SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive processes, and remains there because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off.

Chief Justice J. A. Matheson left yesterday for Summerside on official business.

Miss Mary Leather, Nine Mile Creek, is spending a few days in Victoria, the guest of Miss Minnie Wright.

Mr. John MacLeod spent the week-end in the city the guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. L. H. MacLeod, Gerald St.

The Misses Myrtle Pratt and Florence MacSwain of St. Peter's are visiting at Morchell, the guests of Mrs. H. H. Cox.

Mr. W. J. Brown, city, representing the National Drug and Chemical Co. left yesterday for Summerside and points west.

The many friends of Mr. Alex. McNevin, of Marshfield, will be pleased to learn that he has successfully undergone an operation for appendicitis in the P. E. I. Hospital.

Mr. Harry Inman, of Augustus Cove, is spending a well-earned vacation with his many friends and relatives at North Rustico, Cavendish and Winsloe Road.

Mrs. John McInnis and son, Gordon, of Winsloe, have returned home after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Harry Inman, Augustus Cove.

Mr. Walter L. Higgins, of the firm of R. E. Mutch & Co., returned on Saturday from a business trip to Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gaudet returned yesterday afternoon from their honeymoon, having been married in Boston on the 12th inst.

The friends of Miss Emma Gill, formerly of Crapaud, P. E. I., now of New Glasgow, N. S., will be pleased to hear that she has recovered from her recent critical operation.

ALL CHILDREN LOVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give it when feverish, cross, bilious, for bad breath or sour stomach

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomachache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of his little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. To be sure you get the genuine ask to see that it is made by California Fig Syrup Company. Refuse any other kind with contempt.

In all infantile complaints that are the result of the depredations of worms in the stomach and intestines Miller's Worm Powders will be found an effective remedy. They attack the cause of these troubles, and by expelling the worms from the organs insure an orderly working of the system, without which the child cannot maintain its strength or thrive. These powders mean health and improvement.

St. James Guild Boxes Received

The following letter was received by Mrs. Crawford Aitken, City, in answer to a Christmas box sent over seas in November through the Guild of St. James Church, City.

Belgium, Dec. 30th.

Dear Mrs. Aitken:— Accept my sincerest thanks for your share of my parcel from St. James Church. The fudge was delicious and I relished it very much because it was the first real fudge that I had tasted for many months.

Through you I will thank those good ladies who are answerable for the remaining contents of the parcel. Everything was fine, and your thoughtfulness is very much appreciated. I had a good many parcels this Christmas, but none delighted me more than the one from the St. James Church because the women of St. James Church were some of the very few who last year sent me (that I should not be so dirty) a parcel to cheer my then miserable existence. I want to wish you and your folks a very happy and prosperous New Year.

Sincerely yours, GEO. E. WEBSTER.

Church, and presided over by Mrs. Dr. Hodgson rendered excellent music. Many of the selections being some of the favorites and pieces which he would often ask to have sung when a member of the choir. Particularly fine were the special selections. A solo by Mr. Slackford, "Crossing The Sea," a quartette, "Nearer My God To Thee," by Messrs. Slackford and McInnis, Messrs. Wain, Slackford and D. M. McLeod, also a quartette, "The Christian's Good-Night," by Mrs. Wain, Mrs. Callbeck, Messrs. Slackford and McLeod. The service was in charge of the Rev. John Sterling of Cavendish, whose address was eloquent and forceful, paying splendid tribute to the high sense of duty which prompted Lieutenant McLeod to give up his splendid prospects, home and all that life holds most dear, to go forth and fight for the cause of Liberty and Justice—to lay down his life, if need be, that we may be free. He has paid the supreme price. Greater by far, no man than this. Who shall say that the lives of such noble boys are given in vain. A strong appeal was made to all to practice the same spirit of self-sacrifice in every walk of life as is shown by our noble boy at the front, for which they have made for us. At the conclusion of the service the congregation stood with bowed heads, while the organ played, "The Dead March in Saul." Lieutenant McLeod was among our first young men to hear and respond to the call of duty. His name was on the roll of the fallen and his name is on the roll of the living. He was a true hero, whose life was a noble one. He was not a soldier in the ordinary sense of the word, but he was a true hero, whose life was a noble one. He was not a soldier in the ordinary sense of the word, but he was a true hero, whose life was a noble one.

When Chatham Lady Suffered From Extreme Nervous Exhaustion From Now Feeling Fine and Working Large Garden.

Chatham, Ont., Jan. 23.—This letter will interest every lady reader, because it describes a condition for which many doctors advise an operation. That the operation is often unnecessary and very often leaves the patient in a wretched state of life is well known.

You will read here of what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done for this lady and will then understand the great good it is accomplishing in many thousands of similar cases throughout the continent.

Every woman should think long and earnestly before consenting to an operation of this kind. It is a simple matter to give Dr. Chase's Nerve Food a trial and the results are almost always entirely satisfactory. You not only avoid the risk and expense of an operation, but find yourself restored to health and vigor.

W. E. M. Ford, 32 Delaware Avenue, Chatham, Ont., writes: "For four years I suffered from my nerves. I was restless and could not sleep well. I had headaches, neuralgia, pains through the body and backache. There was a buzzing in my ears and twitching of nerves and muscles. I also had palpitation of the heart, which caused shortness of breath. I was easily tired and always drowsy after eating. When walking or on my feet very much my feet would seem to go dead in my shoes. I consulted two doctors and both told me that I would have to have an examination and probably an operation, but I would not have either. Shortly after this I commenced using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after a treatment of this medicine, I feel, as I am now feeling fine. I am able to do my household duties with freedom and besides this, I am able to go about without that dead feeling in my feet, and am grateful to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for my cure. I think very highly of this medicine, and recommend it to other sufferers whenever I have an opportunity."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.75, at all dealers, or Edmansson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

CHRISTMAS STOCKINGS—It will be of interest to all who helped in any way that quite a number of letters placed in Xmas stockings have been answered by the soldiers who received the same. All the letters speak in the highest terms of appreciation of the kindness of the ladies who helped in such a tangible way to make the Christmas season more joyous than it otherwise would have been. Quite a few of the answers were from P. E. I. men.

Farewell Address On the evening of Jan. 16th, a number of friends and neighbors congregated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mill, Clermont, to bid their farewell before leaving for their new home in Marshfield. After a pleasant time was spent in music and games they were presented with a handsome Morris chair and an address. Complimentary speeches were made by Messrs. Joseph Driscoll, T. A. Driscoll, Pte. Neil J. MacDonald, Thomas Campbell and others. All united in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Mill and family health and material prosperity in their new home. The following is the address: Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mill, Dear Friends, It is with profound regret that we learn of your departure from our midst. While you were with us, you have both made hosts of friends, and we all feel sure that you will do the same in your future home. We would consider it a very great injustice both to you and to ourselves, to permit you to leave without expressing our sorrow at your departure. We ask you to accept this gift, which but faintly typifies the esteem and affection in which we hold you. Now that we must part, we ardently desire that unlimited success and prosperity will always crown your efforts in the future. In behalf of the undersigned: Mr. Thomas Campbell, Mr. Michael Croken, Mr. Stephen Gillis, Mr. John Murphy, Mr. Basil Croken, Mr. William McDonald, Pte. Neil McDonald, Mr. Joseph Driscoll, Mr. Nelson Clarke, Mr. John L. Mill, Mr. T. A. Driscoll, Mr. Percy McCarvell.
