Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

Secret Marriages Should Be Avoided, But When Necessity Compels Their Revelations Make the Best of Any Circumstances That Might Confront You

Dear Miss Dix—Six months ago my husband and I were married secretly because he wasn't making enough money to support me...

Answer: On every account you should accept your mother-in-law's very kind and generous offer to take you in and give you the affection and understanding that your own family seems to deny you.

As a matter of fact, mothers-in-law are far more anxious to get along with their daughters-in-law than their daughters-in-law are with them.

Dear Dorothy Dix—My husband and I are a very devoted couple with a nearly grown son who will soon be going about his own affairs...

Now, with her shame upon her, she feels that she could never endure even the thought of her husband's taking her to the doctor to find for you some girl who is in desperate need of such help as you propose to give her.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a young girl of 20 years, desperately in love with a man who suggests that our "little affair," as he terms it, should only last for a limited time—six weeks to be exact.

Answer: Well, you've got to concede your Boy Friend one virtue, anyway. He is honest. He warns you what to expect. He tells you flatly that he is just playing with you and that in six weeks he expects to be tired of you and chuck you away.

Most seducers are not so truthful. They swear eternal love to the girl whose heart they are winning, and when they kiss and ride away they promise to come back again.

Itemize it to yourself. On one side of your ledger write down six weeks of romance, of loving, of kissing, of treading the primrose path.

For Saturday, February 10th business ventures, but personal issues, artistic and professional affairs are under friendly Venus and Moon vibrations.

A Morning Smile

WELL VOUCHER Judge: "Have you anybody who would vouch for your good character?"

Pat: "Sure! The local constable!" The local constable denied all knowledge of the man. Pat: "There you are, then! I've lived all my life on his beat and he doesn't even know me. Don't that spake for me good conduct?"

SHE AGREED "I am sorry, madam," said the butcher firmly, "but I can't give you any further credit. Your bill is bigger now than it should be."

(Virgo) You born before September 7 should find today amenable and progressive for unusual matters. All Virgoan charm and quality will outweigh speed or quantity. Let your contribution be graciousness.

DECEMBER 23 to JANUARY 22 (Capricorn)—Private affairs, domestic problems and business budget need some attention and safeguarding. However, don't make life a burden because of them. Be sensible. Handle them as part of life's routine and top them with cheer and faith.

JANUARY 23 to FEBRUARY 22 (Aquarius)—Born before February 17 Extravagance and over-indulging frivolities likely to be your biggest tempters. All Aquarians: Quiet dignity, sincerity and moderation will keep you on the safe side and permit enjoyment, too.

FEBRUARY 23 to MARCH 22 (Pisces)—Heart interests, music, art, the theatre, radio and other forms of entertainment are more favored than practical and financial issues. Brush up on your hobby or avocation.

A CHILD BORN ON THIS DAY will be characterized by progressiveness in education, earnings and have a liking for mathematics, engineering or other technical work. Could creditably hold a position of trust, manage an institution housing many people. Will be humane, intelligent and reasonable in all things.

Are You Puzzled by Strange Dreams? Psychologists Explain Symbols So perplexing are the images that occur in dreams! What does it mean when you dream of music, a pair of scissors, money?

Your dreams bridge the chasm between the unconscious and the conscious mind. Emotions, unconfessed thoughts repressed by your waking self appear in your sleep in symbolic form.

Read your dreams. You may find them friendly warnings of inner conflicts. And the meanings of dream images are clearly explained by the psychologists—who have studied thousands of dreams.

Music in a dream indicates you are concerned about your self-esteem. You may secretly feel that some action you are taking is unworthy of you.

Scissors are a symbol of cutting. Appearing in a dream about a friend or an intimate, they may hint a wish to break with that person.

Do you ever dream of coins? To lose money in a dream implies a fear of losing a dear possession. Or have you ever dreamed of a snake—or of imprisonment? These and many other typical dreams are explained by a well-known psychologist in our 32-page booklet.

Helps you get clues to your true emotions, your secret self. Discusses nightmares, dreams that come true.

Send 20c in coins for your copy of The Meaning of Dreams to the Canadian Home Service. Be sure to write plainly your Name, Address, and the Name of booklet.

Helpful Hints For The Women Folk

A CALANDER FOR ALL THY LIFE Not what we have—but what we use! Not what we see—but what we choose—

These are the things that mar or bless The sum of human happiness. The things near by, not things afar, Not what we seem, but what we are!

These are the things that make us break, That give the heart its joy or ache. Not what seems fair, but what is true, Not what we dream, but the good we do!

