REASON No 2

WHY YOU SHOULD USE

Red Rose Tea.

Because it is tested by skilled tea tasters.

Tea tasting can well be called one of the fine arts. A man who can taste several hundred cups of tea a day, and, by his keen senses, detect the slightest difference between them, and who, blindfolded, can tell where each and every tea was grown, not only the country, but the particular district, and often the very plantation—such a man is the professional tea taster.

The head man in my tea room, Mr. W. R. Miles, is a master in his profession. He learned the business in London, Eng., and is a tea taster by right of birth, as both his Father and Grandfather were tea tasters. It came natural to him and he is recognized as one of the best judges of tea in America.

He and his assistants do nothing but taste the teas, and superintend the blending.

RED ROSE TEA is the result.

The Lie of the Hair.

Habits of a given animal can be traced in the variations of the hair currents, which bear very distinct relations to its habits of life. The sloth, for example, which, as Sydney Smith remarked, spends its life, like a young curate distantly related to a bishop, in a state of suspense, has a uniform downward tendency of hair slope. Then the complicated movements of ruminants have resulted in a more complex series of meeting and opposing currents of hair.

In man himself the general practice of combing and tying up the hair has left its undoubted traces. It is not without interest to learn that out of a hundred persons thirteen part their hair on the right side, nine in the middle and seventy-eight on the left. As a consequence the infant, guiltless of partings, nevertheless shows indications of these three fashions in corresponding proportions.

Thought Negroes Immortal.

The simple minded natives of Hispaniola imagined that the negroes, who were imported in droves as slaves from western Africa by the companions or immediate followers of Columbus, were immortal. The black man was a novelty to these West Indian islanders, and their belief arose from the fact that the negroes were never seen to suffer from any natural infirmity, such as affected the white man and the islanders themselves. The American climate agreed with them better than their own unhealthy Guinea, and from their remarkable vigor and extraordinary longevity the Indians not unnaturally concluded that they were immortal. For a long time they saw or heard of none who died, except as criminals at the hands of Spanish executioners, and so they believed that the only way to put an end to a negro's life was to hang him.

Take No Risk With a Cold

FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS MAY PROVE FATAL. THERE IS CURE FOR YOU IN

Dr. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED and TURPENTINE.

If you could depend on a cold passing of, of its own accord it would be all very well to let it run its course.

The risk is too great.

Consumption and pneumonia always have their beginnings in a cold.

If you take prompt means of curing every cold you will never be a victim of these or other fatal lung troubles.

Did you ever wait to think of it that way?

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is best known on account of its extraordinary control over croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma and severe chest colds.

As a means of overcoming ordinary coughs and colds, throat irritation and the many diseases of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs it has made an enviable reputation for reliability.

Pleasant to take, thorough and far-reaching in action, and certain in its beneficial results, Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine should have a place in every house as a safeguard against consumption and other fatal lung diseases.

Mrs. A. A. Vanbuskirk, Robinson street Moncton N. B, states:—

"For years I have used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for my children whenever they take cold, I used it first with a severe form of asthma. We have never tried anything in the way of a cough medicine that worked so satisfactorily. It seemed to go right to the diseased parts and brought speedy relief."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase the famous receipt book author, are on very bottle.

Used to Kissing.

They were in a magnificantly decorated room. They approached each other from opposite directions. One of them was pale as a ghost, the other blushing red as a cherry.

Presently they met, and, careless of the fact that dozens of eyes were watching them, they kissed each other.

The meeting seemed to bring them perfect peace, but alas, alack! They had scarcely been side by side above twenty seconds when a man approached with the fire of battle in his eye. With cool insolence he raised the stick he carried, and then—oh, horror!—he struck a sharp, quick blow, and the pale one was sent spinning several feet away.

The other neither screamed nor fainted. There was no heartbreaking, no resentment, not even a murmur.

Billiard balls are used to that sort of thing!

SUBSTANTIAL DAMAGES.

MONTREAL, Jan 10.—Shortly before two o'clock this afternoon the special jury in the case of Mrs. F. H. Hackett against the Grand Trunk Railway company brought in a verdict for $13,000 damages for the death of Mrs. Hackett's husband, who was killed in the Richmond railway wreck last August. Mrs. Hackett sued for $20,000 damages on behalf of herself and two infant children.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON III, FIRST QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, JAN. 15.

Text of the Lesson, John 1, 35-51. Memory Verses, 40, 41 — Golden Text, John 1, 49—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1905, by American Press Association.]

This lesson begins with John's second cry, "Behold the Lamb of God!" the first in verse 29 suggesting that we must behold Him as the only One who can take away sin, and this one suggesting that, having taken away our sins, we are now to follow Him as in Rev. xiv, 4. This second "next day" would be a "third day," and in chapter ii, 1, and everywhere from Gen. i, 9-13, onward the "third day" speaks to those who have anointed ears and eyes of resurrection and glory and fruitfulness. John's testimony turned two of his disciples from himself to follow Jesus, but in this John rejoiced and said, "He must increase, but I must decrease" (chapter iii, 29, 30).

