LAI D UP FOR SEASON.—The S. S. Harland, which has been plying between Pictou and P. E. I. ports this summer and has given much satisfaction, is now laid up for the winter says the Pictou Advocate.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—The interior of the Legislative building has recently been much improved at the hands of Messrs. Waller and Doyle, painters. They painted enamelled and tinted the walls, ceilings and halls upstairs and down, done a quick job and having it completed in time for the recent visit of His Excellency, the Governor General.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.—Charged with robbery with violence, Rannie McKinnon and Irvin Lewis the latter a native of P. E. I. who has been in Sydney for only three months, were sent up for trial by the supreme court by Stipendiary Alex Campbell. The men are charged with having recently beaten up a Dane and relieved him of $42 and a watch. One Matowski was committed for trial this morning on a charge of theft. It is alleged that he stole an anvil from the Dominion Coal Company says a Sydney Exchange.

SUCCESSFUL SALE.—The sale of stock and crops of Mr. Victor McWilliams at East Royalty on Monday was very successful. Thirty-two head of cattle sold at splendid prices. Horses ranged from $100 to $160 each. Sheep brought $32 per pair, wheat $2.40 per bushel, buckwheat $1.80 per bushel, hay $22.00 per ton and oats $1.00 per stook. Mr. Benj. Carter, the auctioneer states that farm produce is exceedingly high and that this was an exceptionally good sale.

FOR NEWFOUNDLAND.—The steamer Thetis from St. John's, Newfoundland is in port loading a cargo of 28,000 bushels of oats by Buntain Bell & Co. for the Newfoundland market. The Thetis, is an auxiliary vessel built on the same lines as the Ranger which was in port here a couple of weeks ago, and like that steamer was a former sealer. She was lately in the service of the United States government doing patrol duty around Alaska and recently was sold to Job Brothers of St. John's.

SHIPPING HORSE FLESH.—For some weeks past regular shipments of horse flesh are going from Antigonish to P. E. Island. Some ten tons of this product have gone forward already. Islanders are using it for fox meat. Apparently they have every confidence in the return of the fabulous fox prices of pre-war times, and are still giving much attention to fox farms. We have a big surplus stock of horses, and as horses are not even in fair demand, owners are forced to sell at extreme low prices. Of course only the very oldest and most crippled horses are being turned into fox meat.—Antigonish Casket.
