Famous Novelist

In the immediate neighborhood, and the house itself was the home of the presiding forgermaster. It is said that the name is an abbreviation of "Abatemans," the original owner being famed locally for his gift of abating the wages of any of his men who could be found in the slightest fault. It is recorded that once they got the better of him. He had promised all hands Christmas fare as long as the Yule log should burn, whereupon his men chose the oldest and most gnarled log in the neighborhood, soaked it in the river, and then carried it into the hall. Despite the efforts of the forgermaster and the consumption of tremendous quantities of kindling it smoldered and sputtered for a couple of weeks. All this time the hands feasted sumptuously, and the forgermaster to mark his appreciation of the joke gave them an extra feast when the log finally was consumed. People of that sort live in Burwash yet, and among them Kipling is

She could not help but picture

Now, in the noisy inn, where the waiters ignored their table, she could not help but picture the dinner at the Pembertons' home—the cool, quiet dining-room, the daintily set table, the glinting beauty of the silverware. Then she realized that the essence of good entertaining lies in the personal touch, in the surroundings of the home.

Perhaps you, too, have wished to give a dinner at home, but could not because you lacked the necessary silverware. You need let this trouble you no longer. "1847 Rogers Bros." comes in every kind of piece required for formal or informal entertainment. Easily and reasonably you may provide in this fine tableware all the things you need—salad forks, ice cream forks, soup spoons, orange spoons or serving pieces.

Don't Spoil Your Child's Hair By Washing It

When you wash children's hair, be careful what you use. Do not use prepared shampoo or anything else that contains too much free alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and beats anything else all to pieces.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water, and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to manage. Besides it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any drug store, and a few ounces will last for months. Be sure your drug-gist gives you Mulsified. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.

- WHERE OUR MONEY GOES
- A few weeks ago you went through the annual fluster of making out your income tax. Out of every dollar you paid, some ninety-three cents went to pay for wars, past and future. Since the dawn of history civilization has had thirteen years of war to every year of peace. What can be done to stop this waste? Inasmuch as the politicians have never been able to stop it, perhaps it is time for business men to take a hand in it.
