HOW DO YOU KNOW

that old sore from which you are suffering is incurable? Zam-Buk has cured thousands of cases of chronic sores.

Miss Nellie Lucas of Silver Lake, Oregon, writes: "My father developed a sore on his face which became very swollen and painful. We tried numerous remedies, and several doctors attended him, but the sore got no better, and the doctor said the only hope of curing it was an operation. Father determined, however, that he would first try Zam-Buk.

"Even after the first few applications of this wonderful balm he felt great relief. Gradually the pain was drawn out, the swelling disappeared and the sore was soon healed."

Zam-Buk is equally good for eczema, ringworm, blood-poisoning, bad legs, piles, burns, scalds and cuts. All druggists and stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

Dress up Your Circular Letters--

You would not think of sending a shabbily dressed, dirty-faced boy to your valued customers to act as your dignified representative.

It is even more unbusiness like to address an ordinary printed circular letter bearing a message to your customers, because it is a reflection on their better judgment.

Every letter you send out should be either typewritten or printed by the Multigraph Process, (and you can't tell one from the other.)

A letter produced by the Multigraph Printing Service is identical to typewriting in every respect. It is printed from movable type, printed through a ribbon making the appearance and effect of the finished product the same.

There is nothing more effective than a direct personal letter to your customers. This letter can be produced the Multigraph Way at a very nominal cost. You can have a hundred printed, or ten thousand, as you wish. The last copy will be as legible as the first.

Can be printed in most any size or color.

Tell us tell you more about it.

*EGG - CIRCLE MEETING. The Lorne Valley Egg Circle, No. 50, held their annual meeting on Monday the 14th inst. The President Mr. Murdoch Macdonald presided. Mr. Malcolm Macdonald, manager gave a concise and satisfactory report of the past year's work after which various routine business was transacted. Mr. Kerr the Dominion Poultry Representative who was present then addressed the meeting and gave a clear and logical exposition of the Act passed at the recent session of the Legislature, dealing with Poultry Associations and explained each clause separately. Mr. Kerr's address, which was most interesting and instructive, was heard with the closest attention by the large audience present and several questions asked relating to the working of the Egg Circles were most courteously and satisfactorily answered by him. At the conclusion of his address he distributed cheques among the different members present for the amounts retained during the past year, which go to make up the Reserve Fund, the largest cheque being received by Mr. George McLeod. The total quantity of eggs shipped by this circle from February to May both inclusive was 4994 dozens for which the average price of 28 1/2 cents per dozen was paid. This of course does not include the amount retained for the Reserve Fund which is payable next fall. The average store price during the same period was 31 1/2 cents. The matter of the Reserve Fund regarding which there seemed to be some misapprehension was fully gone into by Mr. Kerr and his explanation was satisfactory to all present. The election of officers was next proceeded with, the New Board of Directors being as follows: President Murdoch Macdonald. Directors Alex H. Macdonald, George Laird, George Matheson, John James Macdonald, Peter Macdonald and William Macdonald. The manager's Report showed this circle to be in a most prosperous condition and the Directors and Members are determined to make the present year surpass all former records. Meeting adjourned.—E.

THE MILKMAN

"The milkman goes his weary way before the rising of the sun, he earns a hundred bones a day, and often takes in less than one. While lucky people snore and drowse and bask in dreams of rare delight, he takes a cool and milks his cows about the middle of the night. If you have milked an old red cow, humped over a big six-gallon pail, and hal her sweat you on the brow with seven feet of burry tail, you'll know the milkman ought to get a plunk for every pint he sells; he earns his pay in blood and sweat, and sorrow in his bosom dwells. As through the city streets he goes, he has to sound his brazen gong, and people wake up from their dose and curse him as he goes along. He has to stagger through the snow when others stay at home and snore; and through the rain he has to go, to take the cow's juices to town. Through storm and flood and sun and rain the milkman goes upon the jump, and all his customers complain and make allusions to the pump. Because one milkman milks the creek instead of milking spotted cows against the whole brave tribe we kick, and stir up everlasting rows. Yet patiently they go their way, distributing their healthful juice, and what they do not get in pay, they have to take out in abuse."

AN INHERITANCE

A good inheritance is a good thing and yet it has its dangers. When young people get to rely upon it to do the work that properly belongs to them to do, it may be a great snare.

