POLICE COURT.—At Charlottetown Police Court today the assault case of Catherine Mahar vs. Edward Bradley was adjourned for a week.

SMELT FISHING.—Messrs. Urban McDonald and Allan J. McDonald, smelt fishermen, Maple Hill, have moved their fishing outfit to Vernon River in the hopes of getting good catches of the little fish for which there is such a big price at present. The writer hopes that enviable success will crown their efforts.—S.

THE WEATHER.—Although a stiff wind blew last night causing a drift, the thermometer did not fall below zero during the night. Many citizens this morning were of the opinion that last night was "the coldest yet" but upon enquiry the official thermometer only reported one above zero.

IS DOING WELL.—Mrs. David Rogers, formerly of Summerside, who has recently removed to Halifax to reside with her cousin, Mrs. A. Milne Fraser, was yesterday operated upon for appendicitis at the Victoria general hospital by Doctors Chisholm and MacDonald. Mrs. Rogers was reported to be resting as comfortably as could be expected.

MINTO YESTERDAY.—The C.G.S. Minto crossed to Cape Tormentine yesterday arrived in Summerside on return at 3.30 p. m. She did not connect with the train on the mainland as the Cape Tormentine branch was badly blocked with snow and train was unable to get through, consequently the train which arrived here last night at 6.30 brought neither passengers or mail from the mainland.

KINGSBORO SCHOOL.—The semi-annual examination of Kingsboro school took place on December 19. A number of the ladies and ratepayers of the district were present. The pupils were examined in the various subjects by the teacher, Miss Ruth Baker assisted by Miss Lily Rose, teacher at Red Point. The scholars acquitted themselves most creditably in the different subjects; showing a marked improvement during the past six months. At the close of the examination a program of songs, recitations and dialogues were nicely rendered by the scholars and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Prizes were given by the teacher to several of the pupils for good attendance. She was then presented with a purse in behalf of the school, accompanied by remarks from several of those present. The teacher who was agreeably surprised thanked the pupils for their kind remembrance and treated them with home-made candy. The exam. was then brought to a close.

SEVERE STORM.—The heaviest snow storm of the season and perhaps the last number of years has visited the central part of the Island burying everything within two feet of the ground and piling up in places to height of eight feet necessitating the road breakers to get busy for the roads have to be kept open this winter better than they ever were before on account of the rural mail delivery been in nearly every district.—S.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—Cornwall Methodist Church anniversary meeting of W. M. S. was held Thursday evening, January 8th. A very interesting meeting was greatly helped by the various appropriate pieces rendered by the choir. Mrs. Geo Orman read her report as Delegate to the recent Branch Meeting held at Sackville. Report of the year's work of the Cornwall Auxiliary which was read by Mrs. W. Lowther was most encouraging and special mention was made of the faithfulness and activity of the President Mrs. Pope Crosby. Miss Myrtle Boyle read a paper which was composed by the late J. R. Inch. D.D. entitled "An Appreciation of Woman's Work." The pastor Rev. George Orman presided and delivered an address mainly occupied by narration of the result of Missionary effort in China and Japan.
