Dress up Your Circular Letters--

You would not think of sending a shabbily dressed, dirty-faced boy to your valued customers to act as your dignified representative. It is even more unbusiness like to address an ordinary printed circular letter bearing a message to your customers. Because it is a reflection on their better judgment. Every letter you send out should be either typewritten or printed by the Multigraph Process, and you can't tell one from the other. A letter produced by the Multigraph Printing Service is identical to typewriting in every respect. It is printed from moveable type, printed through a ribbon making the appearance and effect of the finished product the same. There is nothing more effective than a direct personal letter to your customers. This letter can be produced the Multigraph Way at a very nominal cost. You can have a hundred printed—or ten thousand, as you wish. The last copy will be as legible as the first. Can be printed in most any size or color. Let us tell you more about it. Guardian Pub. Co. FAREWELL PARTY.—The other evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Matheson was opened up to a party of young people who came with their baskets to surprise their daughter Miss Blanche Matheson on the eve of her departure for Taunton Mass., where she is to take a three years course training for a nurse. The evening was very pleasantly spent in games, vocal and instrumental music after which lunch was served. Miss Matheson was presented with a very nice address, and a well filled purse, for which she passed a few words of surprise and thanks. The presenters were: Miss Lillian Fraser, Miss May Sutherland, Miss Katie Docherty, Miss Florence McEachern, Mrs. Arthur Guild, Mrs. Oliver Docherty, Mrs. Robert Docherty and Mrs. George McEachern.

EASTERN PERSONALS

Miss Florrie Fisher spent the week end in Rollo Bay, the guest of Miss Peters.— Miss Adeline Peters, teacher, Rollo Bay, is confined to her home with an attack of Erysipelas.— Mr. Harry Acorn, of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Windsor, N. S., is spending a week's holidays at his home in Souris.— Mrs. (Dr.) McLean, Souris, was suddenly called away on Monday last to attend the funeral of her niece Irene McCormack who died in Dorchester, Mass. She was but seven years of age, and a bright attractive girl, a general favorite with all who knew her. Much sympathy is felt for her mother and the other little sister in their sore bereavement.—

POLICE COURT.—A case of drunkenness at the Police Court yesterday was dismissed.

ISLAND PHYSICIAN DEAD.—There passed away in Cambridge, Mass., recently Dr. Thos. E. Cunningham, a well-known Cambridge physician. He was born in Prince Edward Island, and went to Cambridge about 45 years ago.

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage of Miss Lilla May McQuarrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McQuarrie of Winsloe to Mr. Charles P. Yeo of Union took place at Grace Church, Parsonage, Wednesday, March the 28th. The bride was charmingly dressed in blue satin trimmed with pointed lace, while the bridegroom wore a tailored suit. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Taylor, City.

Mrs. Wm. Matheson of Oyster Bed Bridge has been visiting her old home in Cardigan. She accompanied her daughter as far as Georgetown as she is on her way to Taunton City Hospital, Taunton, Mass., where she is to take a three years course training for a nurse. Miss Susie travels in company with Miss Matheson of Cardigan.

RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY.—At the third meeting of the Official Board of the Granville Methodist Church, held at Granville on March 12th. A resolution was passed expressing sympathy with Mr. and Mrs. John McKay, Found's Mills, in the death of their son Everett John, who was a local preacher on this circuit, and was preparing to go to Mt. Allison Academy, Sackville, N. B., to study for the ministry when he was taken sick and died. Everett was a young man of much promise. He was an earnest Christian, and a fearless temperance worker, and his death at twenty-two years of age is a distinct loss.

MORAL AND SOCIAL REFORM.—Rev. Mr. Brown, of Murray Harbor who is on the Committee of Moral and Social Reform in the Methodist Church, addressed a meeting in the Methodist church, Souris, Monday evening, March the 26th. In his interesting and convincing manner he dealt in a general way with the social work of the church, designating that work as practical Christianity, but particularly with the drink evil. From the hard calculating economic standpoint, he proved beyond the shadow of a doubt, that even the moderate use of any intoxicant renders the man inefficient to an amazing degree. The greatest industrial forces and the largest business corporations in America are ally themselves on the side of total abstinence from a purely business standpoint, and when we get some conception of the direful effects on the spiritual nature of man every man will surely take a firm stand against this arch-enemy. We Canadians are proud of our patriotism, but unless the young men are very watchful against this foe of good government, the ambition immigrants crowding to our shores will one day be ruling Canada and the real Canadians will be "hewers of wood and drawers of water" for them. In conclusion the speaker made a strong appeal to his hearers to cooperate in every attempt to overthrow this accursed traffic on P. E. Island.—

Address and Presentation

The following address was presented to Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Leard, of North Bedque, prior to their removal to Craupud.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Leard:—Learning of your intended departure from our midst we a few of your friends and neighbors have come together this evening, to express our regret, and at the same time to show you the high place which you occupy in the regard of the people of this community.

