Says prohibition has increased drinking among young people of the United States.

The following article from New York is of particular interest in Prince Edward Island at this time.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—A campaign for modification of the Volstead Act to legalize the use of beer and light wines in order to save the young people of the nation, was announced today as the new policy of the Church Temperance Society, composed of the clergy and lay members of the Protestant Episcopal Church, by the national superintendent of the society, the Rev. Dr. James Empringham.

He declared a personal survey throughout the United States for the last 18 months has convinced him "it was impossible to legislate moral into the people," but that a campaign of education along temperance lines would eventually bring about that result.

Speaking at a meeting of the Episcopal clergy in New York, he asserted that prohibition had increased drinking among young people; discouraged the consumption of wine and beer and increased the demand for distilled liquors which today are most poisonous; had brought about disrespect for all laws and class legislation; discriminating in favor of the rich; "No law is of any value," he continued "unless you can get public sentiment generally behind it. Unfortunately, the states were asked to decide the matter during the excitement of the war when we were asking people to congregate grain forty-eight states tumbled over each other in a rush to ratify the amendment. The question was never referred to the individual voters. I am satisfied that a referendum would show the majority of the people opposed to any such drastic societies."

Stating that he was a lifelong abstainer and an ardent believer in prohibition, Dr. Empringham said it humiliated him to confess that "prohibition has made the situation worse instead of better." The law has resulted in the discontinuance of the teaching of scientific temperance by temperance societies.

He said the Volstead Act should be modified "in the interests of temperance and morality," adding that the society was planning a campaign to that end.

DO YOU COUGH?

One of our coughs is a severe cold and could not seem to get rid of it. It just cling to me and finally settled in my bronchial tubes causing me a lot of trouble. The cough would be more severe at night than during the day, causing sleeplessness. I finally decided I would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and by the time I had taken one bottle I was entirely relieved of the bronchial trouble—my cough disappeared and I have had no trouble with a cough since. I do not think a person can take anything better for bronchial weakness of the deep-seated cough than the 'Golden Medical Discovery.'—Miss Mary Duggan, 170 Ontario St.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.—The many friends of Hon. George E. Hughes, will be glad to know that the operation on his eyes has been most successful, and he and Mrs. Hughes are expected home from Boston at the end of the week.

DIES OF PNEUMONIA.—A wide circle of friends will sympathize with Mr. A. W. Peterson of this city in the death of his brother, which occurred suddenly last week. The following reference is from the Montreal Star of the 27th. After a short illness George Martin Peterson, an employee of Nestlé, Thompson, yesterday succumbed to an attack of pneumonia in the Royal Victoria Hospital. Mr. Peterson who was in his 37th year was a native of Montreal, where he had lived nearly all his life and had held several responsible positions in local business firms. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Peterson, father and mother, of 339 St. Catherine road, Montreal and three brothers and one sister survive.—Mr. Peterson is now in Montreal visiting his parents.

LOBSTER SEASON.—The lobster season of 1927, opening on Tuesday was not favourable for the fisherman or the fishermen of the North Side, on account of the ice grounded inshore. The water along the North Side of the Gulf, particularly east of St. Peters, was clear enough of ice outside, but in many cases the boats could not get off from the shore to set out the rope on account of ice. At Hay River the fishermen set out the rope, taking in the whole sea area, east of the factory, as far as Rockbarra. First come first served, McSae's boats could not get off and so got no rope out. A few trawls were also set out and probably if yesterday, Thursday, were fine here would be many more. There is a great advantage to those getting the choice of the fishing grounds—the early bird.

