WEDDING BELLS - A wedding of interest to friends on Prince Edward Island took place in the Church Parlor of the Walmer Road Baptist Church in Toronto, Ont., when Florence Hazel, only daughter of Dr. T. W. Cook of the University of Saskatchewan and Mrs. M. S. Cook, was united in marriage to Alan Edward Scott, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Suddon of Saskatoon. The bride who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a suit of moss green sharkskin with navy hat and accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses and baby's breath. Mrs. Roy Cook of Ajax, her only attendant wore navy with touches of pink and a corsage of pink roses. Edmund C. Cook, brother of the bride, was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Dr. Fulton Anderson of Toronto University. Pink and white flowers decorated the rooms while the bride and groom received the guests assisted by Dr. and Mrs. Cook and Dr. Anderson. Mrs. Cook wore a blue silk jersey with a corsage of blue cornflowers and yellow roses. The groom is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and the Toronto Library School and the bride has been Secretary of the Saskatchewan Drama League and Assistant to Prof. E. Jones of the Drama Dept. of Saskatchewan University during the year. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Thomas L. Cook and Mrs. Cook of Murray River.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER - A host of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John MacInnis, Travellers Rest on Tuesday, June 8th to tender a miscellaneous shower previous to her marriage. For the occasion the room was tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers. The bride-to-be, looking lovely in a dress of blue crepe, was escorted to a prettily decorated chair by Miss Gladys Moase.

BRIDAL SHOWER - Friends and relatives gathered in New Annapolis at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moase on Thursday evening, June 10th to shower their daughter Gladys with their gifts and good wishes. The bride-to-be was dressed in a dress of rose crepe and escorted to her seat under a nicely decorated arch of roses and white by Miss Edna MacInnis. Mrs. Albert Moase rendered the bridal march. The heavily laden basket was carried in by the Misses Shirley Stewart and Betty Huestis and opened by Mrs. Ella Montgomery and Mrs. Lewis Moase, while the humorous verses were read by the Misses Virginia Moase and Audrey Wough. They were arranged on the table by the Misses Florence MacInnis and Carrie Thompson. The gifts included money, silver, glassware, linens bedding and a leather hassock from the Women's Institute of which she was a member. Gladys in her usual friendly way thanked everyone for their gifts, after which all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." During the evening piano selections were rendered by Mrs. Wilfred Curley and Mrs. Albert Moase. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lewis Moase, Misses Florence MacInnis and Virginia Moase. At a late hour all departed for their homes wishing Gladys every happiness in the future.

THE ROYAL EDWARD CHAPTER, I. O. D. E. held an impressive meeting at Government House yesterday afternoon at 2.15, having as their guest the Abegweit Chapter of Summerside, the Earl of Hillsboro and the Lucy Maud Montgomery Chapter of Charlottetown.

THE REGENT, Mrs. T. G. Ives extended a welcome to Mrs. J. A. Bernard, the honorary Vice-President for Prince Edward Island, the honorary Regent, Mrs. H. J. Gordon and Mrs. W. E. Bentley, Regent, officers and members of the other Chapters.

INTERESTING FEATURES at this gathering included the presentation of the charter to Mrs. Ralph Dumont, Regent of the Lucy Maud Montgomery Chapter by the National Council, Mrs. A. H. Roper, and the presentation of a Standard, carried by the Standard Bearer, Mrs. Henry Laphorn, and presented by Mrs. T. G. Ives on behalf of the members of the Royal Edward Chapter. Mrs. Dumont in turn passed the Standard into the hands of their Standard Bearer, Miss Margaret Palmer. Mrs. Roper, Mrs. Ives and Miss Wanda Wyatt, Regent of Abegweit Chapter, each wished the members of the Lucy Maud Montgomery every success in their new work.

Mrs. Ives gave a comprehensive report on the National Convention held in Halifax last May giving in detail each day's activities, both from the social and business angles. The menace of Communism was quite a prominent subject during the whole session and a resolution was drawn up urging every member to take an active and intelligent interest in the selection of candidates for all municipal, Provincial and Federal elections and use her vote and influence toward the defeat of Communism.

The need was stressed for continuing overwork as well as assisting in educational projects at home.

Miss Fullerton, acting Provincial Educational Secretary, addressed the meeting on the various phases of this work, stressing the hope that there will be more aspirants seeking the opportunity derived from the scholarship of the Second World War Memorial Fund.

Miss Mary Irving reported on the activities at the National Convention regarding Empire Study and Work in India committees.
