POWER TO BECOME THE SONS OF GOD

Sermon by the Rev. Wm. Dobson, Pastor of the First Methodist Church, Charlottetown.

The Privileges That are Offered to Mankind—To "As Many as Receive Him"—All who Believe in God Have the Right to Call Him Father.

(Reported by The Guardian Stenographer) Text:—But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the Sons of God. John 1, 12.

Everywhere throughout the New Testament it is assumed that something has happened at some time to disturb the normal relations between God and man. It is further assumed, that in this calamity man has profited not only by his right but his ability to readjust these relations.

Let us think of it first as discussed by the Apostle Paul under the conception of justification. And in so doing we will have to remember first that it is impossible for us to talk about Spiritual things, without translating them into the terms of matter, for by hypothesis spirit can have neither length, breadth nor thickness, which are the properties or attributes of matter.

What a wonderful privilege it is to have the right through Christ Jesus to become the children of God, sons and daughters of the Lord Almighty. These great privileges are for all who will receive Him and believe on His name.

Again: Our relations to God do not end in righteousness and Sonship, but we are to be set apart for His service as Kings and Priests to God. Here the New Testament writers have used the analogy of the Temple where everything was set apart for hallowed service.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON THIRD QUARTER

WORDS AND WORKS OF JESUS AS RECORDED IN THE GOSPELS.

LESSON XI.—SEPTEMBER 9.

JESUS ENTERS JERUSALEM IN TRIUMPH.

Matt. 21:1-17. Memorize verse 9-11.

GOLDEN TEXT.

Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.—Matt. 21, 9.

Time.—Sunday, April 2, A. D. 30.

Place.—Between Bethany and Jerusalem.

EXPLANATION.

1. "We come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives.—In Saint Luke's narrative the incident of Jesus weeping over Jerusalem precedes his triumphal entry (Luke 19: 40-44). Both Mark and Luke include the mention of Bethany in connection with Bethphage in this verse.

2. "The village—Bethphage." "An ass tied, and a colt with her." Matthew notes the close correspondence with the words of the prophecy. (Comp. note on v. 1 below.)

3. "And straightway he will send them."—The narrative leads us to infer that the owner was an acquaintance and friend of Jesus, possibly a secret disciple. The number of such secret followers was doubtless very large.

4. "Spoken by the prophet."—Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Jerusalem; behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass." (Zech. 9: 9, comp. also Isa. 62: 11.)

5. "Daughter of Zion."—Per omnia saecula in saecula. Zion was the ancient name of the eastern spur or hill on which Jerusalem was built (2 Sam. 5).

6. "On them."—Probably only on the colt. Mark and Luke both mention only the colt, pointing out the fact that no man had ever before sat thereon. John's narrative also emphasizes this point. (Comp. John 1: 14.)

7. "A very great multitude."—These were fellow pilgrims to the Passover feast. "Out (down) branches from the trees"—Branches of palm trees growing by the roadside.

8. "Hosanna"—The Hebrew word is Hoshannah, meaning "Save now," or "Save, I pray." "Son of David"—The multitude recognized in Jesus the promised Messiah who was to be a descendant of David. "Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord"—Compare Ps. 118: 26. The Hebrew title Hallelu, "He that cometh," was a recognized Messianic title.

9. "All them that sold and bought in the temple."—A similar cleansing of the temple had taken place at the very beginning of Christ's ministry. (Comp. John 2: 15-22.) The notices said in the outer courts of the temple were such as were used in connection with temple sacrifices, including the sacrificial animals. People coming from a distance would thus buy the offering and accessories necessary after reaching the temple. "Money changers" men who for a small fee exchanged Roman and other coins for the Hebrew coin with which it was required to temple fee.

10. "A den of thieves."—A cave of robbers and bandits. The caves of Palestine had always been places of refuge for the lawless, who sometimes even defiled the Roman authorities.

11. "Thou hast perfected praise."—Or, thou hast founded strength. (Comp. Ps. 8: 2.)

12. "Into Bethany; and lodged there."—In the family circle of Lazarus, Martha, and Mary.

QUESTIONS ON THE LESSON.

What was the significance of his accepting kingly honors at this time? What events occurred on each day of Passion Week? Give a suitable designation for each separate day of this week.
