EVANGELISTIC SERVICE IN CHRISTIAN CHURCH

At the Central Christian Church last evening Evangelist Lowell C. McPherson spoke on the subject, "True Repentance," taking Luke xiii. 5 for a text: "Except ye repent ye shall perish." In part, Mr McPherson said: "Two Greek words are translated into our English word 'repentance.' One of these means only a change of mind without moral change. The other means both a change of mind and heart. God repented, but only in place of His people. Sinners must repent by changing both mind and heart towards God. The prodigal son's change finally exemplifies true repentance. He came to himself, realising his black sins of selfishness, and resolved there and then to go back to his father and acknowledge all to him in heaven's sight. See how he was taken back. Thus the Christ teaches that our Heavenly Father will receive the penitent sinner. This son, on account of his wilfulness, came not to believe much in his father, and therefore asked for his inheritance to use without restraint, according with his perverted, individual nature. He soon lost all. Stripped of support he began to believe again in his god father and to appreciate his father's loving provision for him. He determined—repented in sorrow—to return, confess his sins to his father and be obedient. What a humble boy he became! How obedient! So everyone must return to God. "One's belief in God and His Son whom one has ignored and abandoned before is sure to bring such Godly sorrow on pierced the hearts of the 3,000 on Pentecost. Then repentance will follow and willingness to obey in order to receive the indwelling Spirit, as Peter told the 3,000. God has vowed to forgive sins on such conditions. The Holy Spirit tells us so. God thus promises never to remember those sins against us. But after becoming Christians we must frequently repent of weaknesses and wrongs in our nature, or lapse into sin. We can more and more grow away from them by prayer. "The eternal imperative within us—conscience—tells us there is right and there is wrong, and that we should always do right. One's conscience judges one's thoughts, words and deeds without invitation. Self-condemnation follows transgression and God intends that we should ever be absolutely honest in heart. So true repentance always brings confession. Have you courage to confess the wrong to your neighbour done to him? Unconfessed sin is poisonous to the soul." This evening Mr McPherson expects to speak on the subject, "The Great People of Charlottetown." The pastor, Mr Whitehead, will be found in his office at the church every morning from 9 to 11 a.m.

self at the services of King and country. I trust that at the close of our college year circumstances will permit a goodly number of us to take the same steps you have taken. Your work in the Y.M.C.A speaks for itself. In all things you have shown yourself to be the kind of man that any country would be proud to own as one of her competent soldiers. On behalf of my fellow-students and our good friend, Mr Cross, I present you this gift as a token of esteem in which we hold you. You have made friends among us who will never forget you, and as you leave our shores you will be followed with our prayers that God will be ever near you, and that in him you will always look for guidance.

Mr Donald was the recipient of an address last night. At the home of Mrs Tapir, Queen Street, a party was given in his honour. On behalf of Fred's many friends, Mr Claude Holman presented him with a beautiful Masonic ring, and the following address:

Dear Fred,—Soon you are leaving your home, having nobly responded to the call of your King and country, and will shortly join your brave comrades, the soldiers of the King at the front. You may rest assured that we, your sincere friends, while looking on your departure with warmest admiration, will feel your absence from our midst with keen regret. You will carry with you our most heartfelt prayers for your safety, together with our earnest wishes for a speedy and triumphant return home. As a slight token of our esteem and affection, also as a pledge of our continued remembrance of our friend, we ask you to accept this Masonic ring. God speed you, friend and companion, and bring you back safe and sound to all who love you.—"The Bunch."

GENERAL'S WIFE IN FURIOUS WRATH.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—There is a terrible stir in army circles at Dunkirk. The wife of a French general was arrested because she had big feet, it has been learned, and, furious at the publicity which resulted, accompanied by the heralding of facts concerning the size of her feet, she has been made uncomfortable for more than one officer. This is how it happened. A German spy was recently captured in Dunkirk. He was dressed as a woman but the size of his feet betrayed him and he was captured. The wife of the French general sallied forth and her feet attracted the attention of a soldier, and she was arrested.

HAD SAME COUGH FOR SEVERAL YEARS

Woman Fifty Years Old—Coughed More or Less Since Childhood—Found No Relief Until She Got Vinol.

Dayton, Ohio.—"I want everybody to know what Vinol has done for me. I am now fifty years old and ever since I was a young girl I have had a cough most of the time, and sick headaches which left me weak and with no desire for food.