RECEIVES CALL.—The Halifax Herald says: A despatch from Moncton this morning stated that the Rev. Neil Herman, of Charlottetown, had been called to the First Baptist Church of the former city, one of the largest and most important churches in the Dominion. The Rev. Mr. Herman is well known in Halifax, being a native of Dartmouth, and has held a number of pastorates throughout the Province, including churches at Windsor, Sydney and Truro. He was for some time the incumbent at McPhail Memorial Church, Ottawa, and at one time was minister at Pointe La Prairie, Manitoba. Educated at Acadia, the Rev. Mr. Herman took his Bachelor of Divinity degree at Newton Theological Seminary, and considerable post graduate work. By a strange coincidence Rev. A. K. Herman, a nephew of Rev. Neil Herman, is minister of the Highfield Baptist Church at Moncton. The many friends of Mr. Herman will be pleased to hear of his call to this important congregation.

"The other young ladies are already here," he smiled at Billy, who had spoken a few pleasant words with him the night before. "Mr. Curtis will be right down."

"The other young ladies?" Billy murmured to her mother.

Tryon Tid Bits

(By "Eismac")

His old friends are delighted to welcome back to Tryon Mr. John Ives, who has arrived on a short visit with his parents Geo and Mrs. Ives, North Tryon. They are sorry to see that he has not yet recovered from the effects of the injury to his leg, although it is almost a month since the accident. Mr. Ives is a conductor on one of the Western divisions of the Canadian National.

Master Sheldon Dixon, son of Mr. Reginald Dixon, North Tryon, who we are sorry to report, seriously ill of pneumonia.

The funeral of Mrs. Reginald Dawson, whose death occurred some little time ago in Western Canada, took place from the home of Howard Francis, Tryon on Tuesday afternoon, April 26th. After a short service at the house, the funeral procession left for Westmoreland Church, where the funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Banyard, Baptist Pastor. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining. It is only about four years since this young couple and their two children, Horace and Marion, left North Tryon for the West, and Mr. Dawson and children, who are now back among us on their sad mission have the deep sympathy of their old friends and neighbors.

Miss Kathie Dobson, Augustine Cove, paid a short visit to Tryon Tuesday afternoon.

Politics—The air is full of it, and the cracker box politicians throughout the province are busily engaged in debating pro. and con. Government Control.

In Memoriam

HARRY A. STETSON.

Many friends on P. E. I. will learn with regret of the death of Harry A. Stetson, retired conductor of the C. N. R. Charlottetown, which took place at his residence 181 Dorchester St. on April 26th.

The late Mr. Stetson was born at Marshfield, Aug. 14, 1862. He was married Dec. 25 1887 to Miss Barbara A. MacKay, who is left to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate husband.

Entering the Railroad service on June 25th, 1883 as a brakeman, the late Mr. Stetson advanced from stage to stage until his appointment as a spare conductor in 1896.

In 1904 he received his regular run to the west. This position he capably filled until 1922 when sickness overcame him and he was compelled to go to Montreal for treatment.

This was the end of his railroad career.

For some time after he seemed to enjoy perfect health but for the past 18 months he has been a great sufferer. None but his faithful wife, who tenderly nursed him and a few intimate friends knew what he had to bear. His funeral took place on April 28 to Marshfield, as it was his last wish to be buried in the old Family Plot. The wreaths of flowers and letters of sympathy received alone testify to the high esteem in which he was held, the casket being liberally covered with flowers from all branches of the railroad, relatives and friends from home and abroad.

At times through his illness when he was free from pain he enjoyed life to the full and spent his time taking short trips on the Railroad and attending his flowers of which he was very proud.

His great enjoyment was to see his grounds looking beautiful and many favorable comments have been passed on the tidiness of his home.

There are left to mourn besides his disconsolate widow two brothers, viz: John, at Marshfield, and Archibald at Fort Saskatchewan, Alberta.

The funeral was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Muir of St. James church and the pall bearers were Mr. S. A. MacLeod, Mr. John MacLaughlin, Mr. John MacKenna, Conductor, MacCarron, Mr. Ross MacEwen, and Mr. Hal. Warren.

The Odd Fellows, of which Mr. Stetson was a highly esteemed member, held their regular service at the house. Much sympathy is extended to the widow and relatives in their sad bereavement.

MRS. MALCOLM MCKENZIE.

