-FIRST BALL GAME OF THE SEASON.-The first ball game of the season was played in the bare ball grounds, Summerside, on Monday evening between St. Dunstan's University, Charlottetown, and the C. Y. M. L. of Summerside. There was a large attendance of fans and although it was raining part of the time much interest was shown in the game, which, however, was very one-sided and ended in a win for the St. Dunstan's team by the long score of 8 to 0.-S.

-MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.-The young people of Bedeque tendered a shower on Monday evening to Miss Ruth Campbell of Summerside, who is shortly to figure in an interesting event. Miss Campbell was the very efficient teacher in Bedeque School for a while before teaching in Summerside High School, and became very popular with all classes in that community. The shower was held at Mrs. Fred Moyses' residence where quite a number of young people and some older ones assembled to extend their best wishes and shower the bride to be with many beautiful gifts. Miss Campbell thanked the donors in a very charming manner for so kindly remembering her. The evening was spent in music and other entertainment and ice cream and other dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses before the guests departed for their homes.-S.

In Memoriam

MRS. JOHN A. McLEAN

On May 7th, 1929, there passed peacefully away at the home of her daughter, 33 Weymouth St., Charlottetown, Mrs. John A. McLean, in her 79th year. The deceased was a daughter of the late James Angus McDonald and Sarah McKie, of Grand River, Lot 14. She has resided in Charlottetown for the past 20 years, where by her kindness and cheerfulness she has endeared herself to all whom had the pleasure of her acquaintance. During her journey through life she was ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. There are left to mourn the loss of a kind loving wife and mother, her husband and four sons and one daughter, namely:-James A. Portage; John G. New York; Daniel S. Moncton, N. B.; Kenneth W. Port Borden and Mrs. Edward Mallett, Charlottetown, also one sister, Mrs. James Whelan, Grand River, Lot 14. The deceased had the honor of having had four sons win distinction in the Great War. James A. served with the 1st Life Guards Imperial Army and her other three sons with the 1st Division Canadian Expeditionary Force. Her funeral was held from her late residence to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. R. J. McDonald. The floral tributes and Mass Cards were many silent tokens of the esteem in which she was held. The pall bearers were Messrs. John Callaghan, James Dennis, Chris Ford, Robert Diamond, Eddie Mallett and Gordon McLean.

MT. STEWART NOTES

Mr. John R. McLaughlin, C. N. R., Borden, paid a visit to his home at Head of Hillsboro on Sunday last.

Master Bruce Affleck had the misfortune of falling down stairs at his home on Thursday night, giving his neck a severe cut which necessitates medical attention.

What might have proved to be a serious accident occurred on Sunday last to Mr. Thomas Smith. While he and Mrs. Smith were en route to French Village, the steering gear gave way on the Ford Coupe in which they were driving. Mrs. Smith received scratches about the face, but the other occupants escaped with more than a slight shaking up.

Among the visitors to Mt. Stewart on Sunday were: Mr. Alfred Affleck, Mr. Artemas Jardine, Miss E. Jardine, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Brady, Misses. Cora and Jennie Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. Urban McDonald and family have moved to Mt. Stewart from their former home at Plisquid.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Birt, Head of Hillsboro, motored to Covehead on Sunday.-D.