"I took all kinds of medicines but nothing seemed to do me any good. Finally my druggist asked me to try Vinol, saying that if it did not help me he would refund my money. I felt so much better after taking one bottle I bought more. Now my cough is entirely cured. I have no more sick headaches. I have a good appetite and feel better than I ever did in my life, and I cannot recommend Vinol too highly."—Mrs. J. C. SCHNEIDER, Dayton, Ohio.

Vinol is not a secret nostrum, simply a combination of the medicinal elements found in cod livers, together with tonic iron, contains no oil and is delicious tasting. We ask every man or woman in this vicinity suffering from chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis, and every weak, run-down person to try Vinol. E. A. FOSTER, druggist, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

CANADA'S FORCE 95,700 MEN UNDER ARMS

OTTAWA, Dec. 2.—The Government are advised by the Imperial authorities that the Army Council have reason to believe that there are several ex-officers of the regular army or the territorial forces residing in Canada between the ages of 25 and 40 who have not joined the Canadian expeditionary force, but who would rejoin their old corps. The Army Council are prepared to offer temporary commissions for the duration of the war to such persons if they are certified medically fit. It is also stated that free passages will be provided to and from England and an allowance of £30 will be made for provision of uniform and £7 10s. for camp kit. It is expected that in the organization of the second Canadian contingent places will be found for officers who accompanied the first contingent to England in excess of the number required. General Sam Hughes had cabled General Alderson, commanding the Canadians, that if there is an overplus of efficient officers they can return to Canada and join the new force now being raised.

A statement was issued by Major General Sam Hughes this evening containing additional details in regard to the enlistment of 50,000 men in Canada to undergo training for active service at the front. According to the Minister of Militia, 95,000 men will have been enlisted for the front in the Dominion in a few weeks, this including the force already in England. Details show that this force will be made up as follows:—

AROUND THE FOX RANCHES

Mr. R. A. Shaw, of Boston, Mass., Secretary-Treasurer of the Bay State Fur Farms, Ltd., whose ranch is situated on the Mount Edward Road, returned to Boston last week after spending several days in Charlottetown and vicinity, investigating the fox industry and inspecting the new ranch of the above company. This was Mr. Shaw's first visit to P. E. Island and he was very much impressed with its beautiful farms and healthful climate. He has firm faith in the future of the fox industry and, while here, witnessed the delivery of a number of beautiful silver black beauties by Mr. R. Hudson Gordon, who spent several days with Mr. Shaw.

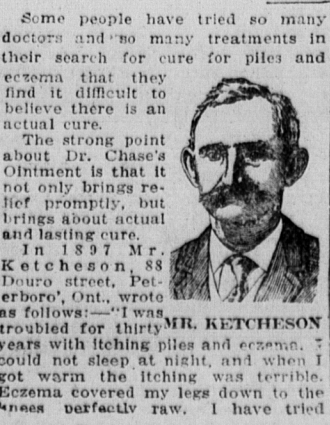

Some people have tried so many doctors and so many treatments in their search for cure for piles and eczema that they find it difficult to believe there is an actual cure.

The strong point about Dr. Chase's Ointment is that it not only brings relief promptly, but brings about actual and lasting cure. In 1897 Mr. Ketcheson, 88 Duro street, Peterboro, Ont., wrote as follows:—"I was troubled for thirty years with itching piles and eczema. I could not sleep at night, and when I got warm the itching was terrible. Eczema covered my legs down to the knees perfectly raw. I have tried every preparation I could hear of. Seeing Dr. Chase's Ointment advertised, I procured a box, and this Ointment effected a complete cure." On Sept. 23, 1912, Mr. Ketcheson wrote as follows:—"I received a letter from you to-day, saying that you found on file a statement made by me 15 years ago. I have always given Dr. Chase's Ointment a good name since it cured me, and shall tell you how I came to use it. "I had suffered for many years from eczema and piles, and had tried doctors and everything I could hear of in vain. Reading about Dr. Chase's Ointment, I purchased it at once, and was soon completely cured. That was fifteen years ago, so there can be no doubt of the cure being a permanent one. I have met a great many people who have been cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment." Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

The following officers were elected: President—Hon. John Morrissey; Vice-President—James Landrigan; Secretary—James William Moran; Directors, Patrick Hennessey; Dr. P. F. Duffy; Wm. N. Walsh; Dr. W. J. McMillan; Sixtus McLellan; Harry C. Connolly; P. W. Clarkin; J. A. Trainor.
