THE MAN WHO FAILS.
 The man who fails is the sort of a chap Who is always looking around for a snap; Who neglects his work to regard the clock; Who never misses a chance to knock. He is grouchy and slow when work begins; When it's time to quit, he jokes and grins; He's always as busy as busy can be, When he thinks the boss is around to see.

And he sulks and growls when he sees his plan Upset by the "push of another man." He's on the job when he draws his pay; That done, he soldiers his time away; While the men who tackle their jobs with vim Keep pushing and climbing ahead of him.

For the man who fails has himself to blame, If he wastes his chances and misses his aim; He'd win, if he'd use his hands and wits; The man who fails is the man who quits.

—Charles R. Barrett.

Rheumatism Crippled Arms

So stiffened up by rheumatism that he could not dress himself without help was the condition of Mr. Clarke, who tells in this letter how he was entirely cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The kidneys must be got right before rheumatism can be really cured, and hence the success of this great medicine.

Mr. James Clarke, Maidstone, Sask., writes:—"I can honestly say that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have done me a world of good, and cured me of rheumatism. For two years I suffered from rheumatism in the shoulders, and could not raise my arms above the head. I could not dress or undress myself without help, and was obliged to hire help to do my work. No medicines that I could find did me any good.

"A friend wrote from England and begged me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. This treatment soon brought relief, and in six months I, 60 years of age, and can do a day's work as entirely free of rheumatism. That was four years ago. I am now

CONCERT AT CAPE WOLFE

The members of Star of Hope Division celebrated the 27th birthday of their division by holding a concert and social in the hall at Cape Wolfe on the 28th ult. The abundant fall of snow prevented the hall being comfortably crowded. Instrumental music, organ and violin, by A. and J. Dalton, whose musical fame is more than local greeted each delighted arrival. The audience expressed no regret that the chairman waived the pleasure of his hour and a half speech. If repeated spontaneous applause, continuous attention and laughter are evidences of amusement and pleasure the entertainment was an appreciated success. The succeeding parts were—Chorus by choir; Star of Hope; recitation (by Orville) Brooks; dialogue, In want of a servant, J. L. McEachern, Miss Pearl Cook, Miss Ella Rix, Miss I. McEachern, Miss J. T. McEachern, Miss Ella Hogwood, Miss Louisa Fish; monologue, Washing dishes, Miss Jessie McEachern; dialogue Terry O'Toole and his master, Russel Fish and Everett Collicutt; Chorus, Sleigh ride song; recitation by Percy Pisk; dialogue, Ghost of Crooked Lane, Percy Risc, Lloyd Crossman, J. L. McEachern, I. G. McEachern, J. F. McEachern; Trio Fearless and True, Miss L. P. Wortman and others; recitation by Vance McEachern; music by A. and J. Dalton (encore); dialogue, A robber under the bed, Hester Lidstone, Claude Hogwood, P. E. McEachern; recitation by Pearl Cook; dialogue, Why he didn't like the country, by O. and W. Brooks; God Save The King. The financial result from sale of pies and admission fee amounted to $35. The good order was subject of favourable comment by chairman and others, with serious and humorous explanations.

MUSIC TAUGHT FREE

Home Instruction Special Offer to Our Readers

In order to advertise and introduce their home study music lessons in every locality the International Institute of Music of New York will give free to our readers a complete course of instruction for either Piano, Organ, Violin, Mandolin, Guitar, Cornet, Banjo, Cello or Eight Stringing. In return they simply ask that you recommend their Institute to your friends after you learn to play.

You may not know one note from another: yet by their wonderfully simple and thorough method, you can soon learn to play. If you are an advanced player you will receive special instruction.

The lessons are sent weekly. They are so simple and easy that they are recommended to any person or little child who can read English. Photographs and drawings make everything plain. Under the Institute's free tuition offer you will be asked to pay only a very small amount (averaging 14 cents a week) to cover postage and the necessary sheet music.

No one should overlook this wonderful offer. Tell your friends about it—show this article to them.

The International Institute has successfully taught others and can successfully teach you, even if you know absolutely nothing whatever about music. The lessons make everything clear.

Write today for the free booklet, which explains everything. It will convince you and cost you nothing. Address your letter or postal card to International Institute of Music, 98 Fifth Ave., Dept. 485 M, New York, N. Y.