This is seen repeatedly in the case of inherited wealth.

Property that has been assiduously gathered together by labor and frugality, ability, and success, passes into the hands of young people who know nothing of what it stands for.

Its presence takes away the incentives to exertion which animate their parents, and, unless these are supplied from other sources, they are in great danger of living idle and valueless lives.

Thus it happens that wealth rarely continues in the same family for several generations.

The parents have gained the habit of acquiring, the children soon learn that of spending.

The necessities that appealed to the former so urgently, and developed their power to the utmost, are quite known to the latter, and the lack of motives is encraving.

In the same way, even the inheritance of a noble character and an honorable name, priceless blessings though it is, may be so used as to almost multiply its value.

SIGN OF THE SEASON.

The theatre which we Canadians love is no cheap movie, but a high-class show.

Four brilliant acts are always on the move.

Act one—the present set in rare white snow.

Act two—comes on and all the stage is green.

The background filled with apple blossoms sweet;

The hero comes in costume somewhat men.

But flinging round a golden shower of wheat.

Act three—sun, cicads, and now the thunder booms

A scene would almost chill your marrowbone.

Or shake the souls of dead men in their limbs;

But having passed the next one all atones.

For all the wings are filled with plenty now.

The artist's brush held many gorgeous hues;

You hear far off the lowing of a cow

A hint of sorrow mixes with the snows.

The action all foretells a tragic change—

The death of Summer—'tis to July weep—

So old—but always new and passing strange—

The curtain falls and leaves her fast asleep!

Such is the stage where we Canadians play.

You may want to change your automobile, or your piano, or even your home—but you will never want to change the COFFEE, when once you taste the delectable flavour of Chase & Sanborn's "SEAL BRAND" COFFEE.

Is 1/4, 1 and 2 pound tins. Whole—ground—pulverized—also fine ground for Percolators. Never sold in bulk.

A glorious drama written by God's pen—
Real clouds, grass, stars, snows, blizzards, roses gay—
—J. E. C.

A part for all real women and real men—
"Murder! Help! Murder!" when she was attacked; but no one of the inmates had gone to her assistance.
"Why on earth," I said to the woman, didn't you do something when you heard that poor creature shouting for help?
"Lor' love yer, sir!" was the reply. "If we was to get out o' bed every time we heard 'Murder' shouted in this 'ouse, we'd be 'oppin' in and out all night." —From "My Life," by G. R. Sims (Dagonet).

WHAT DO YOU

know about the printing of that most wonderful book—the Bible? Read the interesting facts and figures about it given below, and perhaps you will know more!

The Charlottetown Guardian offers the very best edition ever printed for popular use, to its readers, in what might be called a "gift distribution:

The Big Print Red Letter Bible

Fascinating Figures About the Bible

Over 200 million copies of the Bible have been printed. Touching end to end, they would go 'round the world—25,000 miles. Piled one on another, it would take 4,000 mountains like Mt. Everest, the highest in the world, to reach the topmost book. But this is not all. The public libraries of the entire world could not contain them. It would take two of the largest ships ever built, loaded to the deck, or a hundred freight trains with 25 cars to the train, to transport them. Stacked in columns, they would make 100,000 Eiffel Towers, the tallest structure ever built by human hands. To print them would require at least 100 billions of pages of type.

The mere physical facts about the Bible stagger the imagination. All the other books ever printed seem microscopic by comparison. The Bible has been read by more people than any ten thousand other books. Today it forms the basis of religion for several hundred millions of the most enlightened peoples of the earth. The greatest war in history began in 1914, and shook the world from center to circumference. As a result, untold millions of people, startled out of their lethargy, took to the Bible to save their sanity and restore their mental vision. The first year of the war saw more Bibles sold than in any other year since it was printed.

It was the consideration of these facts that led this newspaper, in conjunction with all the leading newspapers of the country, to seize upon the psychological moment in which to inaugurate a nation-wide revival of Bible-reading. The edition now offered in these columns is the same as is being offered by the leading papers everywhere—not for profit to themselves—but for the benefit of their readers.

We invite comparison with any other edition of the Bible. We challenge competitive examination; secure in the knowledge that the Famous Red Letter Edition we offer, is easily first—and beyond any ordinary offering by publishers who seek only profit.
