Canadian Legion Scores Supine Manpower Policy And Calls Issue Critical

OTTAWA, Nov. 7 — (CP) — Following is the text of the statement issued by the Dominion Executive Council of the Canadian Legion on Canada's manpower problem:

"The Legion's policy in regard to this matter has been long established and unequivocal. In 1932, when no war was in prospect, the Legion's policy was to have a reserve of 100,000 men."

Heavy Fighting Continues On Western Front

LONDON, Nov. 7 — (CP) — The month-long battle to clear the Germans from Southwest Holland and from the Schelde River estuary virtually came to a close tonight as the Canadian Army forces pushed into the Nazi's last ferry terminal across the Maas River and, to the west, seized the last city of Middelburg on Walcheren Island.

P. E. Island Veterans Forced To Transfer After Long Service

"Island Veterans not wanted in the policy of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in this Province at the present time. Of the R.C.M.P. personnel in uniform numbering about thirty throughout the Island, only four Prince Edward Islanders were left at the beginning of this week. One of these four were returned soldiers, veterans of the last war. This week both these Islanders and veterans received their "march orders" to pack up and remove with their families to other provinces. Their places are to be filled by young men from other parts, who have arrived from Ottawa."
