

GAINED 20 POUNDS.

Mr. E. S. Massey, Belleville, Ont., tells how Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills increased his Weight and Restored his Health and Strength.

When you find yourself losing in weight, feel weak and miserable, you're in a serious condition. It's time for you to start taking some remedy that will restore your lost flesh, tone your nerves and give you back your old time health and vigor. Nothing will do this so quickly and effectually as Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Read the following statement made by Mr. E. S. Massey, foreman at Capt. Allen's Coal and Wood Yard, Belleville, Ont.:

"For 10 years I suffered greatly from nervous prostration and was greatly run down and debilitated. In addition to this, severe headaches annoyed me greatly. My heart would throb, my nerves seemed completely unstrung, and I gradually lost flesh as a consequence. All I could do in the way of doctoring and using patent medicines seemed to do me no good. Finally I got Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I have used two boxes, and am now better than I have been in a long time. I have gained 20 pounds in weight, and am now strong and healthy."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure Palpitation, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Dizzy Spells, etc. Price, 50c. a box, or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists.

James Clark, Comandant, Ont., says: "Some time ago I was greatly troubled with headache and constipation. One bottle of Laxa-Liver Pills helped me more than any medicine I ever took."

SANTA CLAUS' PROCLAMATION

Know all men and an equal number of women and children that I, Santa Claus, the only real and original bona fide Santa Claus, do make this proclamation:

From this time forth let no man say that he alone is vendor of my wares or holds monopoly in the distribution of my favors. Time was when business might be done that way. 'Tis different now. This proclamation, authentic, emphatic, unsolicited, is made in the interest of truth and justice. Alleged interviews and bogus telegrams mislead to the impression that my Christmas work is but a little matter. Such, indeed, is not the case. A dozen places now can scarcely do the work.

MOVING WITH THE BUSINESS.

Trade is moving—ever moving. A quarter of a century ago I found the active business men away down Queen Street. Baldwin sold the hardware, W. R. Watson the drugs, Bremners did the printing and Harvie made the almanacs. A sure, though gradual, moving brought the business centre up—first south side, then west end, now Sunnyside. Aye! Sunnyside, that's my name, my disposition; and that's the spot—Sunnyside; corner to corner, Hughes' to Crabbe's—Sunnyside. I love the word. It cheers and charms—Sunnyside.

A LOVELY SPOT.

It is an ideal spot for work like mine, since every phase of trade is represented here,—druggists, jewelers, grocers, confectioners, dry goods, photographer, china book and printing, and furniture store; each of which I've stocked in rich profusion with everything in their particular line, and lots of specialties not just in line. With Hughes I've left choice pipes, tobacco and cigars. A B McKenzie & Co, have everything for clothing man or woman in tip top style. Wellner's immense display of jewelry and silverware will make you wish that Christmas would last all the year. Stewart & Gates have all the staple and dainty delicacies for the table. Hutchison the fruit and candy—thousands of tons of which I use each year. No stocking is complete without it. Lewis the photographer has china and fancy goods galore, equal in quality, to his photos. Reddin, "the central drug store, has dainty atomizers and perfumes, with a rich array of fancy goods. Colwill's spacious store is packed with everything that's pretty in either china, glass or crockery-ware. Johnson & Johnson "The Druggists" have exquisite perfumes and atomizers, and photograph supplies; and if your health is not first-rate their Everybody's Pills will fix you up. Jury & Co. have trumpets, toys and fancy goods in grand display. Ramsay can dress a man from top to toe, with special care in shoes and ties. Perkins' variety is just immense; but then in millinery they lead. If what I left with them don't suit, Miss Mutch will make it right for you. Haszard & Moore have high class leather goods, toys, dolls and fancy stationery. Somewhere along the row you will surely find just what you want. If not, Mark Wright & Co. have a factory similar to my own. They'll make it for you.

IMMENSE PRESS OF WORK.

One man to do the distributing? Well I should smile. Why I'd never get round in the old way. I've had to discard the old picturesque reindeers (eight in hand) and construct an electro andoline automobile van, and an automatic chimney elevator, that runs down with a swish and up with a bang. But talk of machines—you should see my latest. It's a patent elliptical, high-aff and buffum double compounded stocking-filler and presser. Oh but it's a dandy, guaranteed to fill seventeen stockings in ten seconds; works like Dr. Ayer's tooth plugger; or Attorney Stewart's tongue when defending a client. As a marvel of mechanism nothing in the city approaches it except the electrical pen of the Sunnyside Sanctum.
