

IMPORTANT READING MATTER SELECTED FROM THIS WEEK'S NEWS FOR THE GUARDIAN'S SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

THURSDAY Mrs. D. W. Morrissy and daughter Marion, Georgetown, were in the city yesterday and left on return in the afternoon. They intend leaving shortly for Prince Rupert, B. C., to join Mr. Morrissy who is now located there.

J. Peter Gordon, son of James Gordon, Appin Road, was elected as councillor in the civic election held in Amherst last week by a majority of forty-one. His many friends in this Province will hear with pleasure of his success in his adopted home.

Mrs. Ferguson of Cape Traverse, accompanied by her son Parmenus, who has just returned from spending the past six years in Winnipeg, were visitors to the city yesterday and left in the afternoon for Montague where they will visit relatives and friends.

The death occurred at his home in Lower Kingsclear, N.B., on the 10th inst. of George Kitchener, retired contractor and father of Willard Kitchener the contractor who built the Murray Harbor Branch of the P. E. Island Railway. Deceased was reported to be one of the wealthiest men in New Brunswick.

A Kensington correspondent writes:—Leannus Gorman and Hartie Sims are visiting at Clifton the guest of Buckley Brown—John McInnis, Assistant Agent at Kensington, is spending his holidays with Thomas Gorman—James Gorman paid a flying visit to Freetown, recently, the guest of Jas Curley.—Hugh Morrison, auctioneer of Kensington, is spending the winter months at Clifton.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Rudolph and Mrs. McKay, Kelvin, on Friday evening, Feb. 9th, when a large number of friends assembled there. A congenial social evening was spent and thoroughly enjoyed by the guests. Photograph selections were given by James Walker and Kenford Waite. Instrumental music was furnished by J. A. Walker and Mrs. McKay. Games and amusements of all kinds were indulged in with good zest until a late hour, when all were invited to the dining-room to partake of the many good things provided by the genial host and hostess, after which speeches were given by Robert Agnew, Kenford Waite, W. Easton, and several others. The unanimous vote of all present was tendered Mr. and Mrs. McKay for the evenings enjoyment.

T. A. and Mrs. Macnab, who were married in London on January 9th, arrived home by the S. S. Corinthian on Saturday afternoon. The marriage took place at St. Columba's (Church of Scotland), Point St., Bellevue, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Archibald Fleming, D. D. The bride wore a very pretty gown of blue velvet and black hat, and was given away by her brother, Gilbert T. Gordon, Edinburgh. Miss Coates, of London, who acted as bridesmaid, wore a very pretty dress of pale grey Thraetian crepe and large black hat. The bridegroom was ably supported by Victor Gordon, brother of the bride. Dr. L. Paterson, of St. John's was among the friends present. After the ceremony, luncheon was partaken of at Prince's restaurant. The happy couple left in the afternoon for Paris—Daily News, St. John's Nfld.—T. A. Macnab referred to is a son of Mrs. E. Macnab who visited Charlottetown last summer, and who has a large circle of friends in this city.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Robert and Mrs. Drake, Cornwall, last evening when their daughter Roberta Jean was married to Walter McDonald Archibald of Port Hastings, C. B. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Z. L. Fash, M. A., B. D., City, in the presence of the immediate relatives. The bride was beautifully gowned in cream silk trimmed with lace and made a fine appearance. The parlor was trimmed for the occasion and the bridal couple stood under a beautiful wedding bell of chrysanthemums. Prof. S. N. Earle, City, presided at the piano and the bridal couple came in to the sweet strains of Wagner's wedding march. During the reading of the service the Professor played wedding music softly and at the close Mendelssohn Wedding March. The Professor added much to the pleasure of the evening by his fine playing. After the wedding ceremony, which was a very beautiful one, the company sat down to a most inviting wedding feast. The tables were finely set and everything was to the very best. Mr. Archibald is a native of Port Hastings, C. B., but for some years has been a successful Railroad Superintendent in the Canadian West. It was there that Mrs. Archibald met him and it is expected that the happy couple will after a while return to the west to make their home. They have the congratulations of a host of friends who follow with their best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Archibald came to the city last night, to the Victoria Hotel where they will remain until the steamer crosses to the Pictou on their way to Port Hastings C. B., for their bridal tour.

