In order to furnish its readers with as much as at all possible of the news of the world in future, The Guardian will but publish the fact that letters of condolence have been forwarded and state the names of the persons sending and receiving as well as the occasion calling for same as is being done with others; furthermore to publish short obituary notices of 150 to 200 words or less dealing with historical facts of interest to readers in general.

Professor A. K. Kirkpatrick of the School of Mining, Queen's University, Kingston, who has been appointed to report on the Car Ferry, arrived in Moncton on Monday, March 25 and thence proceeded to Riverview and Buctouche to investigate the ice conditions and harbor facilities at those places with a view to determining the most suitable route. He will then investigate the claims of all the other possible proposed routes. Prof. Kirkpatrick is expected to arrive in Charlottetown on Monday next.

On Monday evening last the friends of Mrs. M. D. McDougall, Kingston, Lot 31, gathered at her home to bid farewell and wish many happy years in her new home at the capital. The friends numbered about twenty-five and they were a big surprise on their hostess. On behalf of the party Miss Edna Auld read a splendidly worded address and presented Mr. McDougall with a nice gift which she asked her to accept as a small token of the high esteem in which she was held among her friends and the community. Mrs. McDougall thanked them all for the kind words and remembrance. The evening was spent in music, songs and games of different character, and after a luncheon was served the guests departed. Mrs. McDougall has sold her property to George Green, and will move to Charlottetown during the first part of April.

One week from today will be "Tag Day" in aid of the P. E. Island Hospital.

Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown, closed for the Easter Holidays yesterday.

H. D. McEwen, Morell, was among those returning on the eastern train yesterday.

Wm. and Mrs. Teed, Kent St, Charlottetown, wish to thank the many friends for kindness and sympathy shown during their recent sad bereavement, in the death of their son Ernest.

George J. Rogers, President of The Rogers Hardware Co., Ltd., Charlottetown, leaves this morning on a business trip to New York and Montreal. He will be away a couple of weeks, visiting the leading manufacturing concerns and retail establishments in both cities.

The wrecked steamer Bonavista, owned by the Dominion Coal Company was sold at Halifax last Saturday for $610. The purchaser was Charles Brister and son. The remains of the steamer still lies at Ploverton where she went ashore.—Sydney Exc.

A meeting of the Sunday School Teachers' Institute was held at the Church of England Institute, J. E. Parker presided and Rev. S. J. Woodroffe gave an interesting address on "The Use and Abuse of the Sunday School." At the next meeting (May 6th) "The Bible Class will be the subject, R. Eccles treating of "Its Relation to the School", and Rural Dean Cunningham "Its Course of Lessons."—Halifax Exc. (Rev. Mr. Woodroffe was formerly rector of St. Paul's Church, Charlottetown.)

In Jubilee Methodist Church yesterday evening, Rev. W. W. Brewer, St. John, delivered a lecture on "The Sunny Side of Life." Those who had had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Brewer preach on the Sunday previous, expected a treat in this lecture, and they were not disappointed. The subject itself is a most interesting one, and Mr. Brewer handled it in a manner so entertaining as to diffuse copiously the cheering sunshine of heart and mind of which he spoke.—Sydney Exc. (Rev. Mr. Brewer is well known in Charlottetown.)

As an indication of the commercial value of black foxes below will be sufficient to speak for itself.—"It is understood that the Europa Fox Company of Bradalbane has purchased a pair of the genuine black beauties from that well known pioneer rancher, B. T. Raynor of Atholton, P.E.I., and if everything turns out as anticipated will net the seller a great deal larger sum than anything that has taken place as yet, still when the quality of the breeding is taken into consideration the price seems reasonable. The above company are endeavoring to procure the very best stock available and will be looked upon in the future as having nothing but the very best blood."