These are the things that shine Like gems, Like stars, in heaven's gladdens. Not as we take, but as we give, Not as we pray, but as we live—

These are the things that make for peace! Both now and after time shall cease!

TO FRESHEN A WORN LEATHER HAT, rub over with plain vaseline into which a few drops of glycerine have been blended. Wipe off with a clean soft cloth until it is thoroughly dry.

There is not a heart but has its moments of longing, yearning for something better, nobler, holier than it knows now.

He that can bear a reproof, and mend by it, if he is not wise, is in fair way of being so.—Franklin

There should be hours for necessities, not for delights. Times to repair our nature with, comforting repose, and not for us to waste these times.—Shakespeare

Use really good soap or soap flakes. Whichever you use, never rub on the garment. Make a thick lather before you put the garment in—with luke-warm water.

Colorful wool prints are worn under coats.

Never wring or rub the garment; wash it about in the lather, gently kneading it with your fingers.

Rinse in several waters; in the last rinsing water there should be a little soap.

Squeeze the water out—never wring. If the garment is heavy and large, squeeze it out in handrails. Then press it in a towel to get out the rest of the water.

Dry woollies slowly. Spread flat on a towel and pull gently into shape. If it is not possible to dry it in the open air, dry it on the towel, in a warm room.

Press on the wrong side with a moderately warm iron. If you are dealing with a lacy or a fancy pattern; press over a cloth.

Both now and after time shall cease!

Splendid Cough Remedy Easily Mixed at Home

It's So Easy! Makes a Big Saving. No Cooking. To get quick relief from a distressing cough, mix your own remedy at home. Once tried, you'll say it's your favorite cough medicine, and it's so simple and easy.

First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. A child could do it. No cooking needed.

Then get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any drugist. This is a compound containing Norway Pine and palatable guaiacol, in concentrated form, well known for its prompt action on throat membranes.

Put the Pinex into a 16-ounce bottle, and add your syrup. Thus you make 16 ounces of very efficient remedy, and you get four times as much cough medicine for your money. It tastes fine and never spoils.

And for quick, blessed relief, it is simple. You can feel it penetrating the air passages in a way that means business. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and eases the soreness. Thus it makes breathing easy, and lets you get restful sleep.

Just try it, and if not pleased, your money will be refunded.

EMBROIDERED AIGLON DESIGN NO. 695

It is possible to look daintily as well as domestic in this pretty tea apron of bias-bound organdy. Rainbow-hued panels form sides of the skirt and the delicate colors are echoed in the floral garlands that appear on both skirt and bib.

THE COOK'S CORNER

CHERRY BLOSSOMS

1 cup butter 1 cup white sugar 2 eggs, separated 2 cups flour 2 table-spoons orange juice 1 teaspoon vanilla 1-2 cup chopped nuts

Candied cherries Method: Cream the butter until light and fluffy, and gradually cream in the sugar. Beat the egg yolks and add to the creamed mixture. Now add the flour alternately with the orange juice and flavoring. Place the dough in a cool place to chill.

Form the dough into small balls, roll lightly in slightly beaten egg whites, then in the chopped nut meats. Press down with a fork, and decorate the top of each with either cut or whole candied cherries. Bake on an ungreased cookie sheet in a moderate oven (350 deg. F.) for about 15 to 20 minutes.

WALNUT SLICE

1-2 cup flour 1-2 cup butter 1 table-spoon flour 1 teaspoon baking powder Salt

Method: Cut the 1-2 cup butter into the 1 cup flour until the mixture is in fine crumbs. Place in a greased pan and bake in a moderate oven 350 deg. F. for about 15 minutes or until slightly browned.

New sift together the 1 table-spoon flour and the baking powder, mix in the remaining ingredients and pour over the first mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (350 deg. F.) or 20 to 25 minutes, or until browned. Remove from the oven, cut slightly, and ice with a plain butter icing. Cut these in squares

Eye Strain is Nerve Strain

Eye-strain wears down nervous energy at an alarming rate. You may suffer from dizziness, nausea, vertigo, brain fog, indigestion and sick headache and not realize that the real cause of your trouble is eye-strain.

If due to some defect in the eye itself the oculist may help you but in any case you can, with advantage, use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to restore the nerve force to your system.

This food treatment affords a most satisfactory means of building up the general health and the resistance necessary to fight off the ills and infections which attack one when in a run down condition. It contains Vitamin B1 and the minerals which are essential for restoration of the nervous system.

Ask your druggist about it.
