KINGSBORO INSTITUTE—The Kingsboro Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Oswald Stewart on January 4th. First came a roll call answered to by some sweet thought on the opening year. Then the subject "What Constitutes an Attractive Girl or Woman" was discussed and there were varied opinions expressed. Next came a reading "Educating Girls for the Home and a recitation, "The Model Husband," Mrs. Stanford Robertson kindly invited the next meeting to her home. Meeting closed with National Anthem. The Institute also held a ple social and entertainment on Jan. 1st to raise more funds for the prisoner of war. Ethel Macdonald presided at the organ in her usual capable manner. The entertainment consisted of an Opening Chorus—"Till the Boys Come Home" a reading by Arthur Robertson, Duet, "Baby Rose", by two little girls Lydia and Dorothy Robertson, Recitation by Gertrude Stewart, Male Quartette, "Serenade" by Theodore Stewart, Joshua Macdonald, Stanley McVane and Walter Robertson, a solo, "There's a Long, Long Trail a Winding" by Ethel Macdonald, Reading, "The Flags of Our Empire" by Mrs. Stanford Robertson, Trio by the Misses Ethel and Lillian Macdonald and Mrs. (Rev.) H. A. Macdonald. The entertainment was interspersed with Graphophone selections. At the close of the programme, the pies were ably auctioned by J. A. Fraser and realized a goodly sum. The net proceeds of the social will be about $55.

MY SOLDIER BOY.

Draw closer little darling
And sit down by my side
My thoughts they wander sadly
Far or the deep blue sea
To my boy away Over yonder
On the battlefield of France
And I sometimes sit and wonder
If we ever will meet again.

Go bring to me his picture
And his little baby curl
Also the little shoes he wore
Just sixteen years ago
See the marks of little teeth
Set in the dainty shoes
For the lad that used to wear them
Toddled at my knee.

Just one year ago today
He joined the 105th
To fight for home and freedom
For Country God and King.
I fancy that I see him now
My lad so brave and true
Oh God in Heaven be with him
While fighting with the Foe.

PATRIOTIC ENTERTAINMENT TOMORROW—An Entertainment and Pie Social in aid of Red Cross and King's County Siege Draft will be held in St Patrick's Hall, Souris Friday January 19.

PROFITABLE MEETING—The Lakeview Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. A. H. Morrow, on Jan. 10th, 1917, president in the chair. Receipts from Mr. D. J. Riley for $9.13, contributed to Belgian Relief Fund, and from Canon Simpson for two months support of prisoners were read. Nearly all the yarn brought has been knit, and ready for shipment. Ten pounds more is now ready to be spun, and knit. An interesting program was disposed of. First a roll call answered by a New Year thought, a paper from the Department, "Social Life in Rural Communities," read by Mrs. W. M. Walker, a paper by Miss Pearl Ching, "The Effect of Literature on our Lives." An exchange of economical recipes completed the program. There was an exceptionally large attendance, including members from Elmira Institute. Meeting closed with National Anthem.—Sec'y.

POPULAR POINT—The people of this vicinity are busily engaged hauling the winter fire wood for owing in the scarcity of snow many people are very short. What might have been a very serious accident happened to Capt. John Macdonald a few days ago. He was unloading logs of the sleigh when his horse started throwing him to the ground breaking his leg just above the ankle. Dr. Morris was summoned and under his skillful treatment Mr. Macdonald is doing as well as can be expected. Mr. H. B. Finlay of St. Peters is busily engaged painting and decorating the houses at Poplar Point.—Mr. Herbert McLeod is having his house thoroughly painted and when completed will be one of the finest houses in this section of the country. Mr. Daniel Macdonald, the well known horseman, had a very narrow escape. Coming from St. Peters his horse got unmanageable and upset the sleigh throwing Mr. Macdonald out striking his head on the hard ground. Only for the kind assistance of the people of Forest Hill he might have perished. Miss Ada Trainor, teacher of Annandale passed through Poplar Point on Thursday where she had been spending her Xmas holidays at her home at Bonshaw. The school is progressing favorably under the management of their teacher, Miss Gertrude Pollard.

INDIANS HEAR CALL

Recruiting Speaker Finds Ready Response From Real "Braves"

The Indian tribes of Canada have responded splendidly to the call to arms and have given the best of their young braves to fight alongside their "white brothers" as well as giving of the money toward the Patriotic and other funds. Over 800 men are with the forces and they have contributed no less than $24,634 through the Indian Department officially as well as contributing to local funds. For instance the Blackfoot Indians have given $207 and the Stuart Lake Indians $278 to local funds.

Lieut. Charles A. Cooke of the Indian Department spent several months amongst the Indians on a recruiting expedition. He visited twenty-two reserves and addressed several meetings in each. For the most part he spoke English and Ojibway, but when visiting the Six Nation Indians he spoke Mohawk.

Do Us a Favor

Come in and see "Heart Songs." Go over a few of the pages. Look for your favorite piece. It is there. Compare "Heart Songs" with any other song book you have ever seen. We know the result; you will not go away without a copy of the

Charlottetown Daily Guardian's Beautiful Big Song Book

"Heart Songs" is not a mere collection of words and music thrown together to make a song book, 20,000 people voted the songs in "Heart Songs" the songs of the American people. Four years were required to reach a verdict and the result is "Heart Songs," the song book of the American people. Many of these songs cannot be found in any other collection. They came in yellow, time-worn, tear-stained sheets—that had been sacredly treasured from childhood—some were written out from memory—others were given by titles only—or remembered verses involving a long search to obtain the whole. Of the thousands received it is safe to say that the general hundred finally selected—as having the largest number of votes and the highest endorsement—represent today the taste of the American people in its choice of music. We believe that the distribution of this unrivalled song collection will bring more happiness into the homes of our Readers; will do more to make them attractive to young and old; do more to inculcate a love for music; to soften, elevate and refine the home life; to cultivate the noble and higher virtues of the fireside—than any other means we could adopt.
