

New Hair Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow because it is a hair-food. Feed the hair-bulbs, and the hair grows. That's nature's way, and that is all there is to it. Strong and healthy hair stays in, keeps soft and smooth, and grows thick as a 4 heavy. Then aid nature with Ayer's Hair Vigor. A little of it often does a lot of things. There's genuine comfort in a handsome head of hair!

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block, Charlottetown.

At the police station last night two "drunks" who anticipated the holiday were locked up to await trial.

GEO. THOMPSON of Prince Edward Island, crossed to Moncton on Friday and went west on the maritime express.

Mrs. MURRAY, recently of Charlottetown, is spending the winter in Ottawa and has taken apartments in O'Connor street.

R. C. WILLIAMS, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Sussex N.S., and his wife were in the City on Saturday. They will spend Christmas at the former's home at Bedford.

M. Leclere, of Dalvay, brought into the City on Friday last a cargo of pork nine months old, which weighed 403 pounds. The carcass was sold to G. D. Longworth & Co.

AFTER seven years absence in Panama and Port Rico, H. H. McNeill is en route to his old home in Prince Edward Island. He was joined at St. John by his brother, who is a merchant in Winnipeg.

A QUIET but pretty wedding took place Thursday at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Beck, of St. John, N.B. when her only daughter, Eleanor Frances Mary Beustead Beck was united in marriage to Victor Thornton Williams, of Lockport. After the ceremony luncheon was served, and the happy couple left for a trip through Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

THE Guardian's Sea town correspondent writes—C. Robinson, teacher, has moved with his charges into the new school-house which has been built for him during the past summer, and completed in the most up-to-date manner. It is as fine a school-house as one would wish to see. Owing to bad roads and stormy weather things are very quiet. Farmers have not yet been able to get into the woods to do their usual winter cutting.

ON Saturday afternoon about 200 people in the city were made happy by the presentation of Christmas dinners, made possible through the efforts of those who worked and those who contributed to the fund raised for the purpose. A great deal of praise is deserved by the energetic committees of ladies who spared no pains in their endeavors to see that good dinners were provided for those who appreciated them.

Mrs. MARY DAVIES made a charming hostess at the tea hour yesterday afternoon. Lady Davies presided at one end of the table, which was prettily decorated with white narcissi and pink carnations, and Mrs. Musgrave of Charlottetown, at the other. Miss Grace Fraser and Miss Annie Dale Harris assisted. Lady Davies wore green silk with touches of lace and velvet on the corsage. Miss Mary Davies was daintily gowned in white. There were a large number of guests.—Ottawa Citizen.

THE case of John Jones vs Ellen Smith, came up before the Moot Court on Friday. This is an action brought by the plaintiff to recover $300 amount expended in repairing defendant's property while she was the wife of John Smith. The plaintiff declared on oath that the defendant had never repaid the amount, and the defendant pleaded never indebted and payment on which issue was joined. At the hearing the counsel for the defendant asked leave to amend the plea by adding a plea of coverture which was allowed, with costs. The counsel for the plaintiff were George W. McPherson and C. W. Matheson; for the defendant, N. A. Campbell and Fred K. Conroy. Stipendiary Magistrate John A. McDonald presided as judge. Judgment was reserved.

THE half yearly examination of Hampshire school was held on Thursday, the 20th inst. Quite a number of visitors were present. The school was nicely decorated for the occasion, and the work of the pupils arranged so as to be seen and be examined by the present, thus showing the interest taken by the teacher, Miss Gustave Phillips, in everything pertaining to the welfare of the school. The order and conduct of the pupils was excellent. The programme was very interesting, consisting of recitations by the pupils, and Miss Zylpha Treasurer, Miss Betha Easton and Miss Fidesa White, some of the young ladies who were present added to the enjoyment by reciting some nice selections. The pupils were examined in the different subjects by the teachers and showed by their ready answers that they have a good knowledge of their work. D. Fraser and J. Stewart (the latter) expressed themselves as being well pleased with the progress made during the term and hope for still greater improvement during the remainder of the school year. The teachers presented each pupil with a gift as a slight remembrance of the happy Christmas tide, and the school officers treated them to a liberal supply of candy. The proceedings were brought to a close by singing "God be with you till we meet again."

Perfumes etc.—We're converting our large stock of perfumes, sachets, etc into cash, cut prices are doing it quickly. The best inakers Pivera, Seivys, R. and G. etc. to also our W. Redlin, Phm B. Sunnyside.

JOSEPH J. RUDGE was a passenger by the Minto Saturday, and will spend Christmas at his home in this city.

THE continued rain and mild weather of the past three days has resulted in taking away nearly all the snow which had previously fallen. Units—there is a change there in a probability of a green Christmas for 1906.

LAST night after the service in the First Methodist Church the Christmas music was rehearsed. Those who had the pleasure of hearing it are outspoken in their admiration of the music in which it was rehearsed and the taste shown in its selection.
