

MURDERER DEAD OF HIS WOUNDS

Dewis Smith, Slayer of James Rector, Succumbed to Self-Inflicted Injury

PARRSBORO, N. S., April 4.—Another act in the tragedy which last week started and shocked the town terminated shortly after noon today when Dewis Smith, the slayer of James Rector, succumbed to his self-inflicted injury and passed beyond human jurisdiction.

It was at first believed that he would recover but he failed steadily and never entirely recovered his reason. He was about twenty-three years old and unmarried. He had always lived with his parents with the exception of part of last year which he spent in the Northwest, where one of his brothers, now on his way home, has been living. Much sympathy is felt for Smith's mother who is prostrated with grief.

How To Save Work In The Home

Most of the dust in the modern home comes from the floor. It needn't, if you would use Floorglaze right. And dust isn't merely a bother for the housewife and the maids. It's a danger.

Dust spells d-i-s-e-a-s-e. The germs of all infections dwell, mainly, in floor-dust. Floorglaze reduces floor-dust to a minimum.

When you coat a floor with any of the ten shades of Floorglaze you have a floor that is creviceless (can't harbor germs), washable (use an anti-septic in the mop-water), and nearly dust-proof.

You will get weary watching for it to wear off that floor. Floorglaze stands outdoor wear, even—verandas, porch steps, etc. And a gallon covers 25 square feet. Cheap!

Your dealer has it. You would buy Floorglaze interesting reading, we send you a copy? Ask for a card. Imperial Varnish and Oil Co., Limited, of Toronto.

READY TO WEAR MILLINERY AT PATON & CO'S

A Magnificent And Tempting Array Of Handsome Things From New York, Etc

Spring! Its charm is in the air, and felt by everyone.

Its welcome and warm breath has melted the winter's mantle of ice, and soon the fair face of the earth shall be clothed again in the new and beautiful garb of approaching summer.

This transformation in appearance is not confined, in Spring, to old Mother Earth. The features that are upon the earth—from the least to the greatest—feel the desire of a change, to don a new vesture. Even the lord of creation—man! He's got a feeling that he would like to go fishing, and he is not less conscious that his last year's hat is getting shabby.

And woman, bless her, cares nothing about going fishing, but she is very sure about wanting a new hat. Which brings the subject of this article at once before the reader—it is Paton & Co's display of early ready-to-wear Spring Millinery.

Miss Doiron, the firm's milliner, has lately returned from an extended visit to New York and other centers of fashion, where she has been taking notes and making selections for the benefit of Paton & Co's customers. The things she has brought back are simply delightful, and compel admiration on the part of all who see them.

As a matter of fact one is at a loss, when asked to describe any or all of the charming creations seen, on which lace, plumes, aigrettes, flowers in profusion and the most daintiest are altogether employed.

A decidedly new feature is the absence of the bandeau, the hat being worn flat on the head. Wings are put to use for trimming—three and four pairs being used on one hat.

Ribbons form the most favored trimming; they are lovely Dresden designs, soft Taffetas, delightful new weaves, in all widths and colors. Velvet ribbon never loses its popularity—this year it is lavishly used.

Flowers are in the richest profusion, every kind is represented, and every one in style.

The new colors are many and beautiful. The most popular shade of blue is Lotus. Green is also very good and Brown still retains its popularity. The large hats are the most favored. The sailor shapes are extremely popular—both straight and rolled brims are shown. As far as sailors are concerned there are styles in all lengths and breadths, and heights of crowns to suit any ones tastes.

Miss Doiron has also brought some novelties in veillings. To-day and tomorrow the firm will be busy opening up ready-to-wear hats, of which there are over one hundred and fifty styles to select from.

The grand annual millinery opening by this firm, now recognized as an "event" of the season takes place on Wednesday and Thursday, the 15th and 16th inst.

SHIPWRECKED BY FLYING METEOR

Stone From Thunderstorm Strikes Deck And Crashes Through Hull

BUENOS AIRES, April 4.—A tale of hipwreck more vivid by far than the frangest imaginations of the writers of romance and adventure, reached Queenstown this week.

The sailing ship Eclipse, 1,469 tons, was on a voyage from Newcastle to San Francisco. She had been at sea for eighty-five days when she was overtaken by a terrible hurricane.

Lightning followed by deafening peals of thunder lit the sky. Suddenly a meteor struck her foretop, masting which fell to splinters to the deck.

The meteor crashed right through the deck and tearing a large hole in the hull, fell into the sea.

Water immediately poured into the ship. The pumps were set going and for four days and nights the crew worked to save their ship, snatching sleep in short spells as they could.

No effort could keep the ship afloat, however, and Captain Lassen and his crew of fifteen were compelled to take to the boats. A few hours later they saw the ship founder.

The men spent fifteen days in the open boats under a scorching sun. Two biscuits and two gills of water formed each man's allowance for the days. They shaped a course as best they could, for the Sandwich Islands, 900 miles from the spot where they were wrecked. Their sufferings reached a climax on the thirteenth day, when three men died.

Their bodies when thrown overboard were instantly devoured by sharks, which followed the boats. Some days later they sighted a small island, and on the following day the boats reached its shore.

The helpless sailors were carried on the backs of natives to places of safety. Their sufferings were then at an end and they were conveyed later to Honolulu.
