THE REAL SECRET STATED
 BY LORD COWDRAY

LONDON, November 21.—Lord Cowdray, who has large oil, railway and other concessions in Mexico, in an interview today, said that he had learned with great interest from the newspapers that a British warship had been dispatched to the Puerto Mexico terminus of the Tehuantepec railway, which he owns, because, while that line is still running the government lines which join it have been cut and therefore several thousand employees for whom he is responsible could only be aided by a warship.

Asked if he would be satisfied with the protection that could be given his interest at Tampam by the United States battleship Louisiana, Lord Cowdray answered: "Certainly, it is bound to protect my interests."

Lord Cowdray expressed the opinion that he had made a great mistake in keeping silent so long under the charge that he was "a concession monger." He said that the last oil concession he had made from the Mexican Government was at the time slightly under eight years ago. His company had the right to bore on any government lands, a right which he explained, had not been used to the limit. Any request he had made to the Mexican government since the granting of the last session, Lord Cowdray said, had been for facilities to carry on his building of railways and telegraph lines and for certain customs exemptions.

The real offence he had committed in Mexico, Lord Cowdray continued, was in daring to invade the territory of the Water-Pierce Oil Company. Since then, he said, he had been bitterly pursued and had been a victim of a press bureau engaged to misinterpret his operations.

"Certain portions of the American press," Lord Cowdray added, "have accused me of being a concession monger. President Wilson apparently does not remember that the American government assisted in the building of the Trans-Continental railway in exactly the same manner that the Mexican government has assisted my operations in Mexico, which is in a state that will necessitate governmental assistance for her development."

"I went in as a pioneer and had to have some guarantee back of the enormous sums I was spending to develop my oil properties. I might say at the same time that I am not seeking, and never have had, an oil monopoly in Mexico or Columbia."

NEW YORK, November 21.—Henry Clay Pierce, chairman of the board of the Waters-Pierce Oil company, declined to comment tonight on the statements concerning his company made in London by Lord Cowdray.

TEACHERS CAN'T TANGO.

Teachers in the Albuquerque public schools will incur the displeasure of the board of education and jeopardize their positions if they dance the tango and other razz steps, according to a resolution adopted by the board at a recent session. Teachers likewise are barred from attending dances during the five days each week that school is in session.
