Happenings of The Week

On Thursday, Col. S. R. Jenkins and Mrs. Jenkins entertained at luncheon in honor of the Right Hon. Mr. Meighen and Mrs. Meighen and party at their lovely home in Brighton.

Thursday evening Hon. J. E. Wyatt, of Summerside, gave a dinner party in honor of Premier Meighen and party. The guests included Premier and Mrs. J. D. Stewart and Sir Charles Dalton, who came down from Tignish for the occasion.

After a most successful tour, regretful farewells were said yesterday morning when the Premier and Mrs. Stewart motored their guests to Borden to continue their tour on the mainland.

Mr. Arthur Laird, of New York, has arrived home on a visit to his father, Mr. D. R. Laird.

Mrs. E. W. McKinnon leaves this morning for Halifax where she will take part in the Maritime Golf meet next week.

Dr. W. S. Harper of Thelma, Alabama, has arrived to spend the month of August with Mrs. Harper and little daughter, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Campbell are summering at the Cliff Hotel, Stanhope.

Miss Gwen Marr, of Halifax, accompanied Mrs. T. B. Rogers and

PERSONALS

Mr. J. F. Proffitt, Kensington was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. W. R. A. A. Dunbar, of Guelph, Ontario, is the welcome guest of her son, Mr. W. H. V. Dunbar and Mrs. Dunbar at the summer home at Keppoch. She purposes spending a few weeks on the island.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Murphy, Boston, Mass., spent the past week end, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Doyle. Mr. Murphy is a son of the late Matthew Murphy.

Miss Katherine MacLean of Dorchester, Mass., who is holidaying at Clyde River, was a visitor to the City yesterday.

Mr. Charles Hayes of Somerville, Mass., has arrived home after an absence of thirty-two years. He is at present visiting his brother Henry, on Rockford Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hamill and Leonard Farmer, motored to Lot 7, St. Louis and Tignish, Saturday, took in the Brae Tea and spent a most enjoyable trip, returning on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter McAdams, and their two sons, Thomas and Lawrence, left Donagh Tuesday morning for their home in East Boston after spending a very pleasant vacation. Mrs. Thomas McAdams accompanied them as far as Sussex, N. B.

Mrs. Alfred MacEachern of Campbell Cove and two daughters Barbara and Marcella MacEachern, accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Parsons of Fairfield, are spending week end in Charlottetown visiting friends. Misses Barbara and Marcella who are spending a very pleasant vacation here expect to return to New York on Aug. 28th.

Sir Alfred Mond, top, and Sir Beddoe Rees, bottom, British coal magnates, prominent in the coal crisis, Sir Alfred favors a national pool of all mine owners, somewhat on the principle of the wheat pools of the Canadian west, which would work with similar pools in other countries to systematize production and marketing, and to eliminate unnecessary expenditures.

Dr. E. G. and Mrs. McQuaid, of Baltimore, arrived early in the week by auto, on their annual visit to the Garden of the Gulf. They are being warmly welcomed by their many friends here. The cool drives and enjoyable weather will have an appeal to them and we hope that their visit will be as usual a pleasant one.

Rev. J. A. Winfield, who is at present in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Woodman, it will be recalled, about fourteen years ago, was sent as special immigration agent for this province in the Old Country. Mr. Winfield's thorough practical knowledge of the requirements here enabled him to select a number of families with means who proved very successful farmers and welcome additions to the province. Mrs. Winfield intends, this fall, returning to England for eight or ten months, and it is hoped his services will be available again as special representative of this province.

A striking fact shown at a London West End millinery salon lately was a little almost brilliant affair of black felt, on the very top of which was sewn a star of white kind. Another mannequin at the same place was wearing a yet more noteworthy hat of scarlet silk, ornamented with a star in the most vivid of royal blue shades.

Mrs. Benjamin Rogers is spending the week end the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Mabon, Montague.

Mr. and Mrs. George DeBlois entertained very delightfully on Thursday evening at a dance at their summer home at Dalvay, one of the beauty spots of the Island. Among the guests were many outside visitors who, with the local guests were charmed with the kindnesses of their host and hostess and the beauty of their North Shore home.

