

Danderine

Makes your hair grow long, heavy and luxuriant and we can prove it

Get a 25 Cent Bottle Now and Forever Stop Falling Hair, Itching Scalp and Dandruff

Hair Becomes Soft, Fluffy, Lustrous and Abundant After a Danderine Hair Cleanse

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

Immediately after applying a little Danderine all dandruff will disappear, all itching of the scalp will cease and there will be no more loose or falling hair.

If you wish to double the beauty of your hair in ten minutes surely try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil. In a few moments your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

If you care for beautiful, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowledge's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter—A real surprise awaits you.

QUIDDITIES.

Why do most of the Chinese people have long hair? Because there is only one comb in China.
Why do birds in their nest agree? Because they'd fall out if they didn't.
What made the fly fly? Because the spider spied her.
What herb is most injurious to ladies' beauty? Thyme.
Why is the letter A like a honey-suckle? Because a B follows it.
Why is a woman's age like a floral wedding bell? It is never told.
When is a note of hand like a rosebud? When it is matured by falling due.

IF YOU WANT TO LOOK SMART.

Don't wear shabby boots and a new hat.
Don't dress to outdo your neighbors.
Don't wear stylish dresses with untidy underskirts.
Don't go out with a button missing from glove or shoe.
Don't use a pin where a hook and eye or a stitch will answer.
Don't buy cheap finery.
Don't render yourself personally uncomfortable for the sake of effect.

ALCOHOL AND CIVILIZATION.

Totally abstinent races and peoples do not seem to get ahead. For instance, the strip of northern Africa extending from Egypt to the Atlantic Ocean and from the Sahara to the Mediterranean was in the days of Carthage the garden spot of the world. In those days, when its inhabitants drank—some to much, others not as much as they would like, and others not at all—the country was lively and prosperous. Now for over a thousand years its people have been total abstainers and they have proven themselves incapable of self-government.

CONTRACTED HEAVY COLD

Was In Bed Two Months.

DOCTORS DID NOT SEEM TO DO HER ANY GOOD.

A cold, however slight, should never be neglected; for if it is not treated in time it will, in all possibility, lead to bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, or some other serious throat or lung trouble.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup contains the lung healing virtues of the Norway Pine tree, which, combined with other absorbent, expectorant and soothing medicines, makes it without a doubt the best remedy for all coughs and colds.

Miss N. McCumber, St. Martin's N.B., writes:—"In January last I contracted a heavy cold which kept me in bed nearly two months, and the doctors didn't seem to be able to do me any good. I tried several proprietary medicines, but all in vain. One day a friend advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and when I had taken three bottles I was completely cured, and I feel as well to-day as I ever did, and I am sure my lungs are once more sound, thanks to that wonderful remedy."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Palpitation of the Heart.

Nervous Prostration, Sleeplessness and Dizzy Spells.

A Long Standing Case Cured By MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS.

Many people are kept in a state of morbid fear of death, become weak, worn, and miserable, their nerves become unstrung, and they cannot sleep.

To all such sufferers Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will give prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Peter Halstad, Tilley, Alta., writes:—"I take great pleasure in writing you a few lines to tell you what your Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I had a long standing case of palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, sleeplessness and dizzy spells. I bought a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and they did me so much good I continued their use until I had used several boxes, and they restored me to health again. They are a great remedy, and I recommend them to all my friends."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

self-government.

Persia in the days of her later greatness construed the Koran very liberally, and old Omar himself is indicative of their habits. They were doubtless very bad in regard to alcohol.

Then came a revival, and with it a stricter construction of the holy book; the sinfulness as well as the evil of wine-bibbing was impressed upon the people, abstinence was enforced, and concurrently with this came the decay of Persian art. The wonderful pottery, the embroideries, the tapestries, the rugs, with their sense of joyous life, everything giving the impression that the artist who created it must have sung as he worked, are from the golden days before the people of Persia went to sleep. There is no evidence that the artists who made these things of such surpassing beauty were drinking men. They surely could not have done such work had they drunk too much. We only know as a fact that concurrent with this marvelous development of Persian art the Persians drank, and that Persian art withered and died concurrently with the introduction with what amounted to prohibition—Ellwood Hendriels, in Harper's Weekly.

SOME OF THE BEST JOKES.

Hubbs—"Old Smith is certainly getting to be a tight wad."

Dubbs—"How's that old man; 'What's his latest expense savor?'"

Hubbs—"Oh, it isn't expense now; it's gone further than that. He now stops every clock in his house at night, to save time."

Mrs. Nagg—"John, tell me, who got married this morning over in Smith's house?"

Mrs. Nagg—"Poor John 'Mary Smith, of course, the lucky girl."

Mrs. Nagg—"And, sure, who's the happy man?"

Mr. Nagg—"Her farther, of course."

Mrs. O'Brien—"Sure, did you hear that Mrs. Mulligan's daughter has a chaperone now?"

Mrs. Dooley—"Isn't it too bad she's so sickly. Why, only last Chewsday she had boils on her neck."

Papa Cohen—"Able, you're a coward. Why did you let those boys beat you and kick you, and pull your hair? Why didn't you hit 'em back or why didn't you run?"

Able—"Fader, now could I, when I had my foot on a ten-cent piece?"

Schwartz—"Hello, Cohen, how do you like your new house?"

Cohen—"Ach, fine, only we have white bugs always flying around."

Schwartz—"Those are moths, and the best thing to do is to get a pound of moth-balls, and you'll soon be rid of them."

Cohen—"Bah, mit your moth-balls. Only last night I bought ten pounds of moth-balls, and stayed up all night throwing them, and couldn't hit a—'one."

Young Man—"To shy young miss 'I'm only going to kiss you, dear; don't be afraid."

Young Miss—"Shilly! 'But my mother doesn't approve of kissing."

Young Man—"Very quickly! 'Oh, that's all right. I'm not going to kiss your mother."

Colored Comedian—"All smiles! 'Yes, sah, 'Tis the father of a nice little boy, since Sunday, and he only weighs three pounds."

White Comedian—"Why, that's nothing. White babies are often born that only weigh about three pounds."

Colored Comedian—"Yes, sah, but you has to admit that's a pretty light cullud baby."

Kind Old Lady—"Is that your dog, sonny?"

Little Boy—"Yes, ma'am, and he's some dog."

Kind Lady—"What do you call him?"

Little Boy—"Why, I call him Ginger."

Kind Old Lady—"Does Ginger bite?"

Little Boy—"Nope, Ginger sumps."
