OFFICIAL OPENING OF CURLING RINK TONIGHT

Mayor Foster To Curl First Rock Marking New Chapter In Island Curling History

Prince Edward Island curling history which dates back to 1887 will open a brand new chapter tonight at 7 o'clock when Charlottetown's new curling rink will be opened officially.

The new premises of the Charlottetown Curling Club features a club house containing a banquet hall, kitchen, card rooms, and a glassed-in promenade overlooking the rink.

W. W. Lord is president of the organization and J. H. Howatt is vice-president. Secretary and treasurer are R. K. Bell and C. M. Williams.

Intermediate Abbies Play Hornets Tonight

The Intermediate Abbeys will face their first real test of the season tonight when they cross sticks with the powerful Milton Hornets right in the Hornet's own back yard.

The smart Hornet team that the locals are playing tonight dropped the powerful Montague Princesses one game in the Island playoffs last year and they did it the hard way too playing Montague in their own rink.

The game should be a thriller and fans who sit in on the encounter should see a thriller.

On The Eastern Sport-Front

Montague Hockey Club has held several practices so far this season and judging from the style of play, the club is looking for a good season.

This year's roster of the Montague Hockey Club will consist of the following players with the probable addition of one or two others.

Last year's players who have not shown up this season are Waterworth, McCaaron and Grant.

The oldest player in years of service with the club is Lowell Poole.

The defence of McDonald, Rodd and Fraser will make it a tough job for opponents forwards of opposing teams.

Ronnie McDonald, a coming young player, is a brother to Allan Macdonald who formerly played with Montague.

Georgetown rink opened its doors on New Year's Night to a large and enthusiastic crowd of skaters.

Murray Harbor Silver Wings will be handicapped this season by the loss of several valuable players.

Cape Bear Stars will lose the services of Howard Jackson and George McNeill who have also joined the navy.

Murray River Tigers one of the fittest teams in the league will be stronger than ever this season.

Plans to bring a Scottish team to Canada next summer are at a meeting over the weekend between R. Paul, Scottish Tennis Association official, and R. N. Wall, President of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association.

Hawks Blank Leafs 1-0 In Rough Game

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—In a wild and woolly game which saw 17 players sent to the penalty box and a penalty shot awarded, Chicago's Black Hawks scored a 1-0 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs tonight to go into fourth place in the National Hockey League standings.

A goal by a former Leaf, Bill Thoms, which came from some 14 minutes of play in the opening stanza decided the issue.

Play was fast and rough throughout, with several brief fights breaking out. Three penalties were handed out in the opening period and seven in the second.

The first curling club in the province—Charlottetown Curling Club—was organized Feb. 3, 1891, with the object to "promote the game of curling, according to the first record book."

Executive of the first curling club in the province was as follows: Patron, Lieut.-Gov. A. A. MacDonald; president, George MacLeod; vice-president, John J. Davies; chaplain, Rev. J. Caruthers; secretary-treasurer, A. A. Bartlett; committee of management, D. A. MacKinnon and W. A. Weeks.

In 1887 a committee consisting of George MacLeod, J. J. Davies and Rev. J. Caruthers, was appointed to draft the Charlottetown Club rules and regulations.

In December of the same year members of the club curled their first stones indoors on the old Excelsior Skating Rink.

Curling was given a trial in 1911 on harbor ice, but with little satisfaction. The game shifted to ponds for a time and curling was in the doldrums.

From 1911 to 1918 the game at that time were D. A. MacKinnon, C. H. Black, W. K. Rogers, A. E. Stewart, H. M. Davis, Dr. S. W. Frasier, J. M. Hunter, R. E. Mutch, James Palmer, E. R. Brown, J. A. Robertson, L. C. Leigh, T. C. James, Dr. T. P. Fullerton, F. H. Beer, Dr. V. L. Goodwill and J. Paton.

Rangers Close In On Bruins Defeating Americans 5-2; Canucks And Wings Draw

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(CP)—A four-goal scoring burst in the last period sent Rangers on to a 5-2 victory over Americans, their New York City National Hockey League rivals, tonight and drew them up three points above the leading Boston Bruins.

A crowd of 16,000 watched Lester Patrick's blue shirts hammer down the Americans' defence in the third period and score four goals after the count had been tied at 1-1 since the first frame.

Hooley Smith was serving a tripping penalty when the Rangers opened their decisive scoring barrage, and Al Shibicky, George Allen, Clint Smith and Bryan Hextall all found holes in Earl Robertson's goal-defending armor.

Dutch Hillier had opened the count in the first period, but Art Jackson soon tied it up for the Americans and the teams remained deadlocked through the second period.

The attendance was 13,500. Lineups: Toronto: Goal, Broda; defence, Hamilton, McDonald; forwards, Apps, Drillon, Davidson; subs, Hornes, Kampanan, Metz, Chamberlain, Parsons, Romnes, Kelly, Jackson.

Rangers And Royals To Play Return Game

Charlottetown Royals smarting under the 9-4 set-back received from the Montreal Royals Friday, will meet the youngsters in a return exhibition hockey game tomorrow night, it was learned.

The Rangers, who made a creditable showing against the efficient Saint John Beavers in a home-and-home series before Christmas, were dazzled by the fast-skating teen-aged squad Friday and found themselves outplayed in every department of the game.

Coached by canny Walter Lawlor, who has piloted a Berwick team to a Nova Scotia title, the Royals have been riding roughshod over all Island opposition this year. Among the scaps in their warbag are those of the St. Dunstan's University outfit and the Intermediate Abbeys.

The Toronto Maple Leafs administered a 2-0 beating last night to the National Hockey League leaders, Boston Bruins, matching them stride for stride and showing something extra.

Hennessey & Claybourne To Fight Monday

Tiger Joe Hennessey and Tim Claybourne will meet in a 10-round bout Monday night, January 16 it was announced last night.

Hennessey with an impressive string of victories to his credit is fast making a name for himself in the hempen square hereabouts. His last victory was over the veteran Bennie Binns.

Claybourne is also well-known in Island boxing circles and has always given a good account of himself in the ring. It will be the second meeting between these two boxers their first engagement being a draw bout.

Both fighters may be expected to start the new year aright and an exciting encounter should result.

Additional features on the card were not known last night but a semi-final and several preliminaries were expected to be arranged.

AMHERST, N. S., Jan. 6.—(CP)—The central section of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association will open tomorrow night with Amherst Ramblers journeying to Oxford, N. S., and Moncton playing in Sackville.

Amherst will entertain Sackville on Tuesday and the New Brunswick wickers will have Doug McQuisen, former Montreal star, on their line-up. President J. P. MacDonnell has released the league schedule, which concludes in mid-February.
