We've a Suit for your boy $6.50

This six-fifty suit that is referred to above is well worthy of a visit—and we're taking this means of inviting you to see the suits.

They are made of a good weight of tweed. The colors are brown—and a dark green effect. The coats are smartly tailored Norfolk—the knickerbockers are thoroughly well made, and have the "GOVERNOR" fastener at the knee—this is a feature that all boys want.

We bought a lot of this suit—got it right and we are able to sell it right. We regard it as a mighty good value at..... 6.50

ISLANDER IN ENGLAND.—In a private letter received yesterday from one of the Island boys in England, mention is made of a concert given by the St. Francis Xavier College Board, at Folkestone. In an interval between songs was given by Elzear Arsenault, of the A. M. C., son of Mr. J. O. Arsenault of this city, which was highly appreciated, and took the crowd by storm.

A WORD OF WARNING.—Police in the maritime provinces have been warned that a gang of sneak thieves of jewelry are operating in various cities and may come this way. They use the old trick of securing valuable stones while they are pointing to other objects, and ascertaining prices in many places they have substituted paste for real diamonds and their theft was not noticed for some days.—Exc

A FIRE ALARM.—The fire alarm sounded at three o'clock Friday afternoon for a fire on board the C. G. S. Stanley, which was lying at the government pier. The fire was in the bilger's apartments. It was put out by the men of the steamer before the town firemen arrived on the scene, says the Picton Advocate. It is understood that Mr. Frank Campbell, one of the crew, was so badly burned that it was necessary to take him to the hospital at Picton for treatment.

MARRIED IN HALIFAX.—There took place Thursday morning at the residence of the officiating clergyman, the Rev. Mr. Johnson, the marriage of Daisy Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kane, and Robert T. Gibson, of the firm of Gibson Bros., both bride and groom being of this city. The bride looked charming in a travelling suit of grey, worn with black velvet hat and ornate furs. Both bride and groom were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson left on a two month's wedding trip to Montreal, Toronto, New York and Buffalo. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial cheque and she also received a cheque from her father. The out-of-town guests were the Misses Elexis and Elsie Lowe, of Charlottetown, P. E. I.

McRAE-GORDON WEDDING.—A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Capt. and Mrs. Alfred Gordon, Rosneath, on the evening of September 27th, when their daughter, Alice Mae, was united in marriage to Daniel A. McRae, of Heatherdale. Promptly at eight o'clock to the strains of the wedding march sweetly rendered by Mrs. G. C. Henry, the bridal couple unattended entered the parlor where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. C. Henry, of the Christian Church, Montague. The bride was given away by her father, was beautifully attired in white silk crepe de chine with gorgeous crepe and lace trimmings and carried a magnificent bouquet of white roses. After the ceremony and when good wishes and congratulations had been extended by all, a sumptuous supper was served.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—An inquest was held at Murray Harbor on the 27th day of September, A. D. 1916 on the body of Gavin McClure, tailor, of Murray Harbor North, who died on board of the ferry boat that plys between Murray Harbor and Murray Harbor North, on Wednesday evening, the 27th day of September, A. D. 1916. The following persons were appointed jurymen: John Hecken, foreman; Benjamin Reynolds; James P. Clow; Thomas Clow; John McHerron; Hector Stewart; Harry Reid. After hearing the evidence of the four witnesses that were on the ferry boat at the time that deceased died they came to the conclusion that the deceased Gavin McClure, died of heart failure. When he fell off the boat into the water he never spoke one word or moved hand or foot, but lay on the water without sinking just like a piece of cork wood.