J. R. Cromell, Halifax; A. L. O. Phillips, Toronto; and John McLean, Montreal, registered at the Queen Hotel, City, between 9.30 last night and 10 o'clock the previous night. The arrivals in yesterday's issue were between 10 o'clock Tuesday night and 10.10 Saturday night.

What might have been a bad fire occurred Monday morning at Victoria when the dwelling house owned by Mrs. Alex. Logan caught fire. Mrs. Logan, on going upstairs, noticed the smoke and immediately sent for help. Very little damage was done as the fire was between the floors.

The following note from Haverhill will be of interest to the local friends here of Mr. Costello:—Louis Costello, of Haverhill, Mass., has secured a position as agent for the Puelen Real Insurance Co. of America. His many friends here join in wishing him success in his new business.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ellen Doyle, City, took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence to St. Dunstan's Cathedral and thence to the R. C. Cemetery. There was a large following of friends of the deceased. She is survived by four sisters and two brothers, her husband having predeceased her some years.

Mrs. W. E. Callbeck and son who have been visiting the former's parents, John and Mrs. Waye of Hunter River, leave this morning en route for their home in Calgary, Alta. Her father will accompany them as far as Pictou.

Since the opening of the iceboat mail service at the Cape this year both crews have been doing commendable work. The ice and weather conditions have often been extremely unfavorable yet but few trips were missed and in nearly all cases good time was made in crossing. Their work has been heartily commended on all sides.

A teacher's Bible was presented to Mrs. John Waye, Hunter River, recently by nine of the young women of her Sunday School Bible Class. The gift was highly appreciated, and the names of the donors were as follows:—Mae Silliphant, Louisa Andrews, Martha Beaton, Alice Large, Margueretta Smith, Hazel Vandierstine, Lizzie Silliphant, Beatrice Vandierstine, Lulu Silliphant.

In the adjacent columns is given the result of the civic elections of yesterday.

The polling was held under most favorable weather conditions, the entire day being fine and mild. For the first time in Charlottetown's municipal history the voting in a civic election was by ballot and the system received a hearty commendation on all sides as one of the outstanding monuments of the late council.

The contest in every ward was keen. There was a three cornered fight for Mayoralty, the first in the history of the city, contests in each ward with two candidates each in Wards One, Two and Three, three in Ward Four and six in Ward Five. There were five candidates for Water Commissioners. The Mayoralty election was a signal victory for Charles Lyons over James Paton and S. A. McDonald. Mr. Lyons had 63 votes less than his two opponents combined. When defeated by Mayor Rogers in 1910 he polled 1020 votes and this year he obtained 1126 with two opponents. The total vote in 1910 was 2145 and in 1912, 2315, an increase of 170. Mr. Lyons led in every ward and in each of the polls but three.

Of the retiring council the four offering for re-election, Couns McKenna, Riley, Campbell and Taylor, were each successful. R. H. Sterns in Ward one put up a strong fight and for a second time Coun. McKenna received a close call, being victorious by eight votes. The vote polled was considerably larger than in 1910.

Coun. Riley defeated Dr. Ledwell by 15 votes in Ward Two and in Ward Three Coun. Campbell was returned by a majority of 42 after the polling of one of the heaviest civic votes in the ward for years.

Dr. McLaughlin led the poll in Ward Four, with Coun. Taylor second. Mr. Brown was but 31 votes behind Coun. Taylor.

The battle in Ward Five resulted in the return of McLean, McNevin and Walker, the latter being the "baby" of the council. W. F. Tidmarsh and W. K. Rogers, who ran on a "no canvass" basis, and George Wheatley votes cast exceeded that of 1910 by 209.

For Water Commissioner Messrs McGregor, Crabbe and McDonald were elected, P. F. McCarron, of last year's host, being defeated by a about 100 votes. The contest was exceedingly close, each candidate polling 1000 votes and there being only 37 votes difference in the first three.

