I will build my church." In calling Simon Bar-jona by the name Peter, Jesus was thinking not of Peter the individual, but of Peter the typical representative man of unwavering faith. "Hell"—Realm of departed spirits.

19. "Whatsoever thou shalt bind" Whatsoever obligation thou shalt impose as binding. "Whatsoever thou shalt loose"—Whatsoever precept thou shall declare to be not binding. This explanation is in harmony with the common usage of such expressions. "The school of Shammai binds it, the school of Hillel looseth it." Note that the power given is over things, not men.

21. The disciples centred their thought entirely on the dark side of the picture unfolded by Jesus in this verse, overlooking entirely the significant prophecy and promise of the last clause.

23. "Get thee behind me, Satan"—Satan was using Peter, though Peter himself was not conscious of the fact. We should learn to detect the voice of the tempter from that of a friend, and should beware that Satan succeed not in using us as his emissaries of temptation.

25. The striving after physical, sensual life involves separation from Christian ideals and from Christ, whom to know is life eternal. Devotion to Christ regardless of consequent disadvantages in this present life insures the higher life with Christ.

28. "The Son of man coming in his kingdom"—Until they see the kingdom of the Son of man firmly established upon earth.

QUESTIONS ON THE LESSON.

Where did the events of this lesson take place? Had the attempts of Jesus to find a place of seclusion in which to be alone with his disciples been successful? What led up to the confession made by Peter? What conversation immediately followed? Was not Peter's remonstrance with the Master (v. 22) well intended? Is it possible for a Christian unconsciously to become agent or tool of the adversary? What should be our attitude toward advice received from well-meaning friends? What is meant by denying one's self? by taking up one's cross? by the statement that "whosoever will save his life shall lose it; and whosoever will lose his life ... shall find it"?
