TURKS DENY THEY WANT PEACE

(Special to The Guardian) GENÈVA, July 25.—Nedjemken Effendi, Turkish Minister of Justice and Fassung Effendi arrived Friday at Lausanne from Berlin. The former is ill and has entered the hospital. The Turkish Consul here today stated the story published here and also in London to the effect that Nedjemken Effendi and Fassung Effendi came to Switzerland as representatives of their Government with the object of opening pourparlers for separate peace with the Triple Entente was untrue. "Even if she wished Turkey cannot make a separate peace," declared the Consul. However peace rumors continue. ITALIANS MAKE GOOD PROGRESS

(Special to The Guardian) ROME, July 25.—Official—In Cadore we have completed the occupation of Tofana and repelled slight enemy attacks against our position at Monte Piano. In the north basin of the Misurina the enemy also tried an attack which was promptly repulsed. In the Monte Nero zone our forward advance continues along the crest of Luzhica. On the Isonzo front the enemy sought by habitual night attacks, all of which were fruitless to trouble our works and the positions we had conquered. Yesterday morning the enemy also attempted to advance in force against our right wing occupying Carzo.

According to orders found on an Austrian officer, who was taken prisoner, the attack repelled on July 22, already recounted in yesterday's communication, was of a general character and intended to throw back our left wing occupying the region on this side of Isonzo. The attack was directed by several generals and part of it was made by troops previously engaged against us and especially by troops freshly arrived on the field of action.

AEROPLANES NEAR MONTREAL

(Special to The Guardian) MONTREAL, July 23.—Following a report received yesterday that an aeroplane had visited Chateauguay, near Montreal, Tuesday night and that a German officer living there had since been missing, and is believed to have left in the machine for the United States, it was made known that Chateauguay, like many places in Belgium, France and England, has a "German gun gaze," a solid concrete foundation for the mounting of big guns. This concrete structure seven feet in depth was built more than a year ago by a German resident, and was covered over and used as a tennis court. This situation commands the Soulangues Canal and the railways in that vicinity. The matter has been reported to the authorities at Ottawa.

THE WORLD IS WATCHING THE BATTLE FOR WARSAW

The Struggle on the Three Front Battlefield Grows Daily in Intensity. The Belligerents are Alternately Winning and Losing. The Russians More than Holding their Own. Repeated Attacks and Counter Attacks Causing Fearful Waste of Life and the end is not in Sight.

PETROGRAD, July 24.—The furious three front battle for Warsaw is growing more and more intense daily. On July 22 the Germans smashed the entanglements at Gnievowozew, six miles south west of Ivangorod, but are said to have been hurled back with heavy losses by a determined counter attack.

On July 21 the German's centre at Lublin Cholm lines suffered cruelly from assaults on the Plaski, Voislavitz and Grubechow positions, according to reports received here. They succeeded in occupying Russian trenches over a wide front and proceeded to advance northward to Volislavitz, but it is stated the Russians encountered them that night in the dense forests and drove them back with much loss, the Russians taking six guns and 500 prisoners.

A message to the Daily Telegraph from Petrograd says: "During the last twenty-four hours the situation on the whole is improved somewhat. The chief blow is still being directed against Lublin Cholm and by its approach to Travnik the Austro-Germans have come very close to this advance, almost exactly midway between the towns named. However it is even said they succeeded in breaking through here but apparently they still have a tough job before they can hope to compel the Russians to surrender Warsaw."

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, July 24.—A Petrograd despatch to the Telegraph says: "A private message from Riga reports that the Germans landed an entire army corps near Libau. The Germans seemed at first to be aiming at Riga, but the sudden swing toward the south of this flank confirms the belief that their real object is to cut the communications of the Warsaw army which is protected by cavalry and other light troops."

(Special to The Guardian) PETROGRAD, July 25.—Official statement from headquarters: "No fighting in the Mitau region. On the Janychki-Shavil-Rossani front the enemy continued his advance eastward. On the Narow front the enemy's attack on the left bank of the Pissa River Thursday night was repulsed, despite the use of poison gas. The enemy is straining every effort in an attempt to force the Narow. There was stubborn fighting yesterday. The situation on the Vistula is unchanged. Attacks on our advanced positions were repulsed. Between the Vistula and Bug there is vigorous fighting in the direction of Lublin and the enemy attempted to advance toward Belycz. Severe fighting occurred in Khimel-Volslavi Tze front. The Russians made numerous successful counterattacks on Thursday night, penetrating as far as the enemy's artillery positions. Conditions of fighting, however, did not permit any of the guns the enemy abandoned being carried off. In the region of Grube-Chow considerable forces were concentrated by the enemy, who succeeded in advancing somewhat northward after severe engagements. Fighting on the Bug in the region of Sokia continued yesterday. New German troops are reported as having arrived. Our destroyers in the Black Sea have bombarded a Turkish cavalry camp in the region of the Bosphorus, inflicting losses on the enemy and causing the explosion of supply trains."

(Special to The Guardian) BERLIN, July 25.—The Germans have crossed the Narow River on the front from a point south of Ostrelenka to Pultusk. South-east of Pultusk the Teutonic forces are approaching the Bug River. These two advances the German troops in Russian Poland announced to-night in an official statement by German headquarters force. The movement indicates that the Germans are making for the Warsaw-Petrograd railway, which runs parallel with the Bug, 125 miles to the south-east.

