IMPORTANT.—General Meeting Ladies Auxiliary Legion Home 7.30 P. M. February 6th. L-78-2-3-6

THE QUARTERLY meeting of the Graduate Nurses Association will be held at the Charlottetown Hospital, Tuesday, February 6, at 8 p. m. L-108-2-5-21

Mrs. Williams—A quiet wedding ceremony was performed by St. Peter's Cathedral on Tuesday evening Jan. 9th, 1940, by Rev. Canon Malone, M.A., when Katherine Irene, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mill was united in marriage to Pte., G.E. Victor Williams, R.O.A.M.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Williams, both of Charlottetown. The bride was attired in a dress of blue with navy accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. After the ceremony they drove to the home of the bride 293 Fitzroy Street, where a supper was served for about thirty guests. Before her marriage the bride was a member of the staff at the Charlottetown Hotel and was presented with a beautiful chest of silver on Monday evening, January 8th, she was tendered a miscellaneous shower by Miss Margaret Affleck at Brighton Club where many beautiful gifts were received. The bride and groom were enjoying perfect health up until a week before her death. Despite all that skilled medical attention and tender nursing could do her spirit passed to Him who gave it. She leaves to mourn at her passing a sorrowful husband and the following children: Mrs. Harry Dyer, Bridgewater, Mass.; Mrs. George Sorrey, Monague; Mrs. John French, Milltown; John H. Stewart, Glen William; George Stewart, Milltown; William Stewart, Milltown; Daniel Stewart, Whim Road and three step-children, namely Mrs. Helway Moore, Western Canada; Malcolm Kemp, Sydney, N.S.; Lindzie Kemp, Sydney, N.S., and one sister Mrs. Roger Westaway, Lower Monague. Those whose she leaves thirty-eight grand children and forty great grandchildren.

In Memoriam

MRS. MATTHEW KEMP
There passed peacefully away at her home in Milltown Cross, Mrs. Matthew Kemp in her eighty-fifth year.
The deceased was a lady of remarkable strength of character. She died repeating the words of her favorite psalm (twenty-third), "The Lord is my strength and my help up until a week before her death. Despite all that skilled medical attention and tender nursing could do her spirit passed to Him who gave it."
She leaves to mourn at her passing a sorrowful husband and the following children: Mrs. Harry Dyer, Bridgewater, Mass.; Mrs. George Sorrey, Monague; Mrs. John French, Milltown; John H. Stewart, Glen William; George Stewart, Milltown; William Stewart, Milltown; Daniel Stewart, Whim Road and three step-children, namely Mrs. Helway Moore, Western Canada; Malcolm Kemp, Sydney, N.S.; Lindzie Kemp, Sydney, N.S., and one sister Mrs. Roger Westaway, Lower Monague. Those whose she leaves thirty-eight grand children and forty great grandchildren.

THEY ALL HELPED
MARYPORT, England—(CP)—Biggest fire in Maryport in a decade, a conflagration at a garage here was extinguished by soldiers, police, civilians and firemen. Loss was estimated at several thousand pounds.
Use Minard's for aches.
A large crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pavner on Wednesday night January 2nd, to bid farewell to their son, Arthur, who had been a gunner in the Charlottetown Artillery for some time. The evening was spent very pleasantly with singing accompanied by music. Mr. George Ferguson acted as chairman and the Minister, Mr. Deller, made a very nice speech on behalf of the boy who has offered his services for the cause of King and Country. Later on in the evening a lovely lunch was served by the ladies. Before leaving for home the National Anthem was sung and everybody wished Arthur good luck and God-speed. He will be missed by his relatives and many friends who presented him with a very useful gift. God grant that the war may soon be over, and that his sunny disposition and cheerful smile will once more be in their midst in the wish of all. In the meantime they wish him the best of luck and may God protect and guide him always.

In Memoriam

GEORGE CREWYS
Brookfield lost a citizen of sterling worth in the passing of George Crewys on Wednesday, November 7th, 1939. Mr. Crewys was in his usual health even at the age of eighty-two years, taking an active part about the farm. He came to Brookfield from Kingston making his home with his son Raymond. Deceased was deeply interested in spiritual things, being a valuable lay preacher of the Methodist Church and continued to keep that interest until his death, serving the United Church. All who heard his earnest message brought them to realize of his deep experience. Although at such an advanced age he was young in spirit and was kept agile by the life of the young. He was a great teacher in Sunday School his influence will linger for many generations especially the work accomplished at Glasgow Road.
His wife predeceased him a number of years ago. He is survived by one son Raymond, to whom he made his home and three daughters Mrs. Frank Boyle Cornwall, Mrs. Cecile Stewart and Mrs. Geo. Kilson both of Hampshire to whom deep sympathy is extended.
The citizens paid their last tribute of respect to the late Mr. Crewys at a funeral held from the United Church, Cornwall, Friday afternoon. There was a brief service at the home conducted by Rev. J. R. Skinner, assisted by Dr. Thompson, Revs. R. Woodside and W. A. MacQuarrie. Mr. Skinner brought words of comfort and strength from the scripture, applying to the experience which Mr. Crewys had found. Interment was in the Cornwall Cemetery. L-129-2-6-11.