On Sunday, January 30th, Mrs. Malcolm McKenzie, a very highly esteemed resident of Glen Martin and formerly of Glen Valley, passed peacefully away at the home of her son William H. McKenzie, Glen Martin, at the age of 79 years.

She had been in her fairly good condition of health until a short while before the coming of the end, when she was taken ill and it was not long until she had passed away.

Her death came as a great shock to all. She had always been quite strong and very active, but when illness overtook her she sank rapidly until on the above mentioned date her gentle spirit winged its homeward flight.

Her husband, Mr. Malcolm McKenzie, predeceased her by some nine years. She now leaves to mourn their great loss one son and two daughters. The son is William H. McKenzie, Glen Martin, with whom she made her home, and her daughters were Mrs. John McLennan and Mrs. Isaac Semple, Head of Montague, and Mrs. John A. McKenzie, Summerside, P. E. I.

Another son, Duncan McKenzie, who resided in British Columbia, predeceased his mother by quite a number of years.

Mrs. McKenzie was a lady who was quite widely and favorably known and will be sadly missed by a large circle of relatives and friends. The greater part of her life was spent in Glen Valley, where she was loved and admired by all because of her kindly and helpful spirit.

Some seven years ago, not long after the death of her husband, she and her son William H. McKenzie moved to Glen Martin, where they have since resided. But in whatever community she made her home she was always an angel of mercy to all who were in need, and she never felt so happy as she was when helping to nurse the sick, or comfort the afflicted.

At her home, all worthy causes received a hearty welcome and no one needing aid ever called upon her in vain.

But while all shall miss her it is in the home that her loss will be felt most keenly. Her loved ones may call but she does not answer. They may wait but she comes not back again.

When the end came she was calm and unmoved. Her faith in the atoning merits of her crucified Savior was as firm as the everlasting hills. She knew in Whom she had believed and death had not terrors for her. Her passing was one of deep peace.

The funeral, which was quite a large one, was held on Tuesday, Feb. 1st. Interment was in the Presbyterian cemetery at Caldonia.

MISS CHARLOTTE SMITH

There passed away at Hopfield, P. E. I. on Sabbath morning, April 24, 1927, Charlotte, dearly beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith, of that place, at the early age of fourteen years.

Deceased was taken ill on Friday, April 15th, with pleuro-pneumonia, and during her illness she received the best medical care and tender nursing of loved ones, but God who doeth all things, called her home.

She was greatly loved by every one, a favorite in school, a bright pupil, and a loving companion; her dear name precious with many acts of kindness will long be remembered.

There Is No Church Congregation in Prince Edward Island Which Does Not Contain

A large number of conscientious and honorable, God-fearing and clear-thinking men and women who honestly, fearlessly and wholeheartedly believe that honest and straightforward control of the sale of liquor by the Government of the Province is better calculated to advance the moral standing of the community than the Prohibition Law, such as we have had in this Province for many years, can possibly be expected to do.

And it would seem to be unfair and unreasonable when a church pastor from the recognized sanctity of his pulpit or prayer desk (from which he cannot be answered back) tells these people that they are numbered with the "Wets," are working for the "Rummies" or helping the liquor traffic to lift up its head.

Such conduct on the part of any clergyman cannot but have the effect of lowering the standard of Christian religion in the eyes of many of our citizens, and will do much to discredit and disorganize religion in our communities.

Keep Baby's Skin Soft as Velvet

Prevent and Relieve Eczema

Mrs. Albert Bishop, 38 Laplanche St., Amherst, N.S., writes:—"In one week my baby was entirely relieved of eczema by the use of two boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment. He had sores all over his back."

EVERYWHERE Dr. Chase's Ointment is known and appreciated by mothers who have with gratitude witnessed the benefit it has brought to their suffering children.

Chafing and cracking of the skin is often the beginning of eczema. The trouble develops where two surfaces of skin rub together—as in the neck, armpits or between the legs of fleshy infants.

Dr. Chase's Ointment applied after the bath brings relief from this condition and prevents eczema.