Mrs. McAlonon who has been spending several months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Fraser, Kingston, and brother Mr. J. A. Fraser of this City, left yesterday to join her husband in Toronto.

The tea hostesses at the Tennis Courts this afternoon will be Miss Eleanor Toombs, Miss F. MacEachern and Miss L. Worthy.

Rev. J. R. Millar and Mrs. Millar and children of Alberton, were over night guests of Mrs. Millar's brother, Randolph Adams and Mrs. Adams, Amherst on Monday. They left the following day by motor for St. Catharines, Ont., where they will spend part of their holiday. They will also visit sections of the New England States.

Miss Marguerite Fuller, who spent the past few weeks with her friend Mrs. Jaynes of Keppoch left yesterday morning on return to her home in Meadville, Penn. En route she will spend a few weeks visiting in Maine.

Attempts to make skirts and corrajes fuller and move the waist upward have not been crowned with success. The straight outline, with pleated skirt and jumper, has been in vogue for a very long time, and still has the preference over more complicated styles. Influential leaders in the dressmaking world like Madeleine Vionnet and Paul Poiret, however, are endeavoring to bring about a reaction.

Recent revival of the Paisley or Spanish shawl for afternoon and evening wear has induced arbiters of women's fashion to look around for something fresh for the society dame. They have gone back as far as Queen Anne's time for their ideas and devised a shawl very similar to those worn in Queen Anne's days. It is a small affair triangular in shape made of bright colored crepe de chine with fringes at the side.

Miss Dorothy Simpson has returned from a pleasant visit to Halifax.

RED ROSE TEA

"is good tea" TEA

Order your grocer's best and he'll usually send Red Rose.

Young son home from Halifax, and is spending a few weeks very pleasantly here.

Mrs. Hyndman, of Edmonton, is the welcome guest of her son, Mr. A. W. Hyndman, Brighton.

Charlottetown was honored on Wednesday by a visit from Rev. Canon Scott, of Quebec City, who was returning from a holiday trip to the Magdalenes. Canon Scott was very cordially welcomed, especially by the overseas men who had the pleasure of seeing him again.

Mrs. (Dr.) Ross, of Vancouver, who has been renewing old friendships here, is leaving today to spend some time in Thorburn, N.S., with her daughter, Mrs. McLeod, before returning West. She will be accompanied by her friends Mrs. K. J. Martin who will also visit Mrs. McLeod.

The hostesses at the Golf Links this afternoon are Mrs. J. F. Whear, Mrs. B. Conrad, Miss M. Whear and Miss B. Huestis.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. McIntosh, of Georgetown, have had as their guests for the past week the doctor's uncle, Professor D. S. Macintosh, of Dalhousie University, and Mrs. Macintosh. They returned to their home in Halifax on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thomson had as their guest this week Mr. James Rodd, of the Marine and Fisheries Dept., Ottawa, who was renewing old friendships.

The warm weather of the past few days has been so inviting that everyone who possibly could indulged in picnics, drives, bathing and the many delightful recreations, such as are offered in and around the city.

Miss Jessie Williams, of the Windsor Academy staff, is in the city to attend the Dominion Educational Convention which opens here next Tuesday.

Queen Mary is much more interested in tennis than in racing. Ascot and Epsom are a task for her, but the Wimbledon tennis is a joy. The Queen always carries smoked glasses to tennis matches and puts them on if the sun is shining, as she watches the play in great detail. The Queen used to be an enthusiastic tennis player herself and understands all the fine points of the game.

Among the visitors here this week were Mr. R. V. Harris, of Halifax, Grand High Priest of the Royal Arch Masons of Nova Scotia, and Mr. P. J. Otto, of Dartmouth. The gentlemen visited several of the lodges here and enjoyed their outing to the fullest.

Rev. James Carruthers, D.D., of Vancouver, who was here a few weeks ago, has been visiting Nova Scotia. Dr. Carruthers who is a native of Scotland, finished his studies at Pine Hill, Halifax, and was for several years Professor of Elocu-