FURTHER FIGHTING IN ARABIA

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, July 25.—There has been further fighting in Southern Arabia, where the British forces have been skirmishing for some time, according to a British official statement issued today claiming success. Sheikh Othman, which, in the withdrawal of our troops to Aden, had been temporarily abandoned, was recaptured Wednesday, the Turks being easily expelled and pursued for a distance of 5 miles. Sheikh Othman is now securely held and the civilian population is fast returning. The Turks are still near Najk, but are said to be suffering from sickness. Our total losses in the affair Wednesday amount to about 25 of all ranks.

SUMMARY OF WAR SITUATION

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, July 25.—Only the northern point of the pincers which the Austro-Germans are trying to close around Warsaw and the Russian armies in the south, salient have made progress during the last few days. This point has forced its way across the Narow River and is advancing toward the Bug River, which stands for the greater part of the way between it and the Warsaw-Vilna railway. Its objective is directing at Lublin-Cholme railway, has hardly gained a yard of ground since reaching the village of Reiovetz. In offering resistance to German advance the Austro-Germans are making a continual threat at Mackenzen's flank. Between Krylow and Sokal their attacks are severe, compelling the Germans to send reinforcements, probably intended to support Von Mackenzen, to meet them. Along the Vistula and in the provinces of the south, the little change of the Warsaw there is under heavy pressure, the Austro-Germans have a lot of stiff work before them if they are to bring their operations to a successful ending by its capture. After crossing the Narow they still have the broad Bug lined with fortresses to face, while in the south the Russians have good positions which might prove the undoing of the army which attacks them. Many are of the opinion that the most dangerous attacks at the moment are those being made in the provinces of the north, Kovno and Grodno at the lines of communication between Warsaw and the northern interior of Russia. These attacks are being delivered, for the most part, by cavalry and will doubtless be met by a concentration of Cossacks.

FIGHTING IN WESTERN THEATRE

(Special to The Guardian) PARIS, July 25.—The following official communication was issued by the War Office last night: "Nothing to report except artillery action around Souchez, throwing some shells on Soissons and Rheims, and a violent bombardment in the forest of La Prete. A German aeroplane was brought to earth at Bethancourt, two aviators being made prisoners."

EXPLOSION AND FIRE IN BRITISH SHIP

(Special to The Guardian) NEW YORK, July 25.—An explosion of unknown origin which occurred in the forward hold of the British freight steamer Cragside at her dock in Hudson River here yesterday, was followed by fire, which, however, was speedily checked. The Cragside, which was to leave here last night for England with a cargo of 100,000 bags of sugar, will be delayed for a few days. The authorities are investigating the cause of the explosion. Fire and water damage is estimated at $10,000, while the cargo of sugar is valued at $144,000 and is believed to be a total loss.

(Special to The Guardian) ST. JOHN, July 25.—A shocking tragedy occurred at Armstrong's Corner, 35 miles from St. John, early Saturday morning when James Francis, an aged man shot his son while asleep in bed and then killed himself. Insanity was the cause of the action. Mrs. George Hicks, 35 years of age, living on the Hickey Road, seven miles from the city, drowned herself this morning in the city reservoir. The body was recovered. She also is supposed to have been insane.

The correspondent adds the German submarine U-51 is reported stranded off Tchekmedje.

THE OBJECT OF THE CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Rev. Dr. Gordon in an Able Discourse Defines the Attitude that should be Adopted Towards Politics, Commerce and Life Generally by Laymen and Ministry Alike.

Rev. J. A. Gordon, D. D., a former pastor, yesterday morning preached a timely and trenchant sermon in Prince St Baptist Church on "The Object of the Christian Ministry." His text was Corinthians 10: 31. "Whether, therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God."

his realm. The thought that I want to leave with you is this: that every department of activity, every legitimate work, that makes for the good of man is within the sweep of the Kingdom of God. If any activity is essential for the good of man, it is the Christian ministry. If we are engaged in law, or medicine, or commerce or labor of any kind that is essentially of the nature of Christian ministry because it is essential to the welfare of man. We are in the habit of talking about ourselves as ordinary people, and our actions as ordinary actions. Now and then we meet some person who is engaged in some extraordinary calling or pursuit, there is no such thing as an ordinary event in the history of the world. There is no such thing as an ordinary action that can be performed by a man who is dominated by a Christian motive. Every man stands alone. God never dupes any man. He has a plan for every man who is engaged in some extraordinary calling or pursuit. There is nothing ordinary that is within the scope of the Christian ministry at all. Suppose two angels were sent down from Heaven. One angel would be a minister from Heaven, the other was to clean up the back lanes. It is a matter of no importance, for the simple reason that they both had the divine reason and they recognise the expansiveness and the divine purpose of the Christian ministry. We have a most our vision of life, and our conceptions of God have utterly failed. There is no such inherent quality as justifies the distinctive terms of secular or sacred, particularly when we say secular. The differentiating quality resides not in the calling itself, or in the vocation, in the thing that we are doing, but it does reside in the motive—in the objective of the thing that you do. It matters not then, whether you are in law, or medicine, or commerce so far as that is within the scope of the Christian ministry. The differentiating quality is in the motive, in the moves you and the objective that you have in view. When you are in doubt in any way, the question to settle is this: What is the motive? What is the intention? Whether ye eat or drink or do anything, do it all to the glory of God. What is the chief end of man? Man's chief end is to glorify God and to enjoy Him forever. If a man is engaged in any department of service whatever, if he is all that simply because he wants to serve God and humanity, then it is sacred.
