Card of Thanks

I wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Heath Harding and friends all around for their kindness to me when I was nearly drowned on December 1st. (Signed) Stanley Bridge. 10852-12-12-11.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our baby daughter, Sara Elizabeth MacKenzie, who died December 12th, 1931.

Jesus has taken a beautiful bud Out of our garden of love, Borne it away to the city of God, Home of the angels above.

Full blooming flowers alone will not do, Some must be young and ungrown, So the frail buds lie in gathering too, Beautiful gems for His throne.

Inserted by Father and Mother Mr. and Mrs. J. W. MacKenzie. 10844-12-12-11.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving memory of my dear daughter Mrs. Earl Chappell who departed this life on December 15th, 1930.

Just one year ago today Yes I remember well When I stood by your bedside And took my last farewell.

With a broken heart I watched you And saw you pass away Although I loved you dearly I could not make you stay.

Inserted by Mother and Father and Sisters. 10844-12-12-11.

POST LAUREATE, TOTAL ABSTAINER AND NON-SMOKER

Mr. John Macleod, who was recently created England's new Post Laureate, scorned the traditional "Bust of Sack" (keg of canary wine), which is a prerequisite of his office. He declared that he does not like alcoholic beverages, and added that he had been a total abstainer and non-smoker for twenty-five years. This was a nasty knock to the liquor exploiters who would persuade the public that "imaginative and creative ability are stimulated by what they are pleased to call divine wine." Here's one more fine intellect that functions without the aid of alcohol. -EX.

HORSE AND BUGGY

The Horse and Buggy order is gone and liquor must go with it. Society could take chances back of a dashboard that it can't afford to take behind a steering wheel! Perhaps you don't recall the old hitching post days. Well, a lot of folk seem to have forgotten them. They shouldn't. The streets on Saturday nights were lined with wagons and buggies and saloons were filled with customers. At closing time a crowd of irresponsible men backed their rigs into the streets, the horses headed toward home, the reins dropped over the dash-board and were forgotten. Well, if we want our streets lined with liquor stores we shall have to put up our automobiles and go back to hitching posts. Automobiles won't go straight unless they are driven straight and they don't know the way home. An industrial order that has discarded the reins, dash-boards and a team-that-knows-the-way home can't afford to line its highways with "regulated liquor shops"-not with a forty-horsepower motor under the toe of a drinking citizen. -HENRY FORD.
