The home of Charles and Mrs. Jordan, White Sands, was saddened when so suddenly bereft of a loving child. Elmer was an exceptionally bright little boy, the treasure of his little sister and the joy of fond parents. Being delicate from infancy, he was tenderly nurtured and his hopes were entertained, that with years would return the bloom of health; but alas! fond hopes were dashed and the flower that brightened the home for a little while was taken to bloom in a fairer world.

And Oh! thy loving cradle care,
Was such a dear delight,
Thy prattle sweet, thy smile was fair,
Thy lips and eye so bright.

The Superintendent of the Methodist work in Hawaii, for the past year has been Rev. John W. Wadman (a Prince Edward Islander). The activities are divided between the English speaking, Japanese and Korean populations. In the autumn of 1904 a revival spirit broke out, which has continued ever since. Superintendent J. W. Wadman, co-operated with intelligence and energy and there are now in the Islands no less than ten organized churches, six fine buildings (two of which were the gifts of the sugar planters) and ten salaried workers with a membership of 1,500 to which additions are being constantly made.

THE temperance element of Harcourt N. B. is stronger than ever. Through the united efforts of Rev. Father Legve, parish priest, and Rev. R. H. VICTORIA DIVISION had another very enjoyable meeting last evening. FROM High Bank The Guardian's Correspondent writes: The members of High Bank Lodge No. 102, I. O. G. T., spent a very pleasant and profitable evening on April 7th. A number of visitors were present from the surrounding lodges. After initiation, etc., the following program was given:—Singing by the choir; speech and recitation, Geo. H. Moore; singing, reading, Ed. J. Jordan; speech, reading, Caleb Jordan; instrumental music, violin and autoharp, Jordan brothers and J. W. Haylor; recitation, George Moore; recitation, Katie Glover; instrumental music; Miss Lucy Senecaugh presided at the organ. After the program, cake, fruits, etc., were served by the ladies and the needs of the physical man bountifully supplied. It is the intention of the lodge to hold another public meeting in the near future. The lodges of the I. O. G. T. are flourishing in these sections and temperance is becoming stronger. It is hoped that at the coming election, every intelligent, God fearing man will vote for the repeal of "Canada Temperance Act."

THAT amateur actors of undoubted ability exist in Charlottetown was again proved last night, when the curtains had rolled down upon the last scene of the drama, British Born played in the Opera House. This play has a strong plot, with many interesting situations, calling for skill. There is a large cast of characters, and the successful handling of the company is a matter upon which the co-sponsors merit congratulations. There was a full house, liberal with applause and pleased with the fare provided for them, as well might be the case. Dr. J. P. Murray, A. F. McEachern, J. J. Desmond, acted leading parts, and left splendid impressions of their work. E. Ritchie, and J. J. Kent were capital personators. Honors are due to Misses Ruby Rattray and Ida Byrne and to Messrs. Whitlock, Hearts, Irving and Hooper, who acted well their parts. The play was under the direction of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Charlottetown Hospital, and it is gratifying to note that such a splendid audience greeted them. Perhaps a feature which has been left to the last was as enjoyable as any incident of the evening—namely, the quartette by members of the St. Dunstan's College Glee Club.

DYSPEPSIA.
Medical science doesn't seem to be able to cure it. One professor says one thing, and all the time people keep on suffering terribly. Now what's the use of wasting words in arguing the matter? Why don't you get some Hutch tablets and try them! Take one after each meal. Plenty of people have cured themselves in this way, and that ought to be proof enough that it will cure you too. It is an unusual medicine and does unusual things. It's a doctor for ten cents. 200 sent for $1.00. One gives relief. For sale by all druggists.
