ATTENTION FOX RANCHERS

In the course of another month you will be getting your foxes. Why not finish them in good shape by feeding some of our Reynard Fox Feed? This comprises chicken gizzard, heart, liver and ground bone. Everything it contains is taken from birds that have passed Government inspection. At the reduced price it feeds out less than the cost of meat. On account of the heavy receipts of poultry this summer we have extra quantities of this fox feed available, packed in one and two pound cans.

Since his affliction Mr. Carter has travelled 96,000 miles, mostly in Canada, dispensing his music and expects to be in the city for a week or more.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER—The ladies of St. Patrick's Road tendered a miscellaneous shower on Sept. 25th in honor of Miss Patricia Edna Murray at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gurney, Peakes Station, whose marriage takes place in the near future to Mr. William Watson Robertson of Kingsborough, P. E. I. The shower being largely attended by friends and neighbors, the many numerous gifts showed the popularity of the young couple. After a most enjoyable afternoon, the young couple entered the sitting room amid applause and occupied the waiting chairs. The gifts were unpacked by Miss Viola Hughes and Miss Norma Gurney, while Miss Bernadette McDonald read the verses and Miss Blanche Hughes placed the gifts on the table. The young couple in a few well chosen remarks thanked their friends for the many nice gifts and hoped to meet them all in the near future. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing. The music being played by Mr. Leonard McDonald. Refreshments were served by the ladies and the party broken up by every body wishing the young couple success in the future.

SMITH - STEAD WEDDINGS—A quiet wedding of interest was solemnized at the Manse Hunter River, on Oct. 11th, when Ada Lavina Marguerite, daughter of Nelson and Mrs. Stead, became the bride of Richard Edgar, only son of Cyrus and Mrs. Smith, New Glasgow. Rev. W. E. MacQuarrie, B.D., officiated. The bride looked lovely in a street length dress of rust chiffon velvet, and a brown felt softly draped with veiling and bow and other accessories to match. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair fern, and wore a necklace of pearls, a gift of the groom. Miss Florence Matheson, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. She was prettily attired in mauve crepe with navy accessories. The groom followed the marriage a reception house at the home of the bride's parents, where supper was served to a number of the immediate relatives of the contracting party. While supper was still being served a large crowd of merry making senders began to arrive making their presence known by tooting car horns and sirens waiting to be admitted to offer congratulations and best wishes. After which the happy couple left amid showers of confetti for a motor trip through the Maritimes.

COLES - EDWARDS—On Sept. 27th at 6 o'clock p.m. a very interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Edwards, when their daughter Mary Agnes was united in marriage to Mr. Vernon C. Coles of Milton, Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie of Hunter River, performed the ceremony. The strains of the wedding march played by Miss Margaret Coles, sister of the groom, the youthful bride entered the drawing room and her place beneath an arc beautifully decorated by gladioli, asters, and maple leaves. The bride looked charming in white satin gown with long train and a veil of silk net, beautifully embroidered, and held in place by orange blossoms, silver slippers, and bouquet of gladioli and Holland roses, and maiden hair fern completed the costume. Her only piece of jewellery was a gold locket the gift of the groom. The bride and groom were accompanied. The bride's mother was dressed in plum Martine velvet, and wore a corsage of Rapture roses. The groom's mother chose for the occasion a becoming gown of navy canton crepe. During the signing of the register suitable music was rendered by Miss Phyllis Easton. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding supper was served. About 70 invited guests retired to the dining room, which was nicely decorated with pink and white streamers, ruffles and garlands. Those assisting in the evening were Miss Edna Lewis, R. N., Miss Grace Deacon, Mrs. H. E. Sanderson, Miss G. F. Sanderson, Miss Gussie Garnish, Mrs. W. Wood and Miss Florence Tremere. After being heartily serenaded by a numerous group of friends the happy couple left by motor on a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia. The bride travelled in a tailored suit of coronation blue, with red fox scarf and matching accessories. The many beautiful and costly gifts received testified the high esteem in which this couple are held. The bride for seven years has been one of our most popular school teachers, while the groom is a widely known and popular farmer. They will reside in North Milton.

The deceased was born in South Melville where he spent his youth but many years ago he moved to the western part of the Province. He worked as a carpenter and was known as an unexcelled and skillful mechanic. MR. JAMES A. MACADAM
There passed peacefully away at his home in West St. Peters on October 1st, 1939, James A. MacAdam, to the immortal life of all, at the advanced age of 88 years. His death deprives the community of one of the oldest and most respected citizens who deserves more than a passing notice.

He was stricken with a heart attack on Friday morning, and a few hours after received the rites of the Roman Catholic church of which he was a devout member, by his pastor, Rev. T. Campbell, who also administered the Sacrament of Extreme Unction to him in his dying hours. It was pleasing that one who had been so zealous to God's church, should thus bring to a close his life of devotion to the things which pertain to God.

Living in West St. Peters all his life the late Mr. MacAdam became one of the foremost men to endorse all movements that pertained to the betterment of the community. He was a kind and obliging neighbor, and his presence in his home will be missed not only by his family but also by the wide host of friends who were always welcome in his home.

His funeral took place on October 3rd at St. Andrews Church. A Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. T. Campbell, who also conducted the services at the grave, where under his final benediction all the brethren were present. A loving father was laid to rest beside his wife who predeceased him four years ago.

There are left to mourn a sorrowful family viz. Ronald H. and John on the homestead, Peter W. of West St. Peters, Aeneas in Vancouver, B.C., George in Los Angeles, California, Charles in Halifax, N.S.

Surviving also were Messrs. Benjamin Douglas, Frank Anderson, Benjamin McEwen, James B. Macdonald, Alex. R. Macdonald, Andrew Macdonald, Hearsie driver, Raymond Tremor. May his soul rest in peace. (Patriot please copy).
