Georgetown And Vicinity

Mrs. Laura Lavers was a visitor to Charlottetown on Tuesday.

Mr. Harrington Yorston, manager for War Assets Corporation at Cornwall, N.S., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Yorston.

Mrs. Elsie Prosper and Mrs. William Prosper visited Montague on Tuesday where they were the guests of Mrs. Stanley Pearson.

Miss Rosalie Kiggins of Charlottetown, who is taking an X-ray technicians course at St. Martha's Hospital in Antigonish, N.S., paid a short visit to Georgetown early in the week, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P.L. Boudreau.

The S.S. Rita Maersk completed loading her cargo of potatoes on Tuesday evening and sailed on Wednesday morning for England. Her cargo consists of sixty-eight cars of potatoes, loaded at Souris and sixty cars loaded in this port.

The marriage of Mrs. Laura Mair of Georgetown to Mr. Roland Marsh of Five Islands, N.S., took place at Amherst, N.S. on Monday, May 12th and was performed by Rev. Warren L. Langille of Trinity St. Stephen United Church and took place in the Church manse. Following the ceremony the happy couple motored to Sackville, N.B. where they attended the graduation exercises of Mount Allison University at which Mrs. Marsh's son, Mr. Nathan Mair, theologian student and present vice-principal of Georgetown High School, received his Bachelor of Arts degree. From Sackville, Mr. and Mrs. Marsh motored to Five Islands, N.S., where friends held a reception for them in the Church community hall and at which they were the recipients of many lovely gifts. The happy couple will reside at Five Islands, where Mr. Marsh is employed in the lumber business. — Geo.

TECHNICOLOR HIT

ROY ROGERS STARS IN ACTION-PACKED MUSICAL WESTERN

The newest Western songs are combined with fast-moving action and suspense to make Republic's "Heldorado," starring Roy Rogers, one of the season's outstanding screen contributions. "Heldorado," latest Musical Western starring the King of the Cowboys, opens at the Capital Theatre today.

FINED FOR ANGLING WITHOUT A LICENSE—Yesterday morning a resident of Charlottetown was fined $10.00 and costs ($5.25) for hunting migratory game birds in close season by Stipendiary Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet at Charlottetown. This case is the sequel to some peaceable shots fired at shell ducks (Mergansers) crossing Goran Ban Bridge on the morning of April 18th. R.C.M. Police conducted the prosecution.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH
Young People's Union will present "Anne of Green Gables" in Cavendish Hall, Wednesday, June 11th, Curtain 8.15. Admission 50 cents. Directed by Mrs. Ruby Houle, C. D. A.

CITY POLICE COURT—At the Police court yesterday morning two youths charged with unlawful possession of stolen goods were remanded until the 27th. The case of a man charged with operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated was adjourned for one week. Two drunk and incapable were fined $10 and costs or 20 days and $5 and costs or 10 days respectively.

CONVICTED UNDER MIGRATORY BIRDS ACT—Yesterday morning a resident of Charlottetown was fined $10.00 and costs ($5.25) for hunting migratory game birds in close season by Stipendiary Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet at Charlottetown. This case is the sequel to some peaceable shots fired at shell ducks (Mergansers) crossing Goran Ban Bridge on the morning of April 18th. R.C.M. Police conducted the prosecution.

FINED FOR ANGLING WITHOUT A LICENSE—Yesterday morning a resident of Charlottetown appeared before Stipendiary Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet at Charlottetown charged under the Game Act with angling without a license. He was fined $2.00 and costs. Defendant was found by the game officer angling at Suffolk on Sunday evening May 18th. Prosecution was conducted by the R.C.M. Police.

GIVEN LOYAL SUPPORT—The League of Mercy Committee of the Junior Aid of the Prince Edward Island Hospital held a most successful display on Tuesday May 20th in the gymnasium of the Cundall Home. Generous donations for the hospital were received, including sixty blankets, a large number of pillow cases, towels, glassware, etc. Tea was served in the living room which was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. Mrs. N. H. DeBlois and Mrs. W. E. Cotton presided over the tea cups and members of the Junior Aid assisted in serving.

FOUND ANGLING WITHOUT LICENSES—Six men have appointments with the Stipendiary Magistrate in the future for angling without licenses as a result of a check over the half holiday by the game officer of the R.C.M.P. Three of the men were non-residents and hailed from Moncton, N.B., and Bridgewater, N.S. The three local anglers reside in Charlottetown, Kensington and Summerside. Two many non-resident anglers are slipping over on the ferry and indulging in the pastime of angling in the waters of this province and then slipping back again without the formality of purchasing a license. It is understood that the Royal Canadian Mounted Police are moving to put a curb on this practice.

TO OBSERVE 24TH—All departments and offices under the entitled "The Way To Heaven." Meeting closed by singing "I Am So Glad," and Benediction brought the meeting to a close.

Pimples Can Mar A Beautiful Face

Boils, pimples and other skin eruptions can make even a beautiful face seem ugly. Most sufferers realize their skin ailment looks disgusting and they suffer embarrassment and mental anguish.

Some skin troubles are caused by impurities in the system. The best way to get relief from pimples, boils and other skin eruptions is to give the system a good cleansing. For this purpose, use Burdock Blood Bitters.

Burdock Blood Bitters is a remedy with a reputation of 60 years standing. It helps to stimulate the action of the bowels, kidneys, liver and stomach. It aids in the elimination of wastes and impurities from the body. The result is often a smoother, clearer skin.

B.B.B. is sold at all drug counters.
