THE CAPITAL OF THE WEST

Latest from Summerside and Prince County.

You can best decide on what to give your friends for Christmas presents by examining Small & Bestirto's choice stock of holiday goods.

Mrs. W. P. Rogers and two children left yesterday for Moncton where they will reside and where Mr. Rogers has taken a position in Humphrey's Mill.

On account of the C. P. R. being three hours late the Northumberland did not connect with the train from the other side yesterday and returned to Summerside about 7 p. m.

At the regular meeting of Court Cabot this evening the annual election of officers will take place. There will be other important business in which every member is interested and should attend.

Now since it has been decided that the Stanley is to be placed on the Summerside-Moncton line route, the least that will be expected of the Moncton and St. John papers is that they report the movements of the steamer correctly and thereby give their readers and the travelling public definite and reliable information regarding communication between this province and the mainland. During the past two winters there has been much difficulty on the other side of the water to get any tidings of the Stanley even through official sources, and to make matters worse the N. B. and N. S. papers when referring to the steamer's movements would only add confusion to the travelling public mind.

A short time ago a basket social and entertainment under the auspices of Evening Star Social Club, was held at the residence of A. S. Gordon, Esq., Casumpeque, in aid of the P. E. Island Hospital. Owing to the storm that prevailed all day long the gathering was not nearly so large as it otherwise would have been. After a few remarks from the chairman the following program was rendered to an attentive and appreciative audience, Miss May Leard presiding at the organ:

- Chorus—Maple Leaf Forever.
 - Recitation—Billie's Rose, Miss Lillian Raynor.
 - Recitation—A Face on the Bar-room Floor, Miss Pearl Briggs.
 - Solo—Just Tread on the Tail of me Coat, Ivan Duvar.
 - Chorus—Just Before the Battle.
 - Reading—Her Husband Goes Shopping, Fred Gamble.
 - Recitation—The Famlee, from Hiawatha, Miss Clara Lockerty.
 - Solo—Kiss and Let's Make Up, et cetera, G. R. Leard.
 - Recitation—Charging Colars, Miss Ella Hudson.
 - Chorus—Old New Hampshire Home.
 - Duet—Roving, G. R. Leard and Ivan Duvar.
 - Instrumental Music—Miss Maud Duvar.
- The baskets, nuts and candy were then sold by auction. B. Gamber and Arthur Barber acting as auctioneers. After ample justice had been done to the contents of said baskets, a vote of thanks was accorded Mr. and Mrs. Gordon for the use of their home, so cheerfully given. The meeting was closed by singing the Club closing song, "Our Northern Land," followed by God Save the King. The company dispersed feeling that a very pleasant evening had been spent. The sum of $12.50 was realized for the Hospital.

Is going to be very practical this year and decrees that in view of all the broken Toys and sick stomachs among the little folks last Xmas night he is going to give something this year that will give lasting pleasure, and some time ago he intimated to us that as he was going to procure all his supplies at our store, he expected us to have a large stock of good, warm Fur Collars, Muffs, Caps and Mitts, nice little Fur Coats, Wool Hoods, Gloves, Mitts, Handkerchiefs, Ribbons, Pinafores, all the nice shades of Cashmere, with beautiful trimmings for dresses, Lace Collars, Underwear, Night Dresses, Hats, Tams, Hose, in fact everything a child could desire in the way of apparel. We obeyed his orders and our store is actually brimming over with nice things for both old and young, including nice, jaunty Suits and Overcoats for the boys and we know Papa and Mama will help Santa out in his practical ideas, so that when Christmas is past the children will have something comfortable and warm to protect them from the wintry blasts.
