Gallant, her three daughters, Marguerite, Beatrice and Clairice and one son, Frank, of Moosejaw who have been spending a couple of months with friends and relatives in Mount Carmel, crossed by the Empress last week on the way to their western home. It was not without regret that they departed, especially at the thought of leaving aged relatives that distance will not permit to visit as often as desired. R.

—LARGE FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Irene Cormier whose death took place under such shocking circumstances at Oldtown, Maine, was held on Sunday afternoon 29th inst. at St. James' Church, the attendance being large. Deceased was about 20 years of age was a member of the Temperance Society to which he had been a faithful member. He was one of those young men whose parents could be proud of, commanding the respect of all those who knew him. It is only three months since he had been home in attendance at the funeral of his late younger brother. From particulars gathered, it appears that he was at work putting wire on a telephone post, falling from the top to the ground, death being almost instantaneous. The pall bearers were Manuel Cormier, Zachariah Cormier, Gloria Gallant, Glorice Cormier, Theophilus Arsenault and John F. Arsenault.—M.

AFTER SUFFERING TWO LONG YEARS

Mrs. Aselin Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"After my little one was born I was sick with pains in my sides which the doctors said were caused by inflammation. I suffered a great deal every month and grew very thin. I was under the doctor's care for two long years without any benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try it we got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the third bottle of the Compound I was able to do my housework and today I am strong and healthy again. I will answer letters if anyone wishes to know about my case."—Mrs. JOSEPH ASELIN, 628 Monroe St., N.E., Minneapolis, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for woman's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

—EXCURSION FAILED.—A merry party of young folk left Summerside Sunday morning by motor boat for Carleton Point. All went well until they got out in the Straits, where the sea was quite rough. Several of the party getting seasick, as well as being scared by the rolling of the boat. On arriving at their destination the greater number of the party decided they would not risk coming back by boat, so two or three of the more courageous proceeded on the return voyage and after a rather stormy passage reached the harbour safely. They then procured teams and drove to Carleton for the rest of the party, which they brought safely back to town about midnight.—X

—DARNLEY.—Dredge No. 11 has completed a channel twenty-two hundred feet long and fifty feet wide and five and a half feet deep at low water in depth. This will be a great boon to the fishermen as they will be able to take their fish right to their own doors every night and always have their boats in safety. This dredge which is under command of Captain MacLeod has gone to Kiers wharf where she will deepen the channel. The "Islander" arrived on Sunday, Sept. 1, at 4 p.m. Her many friends are glad to see Mr. James Thompson of Darnley Bridge out again after his recent illness.—Colonel and Mrs. Davison, Charlottetown, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. C. E. MacNutt, Darnley.—Charles Champion and James McKinnon picked up second basemen of the Spring Valley team spent the week-end in Indian River the guests of Mr. Duncan Bearliss.—D.

—KENSINGTON PICNIC.—The picnic at Kensington on Saturday, August 21st was a grand success. Many people from Summerside, Malpeque, French River and adjoining districts, took advantage of the ideal weather for one afternoon's outing. Great interest was manifested in the athletic sports which were keenly contested by the local athletes, who shined by their performances in the different events, that there is championship material among them. The tug-of-war between teams of married and single men probably aroused the keenest interest of any event. The single men proved to have superior prowess, after a hard pull. A new feature was introduced—throwing the 56 lb. weight for height, was captured by D. A. Matheson, custodian of the peace in the new city of Kensington.—Summary of events.—100 yard dash, 1st Harold Leard; 2nd, D. J. Matheson; 3rd, Douglas Proffit. Pole vault.—1st, John Lea; 2nd, Harold Leard; 3rd, H. Burgess. Height 8 ft. 6 inches. High Jump.—1, John Lea; 2, Sydney Sheehan; 3, D. J. Matheson. ## Provincial Exhibition Halifax

September 8th to 16th

Notwithstanding the fact that WAR is the first thought of the people of this Country today, yet the question of production is at the same time to be considered in connection with WAR.

The Agricultural and Live Stock people are being urged to make this year of production, and in this connection the Manufacturers also play an important part

In order to know what is being produced in the Maritime Provinces, the Exhibition Associations are continuing their work, in order that the Agricultural and Industrial people may show what is being done.

At the Provincial Exhibition at Halifax is the greatest and best opportunity to make this display of production, and we are looking to see this one of the best ever put on at this Fair.

The amusement end will not be neglected, and consequently combining the two, we promise our patrons the best fair yet held on our Grounds.

Exhibitors must make their entries before August 21st, and anyone not receiving Prize List can obtain same by writing the Secretary, M. McF. Hall, Halifax.
