New Stylish Neckwear

A BIG bunch of midsummer furnishings to hand recently included some of the swellest neckwear we've ever shown.

We want you to see it.

We know you'll like it. There's no question about it—our neckwear is the finest to be seen in the city. Some of the kinds—just to give an idea. But you want to SEE it to really appreciate it.

Richest of silk neckwear

25c ties of good quality silk. Some are reversible. Big range of desirable colorings, in four-in-hands, hook-ons and bows.
50c ties of excellent quality plain and cord silks. Widest range of choice in patterns and colorings. Wide four-in-hands, hook-ons, bows.
60c ties elegant plain color effects with satin stripe—smart effects in hook-ons and bows—hook-ons in latest shapes.
75c ties of richest French silks in lovely color combinations. Latest 2 1/2 in shapes. Swell colorings.

"Panello" washable ties

"Panello" ties are the latest and best in washable neckwear. Men of taste say they're just the thing.

"Panello" ties are made of new hand finish fabric closely resembling silk in its texture and sheeny appearance. Wash and do up perfectly. These ties come in many desirable colorings which are guaranteed washable. "Panello" ties are the latest word in cravats.

"Barker" Collars

Seven more new summer shapes in "Barker" collars just in. "The Outing Roll"—illustrated—is a most comfortable and pleasing style especially appropriate for summer wear.

The other styles in "wing" and "double fold" shapes are very attractive and new. 20c

QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

L. G. Wheeler left yesterday for Montreal. The mail train arrived last night at 8.30.

The Northumberland arrived last night at 8.35.

English church services at Mount Stewart on Sunday at ten thirty a. m., and six p. m.

Rev. John Hawley will preach in Hearts Hall next Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

There were sixty passengers going and sixty-five returning by the Empress yesterday.

R. Nutting Taylor, who has been away on a fishing holiday to Newfoundland returned to the City last night.

The S. S. City of London plies on East River today on West River tomorrow and goes to Vernon River Bridge on Monday morning at six o'clock.

The police officers raided the premises of Leo Cillaghan July thirtieth and secured some beer at the bottom of the trap or chute, which was taken in charge and will be analyzed later.

Dr. Champion, Richmond, informs The Guardian that all the quarantined houses at Grand River were released yesterday. No new cases have developed and that district is now officially free from small-pox.

There were thirty passengers from Crapaud by the S. S. City of London yesterday morning and the following cargo: thirty boxes butter, fifteen boxes produce, ten cases eggs, five sacks wool and three sewing machines.

A subscriber to The Guardian wants to know whether it is true as alleged that the Assessors of Charlottetown, after largely increasing the general assessment, have in each case lowered the assessed valuation of their own properties?

A delightful band concert was given by the 4th Regiment Band from the balcony of the Victoria Hotel last night. The splendid music was listened to by a large crowd during the rendition of the whole program.

Summonses have been served on Major McKinnon and Arthur McKinnon, Glensadale, Tracadie Cross, for first offences against the Prohibition Act, returnable at the Police Court in this city, Saturday August third. A summons has also been served against Henry Ferguson, Charlottetown, for the same offence, returnable Saturday. The cases have been laid by Inspector Jenkins.

The annual convention of the north-west Queens Sunday-school Association met at New Glasgow, July twentieth. The devotional exercises at opening were led by the president Rev. J. G. A. Belyea who then appointed Arthur Simpson, William Leard and D. McDonald as a nominating committee. The district secretary, Miss Irene Clark read her report. This showed that but twelve dollars out of the sixty asked for has as yet been received from the schools. A discussion of the report and the situation followed in which William Moffat, Artemas Moffat, A. Simpson, D. McDonald, Rev. Mr. Rattee, Wm Leard and a number of others took part. The report of the superintendent of the normal school work was given by the superintendent of that department—Rev. J. G. A. Belyea. He reported two normal schools in the district. The president then taught the Sunday-school lesson for July twenty-eighth and a lively interest was evinced by the convention as a class. Artemas Moffat clearly set forth the duties of officers between conventions and the session closed with the benediction by Rev. Mr. Rattee. The evening session opened at 7.45 but the attendance was smaller than it would have been on account of the rain. After the opening exercises led by the president, the report of the nominating committee was received and adopted and the following officers were elected: Artemas Moffat, President; Irene Clark, Secretary-Treasurer; Rev. J. G. A. Belyea, J. A. Keandry, executive committees. The retiring president gave a short address on "What makes the Sunday-school." The new president took the chair after thanking the committee for the honor. Rev. Mr. Rattee spoke forty-five minutes on the great Sunday school convention in Home. The address was very interesting and instructive and was listened to throughout with marked attention. At the close Wm. Leard after speaking with strong appreciation of the address of Mr. Rattee moved a vote of thanks to him for his excellent address. This was seconded by Rev. J. G. A. Belyea who spoke of his enjoyment and appreciation of the address of Mr. Rattee. Arthur Simpson also supported the motion and the motion was carried unanimously by a standing vote. The meeting closed with the benediction by Rev. Mr. Belyea.

Edwin Smith, B.A., Cardigan, who arrived in the City a few days ago in his yacht Volante, yesterday morning entertained a party with a sail on the harbor. The party included William Little, Miss Losee, Miss K. Hibbard, and Arthur Henison of Brooklyn, N. Y. and G. F. Parker of the D.A.R. Rev. Mr. Smith was entertained in turn by the party at the Queen Hotel, and left afterward on board his yacht for his home in Cardigan. There was laid to rest at Canoe Cove on July first, after a lingering illness, John Alexander McDougall, a young man who was deservng of more than a passing notice. Fifteen years ago he was converted under the ministry of the Rev. John Goodwill and it could be truly said of him that he honored the profession he had made by his walk and conversation. In his sickness nothing gave him more comfort or consolation than to hear the reading and singing of God's praises. He was a member of Derry Orange Lodge and had at different times been its Worthy Master as well as District Master. There was no better evidence of the esteem in which he was held than the great number of people who attended his funeral, there being one hundred and twenty carriages present. The service at the house was conducted by the Rev. James McDougall and the members of the different Lodges in the vicinity who followed the remains to the grave, conducted the Orange burial service. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing father, two brothers and two sisters, viz: George in Lowell, Mass; Murdoch in Los Angeles, California; Mary Ann, wife of Archibald Campbell and Annie at home.—Com.
