THE REMARKABLE MUSICAL CAREER OF MR. F. T. WATKIS

At the Age of Thirteen Played the Beethoven Piano Concerto in C. Minor in its Entirety From Memory. At Fourteen Was Made a Welsh Bard, At Twenty Won in Open Competition a Leading Position as Organist, Twice Played by Command Before Queen Victoria, and Toured the World With the Leading Musicians. Now to be Honoured by a Complimentary Concert by his Fellow Musicians.

Born in Shropshire, England, in 1864. First instructions in music by his parents at five years of age. First public performance at seven years of age. Appointed organist of the Parish Church of his birthplace at ten years of age. The same year commenced serious study of music under Dr. Swinerton Heap, with whom he remained for ten years, studying theory and piano.

At thirteen years of age he played the Beethoven Piano Concerto in C minor, in its entirety, from memory, in the Birmingham Town Hall, accompanied by the Philharmonic Orchestra of eighty instruments, conductor Dr. Heap. When he was fourteen, Mr. Watkis was created a Welsh Bard a unique distinction enjoyed by only a few of the most outstanding musicians. At the age of twenty he won, in open competition, the position of organist and choir master at Queen Street Congregational Church, Wolverhampton, holding that appointment for upwards of fourteen years. His brilliant musical attainments and especially his extraordinary gift of accompanying soon became widely known, and he was in great request for concert work. In 1890 he was the chief accompanist of the famous Harrison Subscription Concerts throughout the British Isles, and in 1893 received the distinguished appointment of sole accompanist to Madame Adelina Patti, which position he held until her retirement in 1905.

This appointment led to his resigning the post of organist in Wolverhampton, and going to London, he devoted his whole time to concert-work. Twice, by Royal Command, he played before Her Majesty Queen Victoria at Balmoral, in 1895 and 1897. Between the years 1890 and 1896 he toured almost continuously, accompanying all the greatest singers and instrumentalists of the day. Patti, Albani, Clara Butt, Blanche Marchesi, Trebell-Bettini, Edward Lloyd, Santley, Sarasati, Arbos, Paganini, and the incomparable violinist, David Popper of Buda-Pesth, to mention only a few of the many. Popper, after a phenomenally successful tour through Great Britain in 1895, accompanied by Mr. Watkis, was pressed for a return visit the following year. He accepted the invitation under the condition that he should have the same accompanist, saying that "there were plenty of cellists to be had, but only one accompanist!"

Mr. Watkis toured Canada with Madame Albani three times: in 1901, 1903 and 1906. On the completion of the third tour he decided to remain in Canada. His intention was to reside in Montreal, but owing to a partial breakdown in health he was advised to try the East Coast. He came to Charlottetown in 1909, and here he has spent some of the happiest, if the least strenuous years of his life.

YANKS DEFEAT CARDINALS IN FIFTH GAME OF SERIES

In a Pitchers Battle at the Sportsman's Park Yesterday the Yanks Take Hard Game From Cardinals in the Tenth Innings. After Evening the Count in the Ninth. Next Game Saturday in New York.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7. — The New York Yankees trailing with a 2 to 3 count against them made a great finish to clinch the fifth game from the St. Louis Cardinals.

It was a hard game to lose and the first of the series to take on an extra innings to decide the winners. The eighth neither sides scored and it looked good for a Cardinal victory, but the Yanks rallied to the last call of the ninth and brought in the run that again tied up the game and sent it to an extra innings when the Cardinals failed to count in their last turn at bat.

The tenth and final innings of the game and the final extra inning of this series was a red letter one for the Yanks, when they connected with Sherdel's offerings to gain the run that won the game and sent them on to the lead of their opponents, St. Louis in their turn at bat were unable to solve Pennock's delivery and the side was retired without a score, giving the Yanks a hard earned victory by a score of 3-2. While the Cardinals were forced to submit to losing the hardest game yet in the series.

Six World's Series Marks Set By Ruth

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7. — Seven new world's series records were put on the books tonight by statisticians who found that going as tough in today's game as did the Cardinal pitching corps.

Babe Ruth personally accounted for six of the new marks, as follows:
1—Most homers for one game, three, breaking the former mark of two, held jointly by Harry Hooper of Red Sox, Benny Kauff of the Giants and Ruth.
2—Most homers, total series 7, breaking old record of 6 set by Goose Goslin in 1924 and 1925. Ruth hit one homer in 1924 and three in 1925.
3—Most total bases in one game, 12, breaking mark of 9 set by Hooper in 1915.
4—Most extra bases, one game, 9, breaking former record of 6 held jointly by Ruth, Kauff and Hooper.
5—Most runs, one game, four, breaking record first made by Mike Donlin with Giants in 1905 and equalled by many others.
6—Most extra bases, total series, 27, breaking Ruth's own previous mark of 18.

The seventh and final record for one club's total bases in a single game was set by the Yankees, whose 14 hits totalled for 28 bases, eclipsing the mark of 27 made by the Giants in 1921.