The ballots, on the whole, were carefully written, out of the 2000 or more cast there being but 33 rejected. There were apportioned to the Wards as follows:—One east—5, Two east—1, Two west—2, Four Central C. B., for their bridal tour.

FRIDAY A young girl named McIntosh, belonging to the country and boarding at 222 Sydney Street, was yesterday removed to the P. E. Island Hospital in G. D. Wright's ambulance. She is suffering with rheumatic fever.

The funeral of the late George Bishop, Great George Street, City, took place Wednesday afternoon from his late residence, to the Peoples Cemetery. The pallbearers were his brother-in-law, George, Joseph, Harry and Fred Court. There was a large attendance and the services at the house were conducted by Mr. Godfrey.

Miss Macdonald, daughter of John and Mrs. Macdonald, Summerside, was among the passengers returning on the Earl Grey yesterday. She came to the city on the mail special.

Archibald McLean, formerly of Bridgetown, now of Raymore, Sask., is visiting friends in Charlottetown. It is five years since Mr. McLean left this province. He now conducts a large general store in Raymore. He had the distinction of starting the first store in that town, beginning on a very small scale. He is a son of Rev. D. McLean of this city.

H. H. Brown and little son Freddy, City, were passengers yesterday afternoon to Georgetown en route to Saranac Lake, N. Y., to visit Mrs. Brown who is undergoing treatment at the Sanatorium there. Mrs. Brown, it is pleasing to state, is improving. Mr. Brown and Freddy will return about the first of March.

The funeral of the late Miss Emma Gaudet, City took place yesterday afternoon at two o'clock from the residence of her brother-in-law, George S. Pearson, at two o'clock and was largely attended. There were a large number of handsome floral offerings from friends of the deceased and the funeral was largely attended. Interment was in the Peoples Cemetery and the services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. William Harrison.

The lecture in the Knights of Columbus Hall last evening by John H. Bell, K. C., Summerside, on "Egypt, the land of the Pharaohs," was very largely attended, the hall being filled. Dr. W. J. McMillan presided over the gathering and splendid solos were delivered by J. Austin Trainor and G. Elmer Ritchie. The lecture was a most interesting and instructive one and Mr. Bell held the close attention of the audience throughout in his graphic descriptions and passages of humor as he touched on the description and history of the Egyptian country. At the conclusion Principal Landrigan of Queen Square School in a short address of appreciation moved a vote of thanks for the lecturer. This was seconded by Prof. Murphy of the Prince of Wales College, supported by C. Gavin Duffy and tendered to Mr. Bell by the chairman.

In the early hours of Tuesday, Feb. 6th, there passed to her reward the spirit of Mrs. Bertram Brown, of York. Peritonitis ended a life of singular strength, sweetness, and sympathy. She was the fourth daughter of the late Thomas Vessey, and leaves to mourn their loss a husband, three children, four brothers, and three sisters. The brothers and sisters are Hammond, Abner, Heath and Bostica; Mrs. Stephen Brown and Misses Julia and Lizzie.

Early in life, under the ministry of the late Rev. Silas James, she was converted to God, and afterwards an opportunity afforded she gave to Him her best services as Church worker, and faithful wife and mother. A real appreciation of her worth was shown on the day of her funeral, Feb. 8th. There was a very large gathering of both mourners and friends. There were beautiful wreaths from the following:—one from the husband and father-in-law, one from Dr. E. M. Vessey, of Canora, one from H. H. and Mrs. Brown, one from D. W. and M. A. Brown, and Percy Bryenton of Medicine Hat, one from York Sunday School, and one from the Alpha Institute. The pallbearers were Pope Cooke, Captain Hardy, J. A. Farquharson, J. S. Cairns, J. R. Munn, and J. T. Beirsto. At the Church there was a very solemn service conducted by Revs. Hawley, Heaney and Westmoreland. All who know her feel they will do well to follow Christ as did their deceased friend.

The popularity of the late Leslie Wright has been demonstrated by the numerous floral tributes sent to his home when his death became known. They are certainly beautiful, consisting of wreaths, crests, etc., which are marvels of the florist art.—S.
