D., Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada He is the youngest minister to have been elected to the Moderator's chair since 1925. The Moderator is recognized as an able and energetic leader. Since 1936 he has been the minister of MacVicar Memorial Church, Outremont, Montreal. In March of this year his church was burned to the ground, just after the structure had been renovated at a cost of $40.000 and on the eve of the congregation's celebration of its jubilee. Already plans are going ahead for the erection of a new structure at an estimated cost of $350.000. Prior to going to Montreal the Moderator was for over six years minister of St. James Church, Truro, and he is, therefore well known in the Maritime Synod of the church. The Moderator has just returned from Europe where, as representative of his Church, he attended the 16th General Council of the Pan-Presbyterian Alliance of the Reformed Churches in Geneva, Switzerland, the first meeting of the World Council of Churches at Amsterdam, Holland, and the Christian Endeavor World Conference at Bournemouth, England. While in the old land he was the guest preacher in several of the best known Scottish pulpits. It is expected that there will be a large congregation to greet this distinguished young church leader, and to hear the challenging message he will bring relating to the work of the ecumenical Church in general and to the work of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in particular.—S.

Judgment Given In Damage Case

—The case of Laurence Fitzgerald, plaintiff, vs. Clayton Day and Carroll Delaney, defendants, was concluded Friday afternoon in Summerside before Judge L. G. Lewis after a hearing lasting three and one half days. This case was the outcome of an accident in which two trucks were involved at the junction of the McNeill Mills road with the Barlow Road on the fifteenth day of November 1947. The amount sued for was $432.41. This the Judge reduced to $339.70.

A verdict with costs was entered in favor of the defendant Carroll Delaney. The Judge found both Laurence Fitzgerald, the plaintiff, and Clayton Day, the defendant, guilty of negligence to the extent of 50% each and assessed the damages against Clayton Day of $169.85 and costs.

Remembrance Day Ceremonies At Miscouche

Speaking at the Remembrance Day ceremonies held at Miscouche Church on Thursday afternoon, Major J. S. DesRoches, E.D., reminded those present that the ceremonies of this day are not displays of military strength or war mongering. These ceremonies were primarily intended, he said, to bring to mind the nobler virtues—valor and patriotism—of those who gave their lives for freedom. Speaking in particular to the children congregated there, Major DesRoches suggested to them that it would be a fine thing if, in their everyday lives, they would strive to emulate the characteristics of those fallen heroes and that they had within their grasp the opportunity to do this under the guidance of the Sisters of the Convent, who were entrusted with the task of moulding the characters of the children under their care.

Rev. J. D. Kelly was the chairman of the meeting and extended a welcome to those present and in particular to the visiting members of the Legion.

The following is the programme which was carried out:

March, played by June Gallant.
Remarks by chairman, Rev. J. D. Kelly.
Chorus, "The Flag We Love."
Flag salute by the school children.
Prayer for peace, Matilda Arsenault, Grade ten.
Chorus, "Song of Peace".
Remembrance, Zelma Perry, Grade ten.
Remarks, J. S. DesRoches, E.D.
Chorus, "Our Country."
Last Post, Reggie Gaudet.
Two minutes silence.
"They Shall Not Grow Old", Albert Kincaid.
Placing wreaths.

A vote of thanks was moved by Dorothy Hammill, seconded by Gerald Steele and supported by Teresa Martin. The ceremonies closed with a military march, played by Edward LeClair, and the singing of The King.

The chairman in charge of arrangements for the ceremonies was Mr. P. C. Martin and much credit is due him for the successful manner in which all details were attended to and carried out.—S.

"WILD BILL HICKOX RIDES" AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

—In "Wild Bill Hickok Rides," Bruce Cabot enacts the title role as the two-fisted, rough-riding marshal of law and order whose name has long been synonomous with the early growth and development of America's wild west frontier. Depicting the struggle encountered by Hickok when he arrives in a small, rough-hewn western town to combat the powers of evil headed by local bad man Farrel (Warren William), the film also presents Constance Bennett as a gambling-house proprietor from the "East" (Chicago).

Directed by Ray Enright from an original screenplay by Charles Grayson, Paul Gerard Smith and Raymond Schrock, "Wild Bill Hickok Rides" also features a large supporting cast that includes Betty Brewer and Walter Catlett and many others.

98 Per Cent Of Taxes Collected At Summerside

Ninety eight per cent of the taxes of the town of Summerside have been paid, it was reported at the regular monthly Council meeting last evening by Councillor H. B. Schurman. Councillor Henry Wedge, who presided in the absence of Mayor J. F. Arnett, who is out of town, said that this was most commendable and the officials responsible should be congratulated. He said that at the end of last year 98.5 per cent of the taxes were paid and it looks as if that record will be beaten this year.

Councillors W. E. Smallman and T. D. Morrison were not present at the meeting.

A motion was passed permitting the I. O. D. E. to hold a tag day on November 26 and 27.

The meeting was very brief, only routine reports being submitted. —S