On your coming to North Bedque a few years ago, you immediately took your place as one of our number and were always found connected with every movement making for the general welfare. The Church, the Red Cross Society and the different social gatherings will be the poorer because of your departure. As neighbors and friends, your unflinching courtesy and willingness to oblige have made you highly esteemed and we feel it but fitting that you should realize this.

Every new step which we take in this world brings us into new circumstances and away from old associates. One chapter in our experience came to a close. Another one begins immediately but it is never the same as the old. Your departure from here brings to a close one sage in our lives. We trust it has been a pleasant one and that happy memories may ever cluster around it.

With these sentiments we ask you to accept the accompanying gift, not for its intrinsic value but that it may serve as a memento of your stay amongst us. We sincerely hope that wherever your lot may be cast, it may be followed by an abundant measure of that happiness and prosperity which your ability and faithfulness deserve. Signed on behalf of the Community.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

French River, P. E. I. March 13, 1917 To Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McLeod and family. The Officers and members of The New London Literary Society wish to convey to you their heartfelt sympathy in your great bereavement caused by the death of your son Harold, who died faithfully serving his King and Country. By his death our Society has lost a valued member; one who was always ready to do his share in helping to make our Society a success. You have lost a kind, loving, and dutiful son, one who did not shirk his duty when his King and Country needed him, thus setting an example for us all. Our sympathy can afford you but little comfort but in the hour of your great sorrow remember. He is not dead this friend, not dead. In the path of mortals tread. Got some few trifling steps ahead. And nearer to the end. With sincere sympathy. Signed on behalf of New London Literary Society.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. JAMES BARRETT.

One of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Charlottetown passed to his eternal rest early yesterday morning in the person of Mr. James Barrett. He had attained the venerable age of ninety-five years, and by his death another link connecting the past with the present has been severed. The late Mr. Barrett for many years had conducted an extensive lumber business in this city and in all his business relations was noted for his integrity, uprightness and square dealing. He was an excellent citizen in every respect, and in his day and generation took a deep interest in the welfare of all that made for the betterment of Charlottetown and the province at large. For quite a long time the deceased, owing to advanced age, had been living in comparative retirement. There are few of his generation left today, but in the days that are gone Mr. Barrett was well known and highly respected here. Unto very few is given such long life, and he spent his time and did his part, as all will testify, in a most exemplary manner. There are left his widow and family to cherish his memory and mourn their loss. The late are: Mrs. H. J. Worth, Mrs. E. R. Brow, Mrs. James Paton and Miss Lena Barrett, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Nelles. To these the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

THE LATE ISAAC CANNING

The death took place at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Edward Melzac, of St. Ann's, on Feb. 27th of Isaac Canning aged 81 years. He ceased to be in Hope River and was thus, at the time of his death, was one of the oldest native inhabitants of that section of the province.

In early life he settled on a farm in Hope River, and being a man of good sound judgment he soon became one of the most successful farmers in that locality. About two years ago he retired from active life and with his wife, went to live with his daughter, Mrs. Edward Melzac.

In addition to his regular farm work he always took a deep interest in all matters relating to the public welfare, and his ideas in such matters were invariably given with fearlessness and sincerity.

During his last illness he was con- siderably afflicted with rheumatism, frequent visits from his beloved pastor, Father Gaudet, who ministered to him the last Sacraments of the Church.

His funeral took place at St. Ann's Church, Hope River on March 1st and was largely attended, many coming from a distance to pay their last tribute of respect to their departed friend.

A High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Pastor, Father Gaudet, who also performed the funeral service at the grave. The pall bearers were John Cullen, James R. Stewart, Wm. Pendergrast, J. Canada Simpson, Joseph McAleer and Jeremiah O'Connor.

He leaves a widow and one daughter, Mrs. Edward Melzac to mourn their loss. May he rest in peace.

THE MAN WHO WINS

Some men seem to have all the luck. If there are any good things going these men seem to get them. They make other people do their will—they are leaders. If they are business men they are successful; if they are workmen they get the foreman's job. They have the power of influencing people.

The same thing is true of women. Some have the charm that makes men seek them out; others are always neglected. But this is not luck. It is due to personal gift—vitality. Men and women of this sort are never weak, puny invalids. They may not be big, but they are full of life and energy. The whole thing is a matter of good blood, good nerves and good health. Everyone would wish to be like this—and the qualities that make for vitality and energy are purely a matter of health. By building up the blood and nerves sleeplessness, want of energy, weakness of the back, stooping shoulders, headaches and the intellectual sort of prostration which really comes from weakness can all be got rid of. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have made many weak, tired, nervous, and unhealthy, and many pale, dejected girls and women plump, rosy and attractive, by improving their blood and toning up their nerves. If you are weak, ailing, low-spirited or unhealthy, begin to cure yourself today by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can get these Pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

JUST THE THING FOR LITTLE ONES

Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine a mother can give her little ones. They regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach, banish constipation and indigestion, relieve colds and simple fevers and make feeding easy. Concerning them Mrs. Herbert Johnston, Maymont, Sask., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past four years and find them just the thing for babies and young children." They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