One of the two who followed Jesus was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother (verse 40). The other was no doubt John himself, the writer of this gospel, and, as truly as Andrew found Simon and brought him to Jesus, John must have found his brother James and brought him to Jesus, but it would not be like John to mention himself as the other of the two or that he brought James to Jesus. The question of Jesus to the two who followed Him, "What seek ye?" is a good one for every believer when gathered for public worship or in the private study of the Scriptures. Happy are those who can truly say: "I am seeking the Lord with my whole heart." "I am seeking first and always the kingdom of God and His righteousness" (Jer. xxix, 13; Matt. vi, 33).

According to John's way of counting time, the sixth hour meant 6 a. m. (John xix, 14), so that it must have been 10 a. m. when these men followed Jesus, and after some blessed hours in communion with Him they left Him to seek their brethren, being fully persuaded that He was the Christ, their Messiah, the latter word being the Hebrew and the former the Greek for "the anointed one." To behold Jesus as the Lamb of God taking away our sins, then to behold Him as the Lamb of God in the midst of the throne (Rev. v, 6), to abide with Him, to follow Him, to win others to Him, this is life indeed.

The day following Jesus found a new follower in Philip of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. He is ever seeking to win people to Himself, that He may take away their sins and give Himself and all His glory to them. Philip quickly found Nathanael of Cana (John xxi, 2), and so the first six were gathered. Both Matthew, Mark and Luke mention Philip and Bartholomew after Andrew and Peter, James and John in the choosing of the twelve, but they do not mention Nathanael whereas John, who mentions Nathanael, never mentions Bartholomew. It seems conclusive, therefore, that Nathanael and Bartholomew are the same person.

Nathanael's question when told by Philip that they had found Him of whom Moses and the prophets had written would indicate that Nazareth had anything but an enviable reputation, thus adding another feature to the humiliation of our Lord. Consenting to be made of a woman, a poor woman, too, born in a stable, brought up and spending thirty years in such a place as Nazareth, who can tell the depth of meaning in the words "Though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor?" (II Cor. viii, 9.)

Verse 47 reminds us of Ps. xxxii, 2, "Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity and in whose spirit there is no guile." Nathanael must have been somewhat like Simeon and Anna (Luke ii, 25, 37, 38) and was doubtless worshiping God under that fig tree of which our Lord spoke. There is great comfort to a devout heart in such a passage as Ps. cxxxix, 1-4, and in the opening words of each of the seven epistles in Revelation, "I know thy works." How ready Nathanael was to welcome the Messiah is seen in his quick testimony, "Rabbi, Thou art the Son of God; Thou art the King of Israel." According to chapter v, 17, 18, "Son of God" means "equal with God," and "the King of Israel" means just what it says and not "Saviour of sinners" or "head of the church" or anything else. Nathanael accepted Him as the Divine Messiah of Israel, David's son, yet David's Lord, to sit on David's throne and reign over the house of Jacob forever (Luke i, 32, 33; II Sam. vii, 12, 13, 16).

Our lesson closes with the first of the twenty-five double "verilys" of this gospel. It is literally "amen, amen," and points us to Him who speaks as "the amen, the faithful and true witness," in whom all the promises of God are yea and amen (Rev. iii, 14; II Cor. i, 20). Our Lord's words, "Hereafter ye shall see heaven open and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man," carry us back to Jacob's vision in Gen. xxviii and onward to its fulfillment in the kingdom of God, when heaven and earth shall be in perfect accord and the earth filled with the glory of the Lord, because the Son of Man shall have subdued all things unto Himself (Rev. xxi, 1-5; Num. xiv, 19-21; I Cor. xv, 24-26).

The last use of the words "heaven open" in Rev. xix, 11, points us on to this consummation, in which all true believers shall have a part. Let all such accept the words to Nathanael and on the authority of Jer. xxxiii, 3, ask and expect great and mighty things to the glory of God the Father.

One Million Dollars

Have Been Spent to Give Liquozone Free to the Sick.

When we purchased the rights to Liquozone, we decided to buy the first bottle and give it free to each sick one we learned of. We published the offer in nearly every newspaper in America, and 1,800,000 people have accepted it. In one year it has cost us over one million dollars to announce and fulfill the offer.

Don't you realize that a product must have wonderful merit to make such an offer possible? We have never asked a soul to buy Liquozone. We have published no testimonials, no physician's endorsement. We have simply asked the sick to try it—try it at our expense. And that is all we ask you, if you need it.

Kills Inside Germs.

Liquozone is not made by compounding drugs, nor is there alcohol in it. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time. This process has, for more than 20 years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research.

The result is a liquid that does what oxygen does. It is a nerve food and blood food—the most helpful thing in the world to you. Its effects are exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying. Yet it is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill. The reason is that germs are vegetables; and Liquozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetal matter.

There lies the great value of Liquozone. It is the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease. It is this fact that gives Liquozone its worth to humanity. And that worth is so great that, after testing the product for two years, through physicians and hospitals, we paid $100,000 for the American rights.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone attacks the germs, wherever they are. And when the germs which cause a disease are destroyed, the disease must end, and forever. That is inevitable.

The Berlin Robe & Clothing Co., Ltd.,
Berlin, Ont.:

Gentlemen,—I have been using your Arctic brand of imitation Buffalo Robes in my livery business for some time and can recommend them to the public as being the best robe on the market, being wind, moth and rain proof and will dry out quicker than any other robe I have in my stable. They are superior to the real furs in many ways, and would strongly advise intending purchasers to see the Arctic brand.

Yours respectfully,
