FORMER RESIDENT KILLED—Many citizens here heard with sincere regret of the sudden death of Mr. Alfred M. Peters, 73, retired banker of Montreal, who died early Thursday from injuries he received when struck by an automobile that failed to stop after the accident Wednesday night. He had resided in Montreal since his retirement ten years ago from the position of District Superintendent of Alberta of the Bank of Montreal. He was born August 30, 1865, Nfld., and at one time was Manager of the Bank's branch at Charlottetown, where he is very kindly remembered.

Mrs. S. F. TarBush, entered P. E. I. Hospital Friday undergoing an operation Saturday, coming through it safely, and doing nicely.

In Memoriam

MRS. (DR.) J. G. TOOMBS

The death occurred in Winnipeg Friday night of Mrs. Toombs, aged 72, widow of the late Dr. J. G. Toombs, of Mount Stewart.

Mrs. Toombs has been residing in Winnipeg with her son, Dr. Stewart Miriam, for the past nine years, having gone there after her husband's death.

Her maiden name was Bessie Isabel Coffin, and she was born in Mount Stewart, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Coffin.

She possessed those gentle qualities which endeared her to all who intimately knew her, and the bereaved family will have the deep sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

She leaves to mourn one son, two daughters, Mr. Benjamin H. Stewart in Georgetown, and Mrs. Harry Mackay in Charlottetown.

Her son, Dr. Garth Toombs, died about six months ago in Moose-jaw.

One sister, Mrs. (Dr.) George Carruthers of Charlottetown, and four brothers survive, Solomon in Conception, Leola and Rev. Robert in Vancouver and Ernest in Calgary.

The body, accompanied by the son and daughter of the deceased will arrive in Charlottetown next Tuesday at 6.30 p. m., and the funeral will be held from the residence of her son, Dr. Garth Toombs, on Wednesday the 14th, at 2 p. m.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

Rev. Hugh Millar brought the message at the morning service of Trinity United Church, Sunday, Dec. 11, 1938. The minister said that the ultimate salvation and purification of the world, which rests with Christian people as the successors of Jesus' disciples, must be in the minds and hearts of the individuals.

The evening service was led by Rev. L. M. Murray, who spoke on the subject "Some Challenges to Religion". In his inspiring address the minister suggested that, in the face of the present wave of materialism and pleasure seeking, the church needs three things; a finer, more acceptable worship; a more extensive knowledge of the true meaning of religion; and a firmer grasp on the spirit of God as revealed in Jesus.

Music for the day consisted of the sacred solo "O Lord Most Holy" by Cesar Frank, very effectively sung by Miss Bernice Huestis.

"Immortal, Invisible, God only Wise" an anthem by Dr. Eric Thiman, sung by a large choir.

In the evening a selection for men's voices "Savour Breathe an Evening Blessing" was sung and a number by the choir.

To sound family training, to wise teaching in our schools, to strong leadership by our churches, to high inspiration from those in whose hands are placed government we must look for encouragement of a condition under which our own town shall be the worthy birthplace of men and women, who by the standards of God, shall be great.

Holly's carol "In the bleak Midwinter" was sung by the choir. Miss Pearl Burns and Miss Vera Campbell in their duet gave a fine rendering of Philip Brooks' "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

From the series of evening sermons on "Some Saints and Some Sinners" Mr. Denton delivered an interesting and appealing address on "The Unknown Sinner." The evening anthem was "Lord, We Pray Thee" (Robert) by E. D. Quigley (tenor) sang effectively Stebbins' "The Prodigal Son."

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The Rev. Harvey L. Denton, B. D. in his morning sermon "Little Town" called attention to the fact that many a little town is principally remembered as the birthplace of a great man. Some time ago a large group was asked to list the twelve men that they thought greatest. Only three of the finally completed list came from great cities. Most of the others are recalled, like other men who had in one way or other greatly contributed to making the world better for their lives.

Always will Bethlehem be sacred to us, as the birthplace of our Divine Redeemer. Every town is great not primarily on account of its population, its wealth, its strategic position, its greatness by the measure of the excellence of the people who dwell therein.

Living ourselves in a town of which we may justly cherish a civic pride, how may we encourage the good citizenship, encourage the factors that make for a great and good citizenship, encourage the factors of degeneracy?

To sound family training, to wise teaching in our schools, to strong leadership by our churches, to high inspiration from those in whose hands are placed government we must look for encouragement of a condition under which our own town shall be the worthy birthplace of men and women, who by the standards of God, shall be great.

Holly's carol "In the bleak Midwinter" was sung by the choir. Miss Pearl Burns and Miss Vera Campbell in their duet gave a fine rendering of Philip Brooks' "O Little Town of Bethlehem."
